SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The recent talk of moving Turner Normal from Shelbyville has created quite a stir here among both colored and white. The suggestion is meeting with a vigorous protest on every side. Dr. Jones, the president, states, however, that there will be no change for the present session, and that the school will open on schedule time, September 20th.

Dr. Jones also says that in his opinion, much harm has been done by the continued agitation of the subject; that the tone of many letters from parents and former students indicate that they are waiting for the matter to be settled before they can decide what to do. Although most of the room in the building has been engaged for the coming session.

Dr. W. Sampson Brooks and his wife are spending a few weeks of rest and recreation on Turner Normal campus. Others are expected soon from Nashville. It is Dr. Jones' aim to make Turner Normal a pleasant summer resort for colored people.

Rev. George Dartis, of Nashville, is spending a few weeks in Shelbyville.

Mr. Anderson Buchanan, of South Pittsburg, visited his people here this week. He was accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Nannie B. Benson and Mrs. Rev. F. W. Gardner have opened up a hair dressing parlor and Art studio down in town. Their place of business is quite attractive, and they are already doing a rushing business.

Rev. J. W. Sebastian, of Denver, Tenn., is visiting his parents. His bride accompanied him.

Mrs. J. A. Jones is in town and settled at Turner Normal, where she will serve as Preceptress for the next session.

Dr. J. A. Jones is in town again for a few days, but will leave again soon to fill an engagement in West Tennessee.

The people of the M. E. Church are already beginning to make preparation to entertain the annual conference, which meets in this town in October.

SMYRNA NOTES.

On last Sunday evening Mrs. L. M. Wendell conducted the reading circle which she organized here two months ago for the last time before leaving for her home. She has been here two months, and during that time she has been a great help to the church and community at large. All will miss her. All gave her the hand of goodbye. On Saturday night she conducted a very successful entertainment for the benefit of the church. Monday morning she and her son left laden with gifts and tokens of her many friends. She was accompanied by Mrs. Eva Perry, who will spend the week with her.

Miss Eva Green is visiting here.

Mr. T. Turner is very sick with fever.

The remains of Miss Nannie McAdoo was brought here from Antioch Monday and buried by the Benevolent Society of that place. Rev. Strong will preach the funeral later, as it was her request. Before we close the sad news of the death of Mr. L. Turner is received. He will be buried at Sand Hill in the Cemetery of the United Sons of Relief of which he was a member.
