SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The Mt. Zion Baptist Church has taken on new life since the installation of the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Gooch. His people seem to be delighted with him, and the prospects for a successful year are flattering. The Turner Normal choir, which sings every Sunday morning at the A. M. E. church, thrilled the audience with the rendition of some new jubilee songs last Sunday. Dr. Norman, the pastor, preached a very strong sermon, and expressed himself as having been inspired by the sweet singing of the choir. The rally at Sett Chapel M. E. Church last Sunday was quite a success, considering the short time since they began the movement. Dr. Norman preached in the afternoon, and Dr. J. A. Jones preached at night. The amount raised was $80. The people were delighted. Mrs. N. B. Benson carried a company of Turner Normal students over to Bell-buckle last Friday night to give a concert. The entertainment consisted principally of drills by a team of young girls, songs and recitations. A good crowd was on hand and the people were highly pleased. Dr. Jones accompanied the troupe. The party went over in vehicles by way of the pike. This was very enjoyable to the girls who like the novelty of the trip. The talk of the town is the big concert to be given on the 20th at the City Auditorium by the students of Turner Normal College, associated with Rev. Mr. Myers, formerly of the Fisk Jubilee Quartet. Mr. Myers will give one of his recitations in connection with the students on that date. The Turner Normal students will then go to Murfreesboro the following week and give an entertainment at Rev. Myers' church. The boys of Turner are planning a big match game of baseball with the Nashville Deer Footh on the 21st of April. The Order of the Eastern Star will hold their Palm Sunday services at the First Baptist Church next Sunday. Dr. J. A. Jones will preach the sermon. Miss Annie Lee Thompson entertained Misses M. C. Boddie, A. P. Compton and Fannie A. Killian at tea last Saturday evening. Miss Callie Murry came home from Nashville last week quite ill. The Nightingale Quartet of T. N. C. and the Imperial Dramatic Company go to Murfreesboro this week to entertain in the A. M. E. Church.

DR. BOUTTE ENTER TAINS MEMBERS OF ROCK CITY ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

Dear Doctor—Your much highly-prozed invitatio nto be present at the stag set by you at the rooms of the Rock City Academy of Medicine and Surgery on Monday night next is now before me. I hereby express my acceptance of this invitation. I regret very much that a previous engagement to speak in Columbia on that same evening will prevent my being present.
I wish, however, to express to you my appreciation and hearty approval of your efforts by this means to demonstrate your relations and good will towards the members of the profession in this city. I bespeak that the evening will be pleasantly spent.

You are to be congratulated upon the conception you have of the proper relationship that should exist between the Pharmacist and the Physician, and also upon the efforts you are putting forth to run and maintain a first-class up-to-date drug store. Your ideals cannot be reached alone. We as physicians must rally to your support not only in saying good things to you, but in sending our prescriptions to you as well. With this done on our part, I feel confident that your sympathetic yet perfectly controlled nature, ready tact and sterling common sense will do the rest.

With best wishes for a most enjoyable evening, and pledging you my co-operation and support upon command by you at any time, I remain,
Yours truly,
A. M. TOWNSEND, M. D.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Dr. G. W. Porter, pastor of St. John A. M. E. Church, Nashville, was here for a few days last week. Presiding Elder G. L. Jackson preached at St. Paul last Sunday, this being the second quarterly conference of this conference year. Mrs. Jane Crawley died March the 7th after an illness of only a few weeks. She leaves a husband and one daughter, Mrs. Almata Choat, of Nashville, and a host of other relatives and friends. Hers was a beautiful Christian life. She was a kind neighbor and will be greatly missed in the community in which she lived. Her funeral was largely attended and was from St. Paul, where she had been a member for only a few years, having moved her membership from Canaan A. M. E. Church. Rev. George Perry, who pastored Canaan Church some years ago, preached her funeral to a very large congregation. Mr. Dock Hall, of Nashville, was here on business one day last week. Miss Beatrice Gordon entertained the Literary Club last Friday evening in a most delightful manner at her home, East Tenth street. Each member responded to the roll call with a quotation from Byron. A short sketch of Byron's life was read by Mr. A. Sampson Brown. Prof. J. H. Kelly led the discussion of the same. The recitations by Miss Corine Kennedy and Mrs. Malinda Frierson were especially enjoyed. A quartet, "Clover Blossoms," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Mattie Dolson and Miss Bertha Gwynn. After the program was rendered a most delicious two-course menu was served. Mrs. Alice Hedgpeh and Mrs. Tomella Hackney assisted Miss Gordon in serving. The invited guests were Mrs. Pearl Jackson and Mrs. A. M. Kelly. The next meeting will be with Prof. and Mrs. E. L. Peacock.

MILLINGTON NOTES.

Our little town is very active now that several large buildings are going up. Mr. E. A. Haralid is building a livery and feed stable. Mr. E. N. Atkinson, the post master, is building a brick store. The A. M. E. Church is rebuilding, also there are several residences going up. The order of the Eastern Star will celebrate Palm Sunday. St. Steven Lodge A. F. and A. M. will turn out with them. Mr. J. M. Easterling, Grand Lecturer of the Knights of Pythias of the State of Tennessee, will visit us on the 22nd. King David Lodge is planning to give him a great welcome. On the fifth Sunday the Lodge and Court will listen to a sermon by Rev. A. G. Mebane, of Memphis. There will be a beautiful program rendered. On April 1st Prof. N. N. Reynolds will be here. Grace Court and Grace Juveniles are planning to give him a royal time. When in our community, visit us. The Lodge and Court meet the first and third Tuesday nights in each month. Notice, on Tuesday April 1, at 7:30 p. m. there will be a surprise party given at the Knights of Pythias hall under the auspices of the Young People's Social and Reading Circle. Easter Sunday will also be a great day here with the churches. Sir A. L. Wittie is the secretary and treasurer, and James Walker is the manager of the Young People's Social and Reading Circle. We gladly accept books, pamphlets, magazines, and money or anything you care to give. Watch the Globe and you shall hear from us again.

SPORTING NEWS.

Nashville Globe Nine Getting in Line.

A season more disastrous than 1912 cannot befall one ball team in this city, this is a fact without a doubt. That club is the Nashville Globe aggregation. Last season it rained every time the Globe boys scheduled a game, and as a result all of the snap (of old bones) and vim that was brought over from last season will be used this year.
every Saturday engagement or no engagement Saturday from April 15th until time to harvest corn. The team will play the team has engagements every engagement. When no team will play them they will split up the team with one and one-half on a side and play themselves. There are several on the team, the most of them dim it is true, but stars just the same. The roster to date is as follows: Clarence Perkins, A. W. Webb, Joe Boyd, Clarence Harvell, Dan Barry, Henry Thompson, T. B. Boyd, Henry Poynter, U. S. Barnes, Seymour Stratton, Walter Brooks, Chas. Hart, Archie Pointer, J. Blaine Boyd, President; J. H. Kelly, Jr., Manager; Louis K. Thomas, Secretary and Treasurer.
Any of these men can play any position on the team to a standstill.
Address all communications to J. H. KELLY, JR., Manager, 447 4th Avenue, North.

BALL TEAM ORGANIZED.

Special to the Globe.
South Pittsburg, Tenn., March 12.—The South Pittsburg ball team met last night and reorganized and elected A. H. Booker manager and Dave Thorman, captain. Several of the old players were present and many young recruits who will be given try-outs. The line-up has not yet been announced. But it is probable that some of the old players will be replaced with young players. A large collection was realized, and hereafter each member will have to pay a stipulated sum each week to satisfy the treasury, which they have so successfully created. This team will meet all comers, and they expect to get many games out of town, as they will bar none.

DR. BUSHELL AT ROGER WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY.

Dr. J. Davenport Bushell, pastor, First Baptist Church, East Nashville, delivered a capital address to the student body last Tuesday evening on the subject, "The Bible a Beautiful Book." It was forceful, enthusiastic throughout. As a result of the week of prayers conducted by the young Women's Christian Association, Miss Staples was converted. Mrs. Miller, Chairman Executive Committee of the Women's American Baptist Home Mission Society, and Miss Dickerson, member of the same committee, while on their Southern tour, visiting the schools of which the Society supports one or more teachers gave Roger Williams a visit Friday evening remaining over night. They are women of large experience in school work and travel. Each spoke complimentary of the work done in all the departments. Both are of Chicago.
