CLIFTON NOTES.

The A. M. E. Church has been blessed with the return of Rev. A. T. Cooper as pastor for another year. The M. E. Church has a new pastor, from Lewisburg. Mrs. Elizabeth Bogdan, Mrs. Cooper and Miss Anna Davis, who have been ill, are convalescent now. Mrs. Beatrice Mitchell nee Spears wishes to return thanks to her many friends at home and abroad for the many nice presents to her and husband, Mr. Frank Mitchell. Mr. Joe Mitchell is over here assisting others in gathering their crops and next week will gather his own. He contemplates moving to Nashville soon. N. C. Jackson and Rev. A. T. Cooper, carpenters, are building very nice homes for Miss Ida Jones on Broad street. Rev. A. T. Cooper preached his first sermon here this new year. It was good and had its effect upon the hearts of its hearers. Mr. Leandrew McClain and Mr. Guin made a flying trip to Flatwood Saturday and W. J. Young to Luke's Plasin.

CENTERVILLE NOTES.

Sunday-school was largely attended at both churches last Sunday. The Lofton Reed is some better at this writing. Mr. Tom Reed and Mr. George Cunningham, of Edenwald, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lofton Reed Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gray entertained Rev. U. S. G. Brown at supper Friday night. Miss Sallie L. Gray is spending a few days at St. John the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Josie Benton, Miss Minnie Lee Dower and little Miss Jessie Benton spent Sunday in Springfield, Tenn., and returned to their home Sunday night.

PARIS NOTES.

The Second Central Tennessee Annual Conference convened here Wednesday, October 23rd, at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church, with the newly-elected bishop, Rev. J. H. Jones, presiding. The conference was opened with very impressive service followed by the communion; after which the regular routine of business pursued. At night the welcome addresses were delivered as follows: Mr. H. C. Edmunds, in behalf of the citizens; Mr. R. H. Woodson, in behalf of the business men; Mrs. T. W. Hampton, in behalf of the public school, and Mrs. S. E. Fitzgerald in behalf of the missionary society, followed by a selection by Mrs. Mary Kirby and a solo by Mrs. J. S. Kelly. After an appropriate selection by the choir the bishop responded very eloquently to the welcome addresses. Friday night, educational night, a special effort was made for the funds for Turner Normal College, which was responded to liberally. The public school choir furnished music for the occasion. The members of Quinn and citizens of Paris lost no opportunity in making it pleasant for the conference. The bishop preached at the A. M. E. Church (white) Sunday evening, which was highly commended. The appointments were read Sunday night after service. Mrs. Leslie Miller has been very ill but is much improved. Mrs. Aray Langford, of Marktree, Ark., and family are visiting here en route to Martin, where they will make their home. Mrs. Rama Porter was seriously burned Sunday night at her home on Blythe street. A revival is being held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridges spent Sunday last in the country.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

The center of attraction in this vicinity for the last week was Wesley Chapel, in which the forty-second session of the Tennessee annual conference of the C. M. E. Church was held, Bishop C. H. Phillips, of Nashville, presiding. Bishop Phillips has had charge of the Fifth Episcopal District, which embraces the states lying north and west of Tennessee, including the latter and extending to the Pacific coast. The conference was well attended, many visitors being present from the Kentucky and West Tennessee Conferences, also several general officers. A special feature of the conference was the report of the Women's Missionary Society, which showed that while they were only asked to raise $400 for the year, they really brought in $403. Another special feature was the reception tendered Rev. P. J. Coleman on Thursday night, as a testimonial for his six years of service at Wesley Chapel. The conference closed on Sunday night when the Bishop announced the following appointments: Nashville District. Presiding Elder, P. J. Coleman; Capers Chapel, J. H. Crooks; Lane Tabernacle, E. H. Hall; Chattanooga, I. H. Jones; Laguardo Station, G. L. Davis; Avondale Circuit, W. R. Payne; Gallatin Circuit, W. R. Pat-ter; Odons Bend Mission, Wm. Douglas; Water Town Circuit, D. Black; Laverge Circuit, A. J. Parker; Trinity Mission, H. E. Rucker; South Nashville Mission, D. D. Venerable; Spring Hill Circuit, B. R. Scott; Pulaski Mission, A. Springer; Iron City West Point Circuit, D. R. Gills; Hendersonville Mission, J. Kirkpatrick.

Clarksville District.

Presiding Elder, R. B. Polk; Clarksville Station, T. H. Copeland; Cross Plains Station, Phillips Sarver; Goodlettsville Station, Monzel L. Smith; Spring and Adams, A. D. Shel-ton; Sadlers and Bethel Station, H. J. Johnson; Woodlawn and Hermon, J. Quarles; Cumberland City Circuit, D. W. Hawkins; Erin and Mt. Pleasant Circuit, G. W. Moore; Savannah Station, S. L. McGee; Savannah Cir-cuit, Thos. Lane; Dixon Mission, W. H. Allensworth.

Transfers.

L. D. Thomas to West Kentucky and stationed at Lane Chapel and Crofton Station. I. McFerrin to Kentucky and Ohio Conference, stationed at Miles Chapel, Louisville.

Personal Mention.

The Rev. I. H. Jones, of Nashville, preached a sermon of rare beauty and force at St. Peter A. M. E. Church last Sunday morning; while Rev. T. H. Copeland, of Louisville, who has just been assigned to Wesley Chapel, preached a splendid sermon at night. St. Peters is rejoicing in the fact that no change has been made in their pastor nor presiding elder. Mr. W. H. McGavock and wife, of Nash-ville, spent Sunday in the city and were the guests of Dr. S. Jefferson. Mrs. Mary Keesee, of Spring street, died of paralysis last Saturday and was buried on Monday. Bishop C. H. Phillips, D. D., and Rev. D. A. Graham and wife were royally entertain-ed last Saturday at a four-course dinner by Mrs. D. A. Trotman on Franklin street.

ALLEN CREEK NOTES.

We are having some beautiful weather and everybody seems to enjoy it. Quite a number attended Sunday-school last Sunday. Miss Annie Wylie, of Waynesboro, is teaching at the public school here. She came to all on the unexpired term of Prof. Jackson, who left for Arkansas. Mr. James Beck and Mr. Morzan Smith have rebuilt their restaurant in the same place. It was destroyed some weeks ago by fire. The place is much larger, and they are doing a good business. Mrs. M. E. Pointer, of Waynesboro, was the pleasant guest of Mrs. L. B. Smith on last Sunday. Mrs. Amy Childs and little daughter, Tomie Childs, have just returned home from Minneapolis where she has been visiting her brothers, Mr. H. C. and Mr. J. D. Mitchell. She reports a delightful stay in the beautiful city. Mr. Alexander Beck, of Dickson, is in our town visiting his brother, Mr. Jas. Beck. Mrs. Ella Vassel is visiting her sisters.

FARMINGTON NOTES.

On the nights of November 2 and 4th the M. E. Church, of Farmington and Milltown gave a grand reception in honor of their newly appointed pastor, Rev. H. W. Rucker. The following ladies will serve on the reception committee: Mesdames Josie Maberry, Casand Hamilton, Catherine Bowen, Bettie Rice, Emma Bowen, Bettie Puckett, Victoria Smiley, Minnie Smith, Priscilla Orr, Mary Roberson, Nealey Owens, Addie Holt, Laura McClain and Belle Orr. On the first Sunday in November our beloved district superintendent was with us. He preached two interesting sermons, which were pleasing to all who heard him. Collection, $24.49. These good members and friends of the above-named churches are second to none in their loyalty to their churches and pastors.

LEBANON NOTES.

The untimely death of Mr. George Taylor, who was burned, was a shock to Lebanon. Miss N. E. Davis, one of the members of the faculty of the Lebanon public school, was called to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Rev. Andrew Davis. The Misses Petty, Essie and Disy were the guests of Floruch W. Hughes Sunday afternoon. Rev. Andrew Davis died at his home Wednesday, November 14, 1911, after an illness of several days. The death of this noble man brings sadness to the hearts of scores of the citizens of Wilson county who have known and admired him through almost a lifetime spent here. In his religious life he was a Methodist minister. He was faithful in his attendance upon the meetings of the church, and always showed the highest regards for religious work. Rev. Davis was 101 years old. He is gone but not forgotten; a chair is vacant in our church, which never can be filled; he always met us with a cheerful smile and a grasp of the hand, but we hope to meet and join him again in a happy reunion with God. We have this another strong tie that binds us to heaven; we feel that when we approach the beautiful gate that Rev. Davis will be there to welcome us home; let us, dear friends, ever keep in memory Rev. Davis. We can only look to the sympathizing Jesus who said, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." But we know when we are called to the beautiful land one of the brightest angels to meet us will be Rev. Davis. Miss Jessie Graham, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the famous landscape painter, writes that she hopes to arrive in Lebanon in time to witness the grand Art Exhibit of Miss Jennie V. Hughes. She is on her way to Harri-man to get some mountain scenery and other points. Mrs. Hortense Draper has returned from Nashville.

WILLIAMSPORT NOTES.

The Stewardesses Board of the A. M. E. Church met Monday in the parsonage with Rev. N. Smith presiding. Rev. N. Smith and Miss L. S. Collins were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Webb Saturday for dinner. The evening was spent in hunt-ing nuts with a number of little folks to join them. Quite a success was had. Rev. N. Smith and Mr. A. J. Blackburn were invited guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Watkins Sunday. Mr. J. A. Ganit was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Strayhorn Sunday. Rev. N. Smith was called to Nashville Sunday to be present at the funeral of a relative, Miss Lee Jones, daughter of Rev. H. L. P. Jones, D. D. Rev. R. B. Flowers and Rev. Charles Webster filled the pulpit for Rev. N. Smith Sunday at 11 o'clock. Each sermon was grand. At night Rev. J. H. Hull and Rev. J. S. Ganit preached. Mrs. Marshall Banks, of Mt. Pleasant, and daughter, Miss Elvora Booker, are visiting her brothers, Messrs. T. B. and Grant Crosby. Mr. Dan Anderson, of Grace's Branch, spent Sunday with his brother and family Mr. John Anderson. Mr. G. W. Russell and wife are planning to leave for Nashville Saturday, where they will reside in the future.

CARLISLE NOTES.

Sunday, the 10th was an interest-ing day with Baptists. Four were baptized by Rev. Dunbar in Cross Creek. Miss Della Milams is quite ill at this writing. Miss Glendola Stacker and Mrs. Nella Milams were visiting friends Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hattie R. Mark served a four-course dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Nella Milams, of Bear Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stacker were mingling with friends Sunday afternoon. Mr. Hurmon Walton has returned from Cedar Bluff, Ky., where he has been for 15 months. Mr. Charlie Barns is back to his old home again after being away for some time visiting friends in St. Louis, Mo., Collinsville, Ill. and Paducah, Ky. He reports a good time. Mrs. Anna Milams and Daughter, Miss Francis Milams were the pleasant guests of Mr. Joe Milams, son and brother Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Spence Haston, Miss Marra Bue, of Longe Creek, were Mrs. Pinkie Bratton's guests Sunday. Mrs. Clara Shamel made many visits Sunday.

GREENFIELD NOTES.

Last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Viola Allen gave her little five year old daughter, Minnie Lee, a very unique birthday dinner and invited quite a number of the little ones to be present. More than twenty responded to the call. These little ones certainly enjoyed themselves very much playing, eating and being merry. No doubt but that the little ones wish that these occasions would happen more often. Rev. F. E. Young, P. C., of Allen's Chapel A. M. E. Church has returned from Conference. His congregation is very proud of his return. His energetic and excellent work, together with his congenial disposition, have won for him much admiration. The following are reported ill this week: Mr. Will Crutchfield, Joe Coates, Mr. Andrew Willberger, Mrs. Alice Willingham, Mrs. Annie Duncan, Mrs. Minnie and Malvinia Terrell. Mr. Will Ward met with a painful accident a few days ago, while barking logs at the Box Factory. He is reported much improved. The A. M. E. Parsonsage, which was blown down several months ago, has been rebuilt and the pastor, Rev. Young, has moved in. There is only one thing lacking—that is a good cook and housekeeper. We hope this will be added soon. Mr. W. T. Stinson is all smiles, from the fact that a 10 lb. young lady arrived at his home a few nights ago. Mother and baby are doing fine. The rally at the C. M. E. Church on the first Sunday was a success. All told, more than $50 was raised. The following ladies were club leaders: Mrs. Alice Massey, Mrs. Minnie Terrell, Mrs. Myrtle and Mrs. Minnie Ward. All worked well. Mrs. Minnie Ward's club led. Reported $15.00. She received a nice present of a $2.50 gold piece. Rev. Winters and his people are moving. Mr. Harve and Florence Gregory and Mrs. Belle Lett returned from Atwood, bringing with them their sister who is ill, Mrs. Rhoda Winston. She is improving. Mrs. Leslie McCorry and Mr. Walter Cathel returned from Tiptonville on the 3rd. Mrs. Ettie Crews left Sunday for Tiptonville and Cairo. Mr. Earnest Hornbeak arrived from Memphis Saturday. Mr. James Williams returned home from Chicago Sunday. Prof. M. A. Dobbs left for Sharon Sunday to begin school work. Rev. Moseley, pastor of Baptist Church at Sharon, preached two excellent sermons Sunday. The congregation raised $13.85 for him.

DAYTON NOTES.

Mrs. G. A. Miller, who has been in Cincinnati for the past two months visiting relatives returned last Monday. Rev. Johnson filled the stand for Rev. Triggs at the A. M. E. Zion Church Sunday, November 3rd. Mrs. Stant Holman, of East Washington street, who has been indisposed is convalescing. Mr. Lono Holman, of North Fox and Main streets met with the misfortune to break his leg or Hallowen night. Mrs. Virginia Cunningham accompanied by Mrs. Hattie Loney was the welcome guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin last Sunday. Mr. Claude Harbin of Morgan-town, is ill with rheumatism. The rally at the A. M. E. Zion Church last Sunday, November 3rd was a success, but the amount was not reported. Mrs. Lucinda Coleman, who has been ill is better. The City School in charge of Prof. C. H. Powell is progressing nicely and is preparing a fine program for the holiday exercises under the management of Prof. Powell and his assistants, Miss Bessie Franklin and Miss Mabel Franklin. Mr. R. A. Gallagher, of South Spring st., met with the misfortune to throw his leg out of place last Tuesday, Novem-ber 5th. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walls now of Columbus, Ohio, but formerly of Dayton, arrived in our city last Sunday, November 10th. Mrs. Sarah Broyles, of Morgantown, who has been (Continued from page 7.)
