

Don't Hold the Boy Back

Did you ever stop to think of the great danger in holding a boy back?

He hears of other boys making money and comes to you and begs for a chance to try. But you say: "No you are too small." You continue saying this until the boy believes he is too small to do anything but pull his mother's apron strings--a great life is blighted and you are to blame.

Don't Hold the Boy Back, Let Him Try

and you help him to get a start. It will mean more to the boy than you can imagine.

No better way to get your boy accustomed to making a few dimes for himself than selling Newspapers.

THE NASHVILLE GLOBE

offers an opportunity to every boy.
