PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION!
We need the money, and must have it.

J. C. Dickey, of Ethridge, gave us a pleasant call Monday.

Miss Lizzie Simms, spent several days with friends in Summertown last week.

Kronk keeps the best assortment of Groceries in town.

After we went to press last Friday, Will Richter, passed quietly to the realm of spirits. He suffered untold misery from the shots fired into his body by Joe Simms, and finally nature gave way, and 'Rich' is no more.

M. J. Richardson's interesting family came in from Nashville last Saturday. Mr. R— will entertain four students at the Lawrenceburg Institute.

Candidates wishing to announce, will please accompany their announcements with the cash.

When you think of subscribing for a paper, remember that you can get the Lawrence Democrat, and Atlanta Constitution for 1.50 a year. Subscribe now!

Wanted! A few good farms to sell on commission, terms reasonable. Call on or address King, Auseth & Co., Lawrenceburg, Tennessee.

SALT! SALT! A car load of Salt at Barnett & Schlatters. Special rates in quantities, or to merchants.

A. M. Thigpen, wife and little daughter, of Good Springs, Tenn., have been visiting the family of C. M. Joiner, this week.

When work on the new jail commences; it may be, that some of us may witness the building of our future home.

Our County Trustee, J. A. Springer's report was received by the county court, and found after all charges against him on county, rail road, highway, school and State tax; that he is ahead $402.65.

B. M. Childs is wearing a broad smile,—its a boy.

C. W. Riddle, of Loretto, gave us a call Thursday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

According to previous announcement, special services will be held at the C. P. Church, next Sunday, Oct. 8th.

The holy sacrament will be administered at the morning service, after which, a church meeting will be held. Every member, and all who are specially interested in the future work of this church, are expected to remain for the after service.

Rev. G. W. Mitchell, D. D. will conduct the services morning and evening.

J. M. Ashford,
Pastor.

Miss Bettie Gray, of Sandyhook, is attending her sister, Mrs. P. W. Simms, who is very sick.

Had you heard of it? or do you know the man that wrote "Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-a-y," "The Man in the Moon," or "After the Ball is over?" If you have not, if you owe M. S. McDougal any thing, call and settle your account, and he will tell you all about it, or write you a new piece—A Receipt.

Rates To World's Fair.

May be too high for some of our people, but if you want Cooking and Heating Stoves, House-Furnishing Goods, Granite-ware, Stone and Queensware, Cutlery, Lamps, and Lamp Goods, at Rock Bottom prices, call at Schade & Son's. Their selected stock for 1893-4 is the best ever offered this side of Nashville. You will regret it, if you don't patronize them when needing any thing in their line.

Agate Ironware can be had cheap at Kronk's.

SALT! SALT! A car load of Salt at Barnett & Schlatters. Special rates in quantities, or to merchants.

Position Guaranteed.

If you will take a full course in Book-keeping, Shorthand and Typewriting in Draughon's Consolidated Practical Business College, Nashville, Tenn., you will on entering be guaranteed a good position. If you cannot take two branches the next best thing is to enter for Book-keeping, Short hand, Typewriting or Telegrophy. Send for catalogue. Address, J. F. Draughon, Pres., Nashville, Tenn.

SALT! SALT! SALT!
Cheaper than ever before.

After considering the pressure of money matters, we have decided to reduce the price of our salt from 1.75 to 1.70 per Bbl. Call and see us before you buy.

M. Richardson & Co.

Dr. W. A. H. Coop, late of Nashville but now of this place, has moved into the Mester Hotel. The Dr. came here to send his children to the Lawrenceburg Institute. We gladly welcome the Dr. and his interesting family into our midst.

Mrs. P. W. Simms is still very low with lung trouble.

The terrible cyclone which swept over portions of Louisiana and Alabama last Monday, left desolation in its path; thousands were killed and drowned. Telegraph wires are down, and full particulars can not be had, but on one small island, inhabited by 700 people, only 30 souls survived the terrific storm.

MORE CANDIDATES!

We this week announce Schade Bros. candidates for public patronage. Their store, a few feet from the square, on North Main street, is filled with fresh and choice groceries, meats, lard, flour, glassware and notions.

They have put prices within the reach of everybody. Give them a trial when in town. One purchase will induce you to call again.

I will sell my entire Photograph Gallery to any one, and learn them the trade free of charge. Call and see me at once, for I will leave town in ten days if I don't sell.

J. A. Brickel.

Patronize home industry, and have your job work done at the Lawrence Democrat Job Office, work done neat, cheap, and promptly.

THIS IS J. C. STEW- ART'S COLUMN.

NEW FALL and winter clothing FOR 1893-4.

ON SALE AT
J. C. STEWART'S.

We do not expect to SUIT the whole world; but we are going to do our "LEVEL BEST" to SUIT our portion of it; if carrying a large and well selected stock of CLOTHING with FAIR DEALING, and PRICES that can not be LOWERED by any one will do the work.

Profits on every thing will be trimmed DOWN to suit the present times.

Every department of my Store, which consist of CLOTHING, DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, SHOES, BOOTS, HATS, UMBRELLA'S, and furnishing goods of various kinds, will be as complete as it is possible to make it.

The reputable and well known R. N. Locke, who needs no further recommendation, and myself are the salesmen, and everybody will be treated as near alike, as it is possible to do so.

Very Respectfully,
J. C. Stewart.
