Morris Brown College the First Victim of the Tigers at Atlanta.

Special to the Globe.

The Baptist Tigers lined up against Morris Brown College for the first game of the season and administered to her a defeat to the tune of 50 to 0.

Morris Brown is to be encouraged from the fact that this was her first attempt at the game. The Tigers lost many of her old players last year, but the spirit that was left in the rest of the men was in evidence Saturday when the mighty backs were hurled through their opponents' line at will.

Coaches Bullock, of Dartmouth fame, and Archer, of Colgate, stood in the side line and saw their boys work. The spectacular plays that had been taught them by hard training. The game was characterized by fumbling, as the opening games usually are. Morris Brown was game to the last and contended for every inch gained. This was the Tigers' first victim of the season and a watchword to the others that they may expect the same.

STEVENSON (ALA.) NOTES.

The revival that has been going on at the Morning Star M. B. Church closed last Sunday with two converts. Mr. Abron Josephs has built a nice little house for his family. He is a reader of the Globe. The rally at the C. P. Church Sunday was quite a success. Mr. Wm. Young and Mr. Willie Tally took a pleasant drive to Cedar Grove last Sunday. One of the brick masons that are engaged in work in our town met with a very serious accident Tuesday last. Miss Mattie H. Seruggs, our school teacher, is a reader of the Globe. Miss Seruggs says that the Nashville Globe is a fine paper and every Negro should have it in their home; she says also the race will never be what it should and ought to be unless we put our forces together and build up our own enterprises.

PARIS NOTES.

Mr. Wm. Waddy is out again after a few days' illness. The revival is in progress at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Bernette. Master Cornell Atkins has returned from Memphis after a two week's visit. The Old Maids' Association was rendered at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church last Tuesday night. It was very amusing. Mr. Henry Lovell left for Memphis this week. Mrs. Mattie Brown and son left for East St. Louis last Sunday. Mrs. Minnie L. Sparks, who has been sick for many days, is reported up again, also Mrs. Lona Mai Golden, who has been sick, is reported much better. Miss Louise Johnson, of McKenzie, made a short visit last week to her friends, Misses Marion Epps and Willie B. Dinwiddle. The annual conference rally will be held at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church Sunday, the 29th inst. All the city pastors with congregations have been cordially invited. On Monday night, the 30th, the "Tom Thumb Wedding" at Quinn Chapel promises to be of much interest. The bridal party will consist of twenty tots.

WILLIAMSPORT NOTES.

Mrs. J. A. Jackson, of Nashville, the president of the Home and Foreign Mission Society, was here last Wednesday and Thursday. She lectured Wednesday night. Mrs. A. Russell read a paper; Mrs. Reece Flowers and Mrs. Harvie Hudson sang a duet; Mrs. L. S. Collins read a paper; Mrs. Tennie Russell sang a solo and read a paper. After the recital they were entertained with a reception given by the missionary ladies. Rev. Bryant, of Grace's Branch, was here Sunday. He preached both day and night for Rev. N. Smith. Miss Maud Williams came home Friday from Chestnut Ridge, where she is teaching. She was accompanied by Miss Ethel Gray and Miss Princes Foster, of Theda. They returned home Monday. While here they were the guests of Miss Annie Church Saturday night. Mrs. Hattie Wade and little daughter, of Little Lot, were the guests of her sister, Mrs. Linnie Flowers, recently.

Mrs. Mary A. Jones and little daughter, of Tinnell pike, were the guests of Mrs. Robert Harris recently. Misses Myrtle Wadkins and Sophia Crow were the guests of Miss Anice Alderson Sunday afternoon. Miss Alice Woods left last Monday for Nashville, where she will spend a month or two. Mr. Howard F. Hutchers and Mr. Maury Gant made a flying trip to Columbia Sunday. Mrs. Sallie Strayhorn is sick. Miss Mary P. Crosby is able to be up again at this writing. Mrs. J. A. Jackson while here was the guest of Mrs. Tennie Russell and Mrs. Burrell Russell. Rev. N. Smith left Tuesday for Nashville, where he will attend the annual conference which will convene at St. John A. M. E. Church. Several of his members will go with him; we are expecting his return as pastor; we are much pleased with him and his year's work. Mr. Leonard Hutcherson returned home from Nashville last Wednesday. He spent several weeks there with relatives and friends.

ROGER WILLIAMS NOTES.

Conveniences for day students have improved no little. There will be transportation to and from the car line mornings and afternoons for the benefit of the young people who are disposed to attend school out at the school this year. There shall be no more dread of the mud and slush so many have experienced during the very unpleasant wintry months along the White's Creek pike. Parents who have had such a horror to the exposure along the pike can forcefully say, "never more."

The Executive Board of the State Baptist Convention convened in the city last week and all the members visited Roger Williams last Friday, the 20th, and having looked through the plant, spoke encouragingly before the student body. Some said that the progress had been a little short of miraculous. All were pleasantly surprised at the permanency of the school; each went away enthused and encouraged to do greater things for the school.

The Religious and Literary societies of the school are in full blast now so that every phase of student life for good is in operation.

Prof. A. M. Jackson still has charge of athletics, and is faithfully welding into form the material he has on hand as prospectives for pieces on the football team. Prospects are brighter this year than that of last year, with McConico back in the game things should go well with the boys at Roger Williams. The team will play Meharry and Fisk and probably Walden and then take a trip out of the city to take on at least one heavy team before the close of the season. Six members of last year's team have returned: Allen, Gant, Andrews, Joe Jeffries, F. Jeffries, Pullen, Mitchell and McConico. The new aspirants are: Alsop, Jones, Dozier, Nofleet, Sirse, Cantrell, Ellis and Powell and many others who do not show to be first-class material.

WINCHESTER NOTES.

Miss Violet Arnett gave an afternoon tea in honor of Mr. Charlie Gray, who was about to make his departure for Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Gray leaves many warm friends behind. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Glibreath left Saturday evening for Gurley, Ala., where they will make their home. Mr. Charlie Prothe is sick this week. We hope he will be out in a few days. Miss Marion A. Norris, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Atlanta, Ga., and Chattanooga, Tenn., is now visiting Mrs. Charlie Prothro, of this city. Miss Norris will leave in a few days for Nashville. Miss Alberta Cunningham will leave in a few days to attend Fisk University at Nashville. Mr. Oscar Childress delivered an address at the Mt. Zion Church Wednesday night.

OAKLAND NOTES.

One of the most entertaining treats of the week was the concert given by Miss Ether Belle Howell Friday night. A creditable programme was rendered. Quite a number of distinguished persons were present. Among them were Rev. and Mrs. W.

A. Rodgers, Mrs. Leslie Johnson and brother, Willie, Miss S. J. Smith, Mr. L. J. Perry, Mr. B. R. Flippin and daughter. We were very glad to welcome Miss Cora B. Flippin home again, where she will spend two months. Miss Flippin suspended her school at Oakland until December. The service at Carters Chapel Sunday was very good indeed. Rev. Holmes preached a good collection was raised on the pews' fund. Mrs. R. L. Danridge and sister, Miss Cora B. Flippin, entertained Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Walton, Prof. and Mrs. L. H. Walker and their cute little sons, Miss H. E. Walton, Mr. George Raynor, Mr. Morgan Walton and Mrs. J. C. Montague. A three-course menu was served. Mr. W. K. Jones and Miss A. R. Moss visited the home of Miss Gertrude Montague Sunday. The farmers on Oakland's R. F. D. route are busy harvesting their crops. Some are gathering corn, a few are cutting hay, and
