MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE.—No. 91.

AN information having been filed in the District Court of the United States for the Middle District of Tennessee, on February 20, 1863, by Horace H. Harrison, Esq., Attorney of the United States for said District, against all the estate and property, moneys stocks and credits of John B. McFerrin, late of said District, the same being particularly enumerated in said information, and against all persons lawfully intervening for their interest therein, alleging that said property had been seized in said District on land as forfeited to the United States, because said McFerrin after the expiration of the sixty days of grace given by the President's Proclamation of July 25, 1862, issued in pursuance of an act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, and entitled "an act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," continued to aid and abet the insurrection and rebellion against the Government of the United States then and now existing, praying for the usual process:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Monition of said Court, I hereby give public warning to all persons interested in said property to appear before said Court on the 3d Monday in April, 1865, at the Federal Court Room in the Capital at Nashville, then and there to propound their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

Marshal of the Middle District of Tennessee.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The Convention that recently assembled in the city of Nashville proposed certain alterations and amendments to the Constitution of the State of Tennessee, and the Schedule thereto appended, which, by the direction of the Convention, were submitted to the people at the ballot-box, on the 22d inst., and by them ratified and confirmed; and,

WHEREAS, The Convention further provided, that in the event of the adoption of "the amendments to the Constitution, and the Schedule thereto," an election for Governor and members of the Legislature, should be held on the 4th of March next following, to assemble at the Capitol in Nashville, on the First Monday in April next thereafter; and,

WHEREAS, The returns of the election for the ratification or rejection of the proposed amendments of the Constitution, were, by the 3d resolution adopted by the Convention, to be made to the Secretary of State, and the result declared by proclamation of the acting Governor; and,

WHEREAS, Complete returns have not yet been made as provided by the foregoing resolution; but enough is already ascertained to place the result of the election beyond all doubt, and fully to justify the announcement that the following articles amendatory of the Constitution of the State, and Schedule thereto appended, have been adopted by the people, viz:

ARTICLE I.

Sec. 1. Slavery and involuntary servitude except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, are hereby forever abolished and prohibited throughout the State.

Sec. 2. The Legislature shall make no law recognizing the right of property in man.

SCHEDULE.

Sec. 1. Section 31, of the second article of the Constitution, which is as follows: "The General Assembly shall have no power to pass laws for the emancipation of slaves, without the consent of their owner or owners," is hereby abrogated.

Sec. 2. "The Declaration of Independence and Ordinance dissolving the Federal relations between the State of Tennessee and the United States of America," passed and promulgated by the Legislature of Tennessee on the 6th day of May, 1861, by which the State was declared separated from the Federal Union, and all laws and ordinances by which Tennessee became a member of the Federal Union, annulled and abrogated, was in like manner an act of treason and usurpation, unconstitutional, null and void.

Sec. 3. The Convention, Agreement and Military League, entered into by the Commissioners of the State of Tennessee, and the Commissioner of the so-called Confederate States of America, made May 7, 1861, and on the same day ratified and confirmed by the Legislature, was an act of treason and usurpation, unconstitutional, null and void.

Sec. 4. No statute of limitations shall be held to operate from and after the 6th day of May, 1861, until such time hereafter as the Legislature may prescribe, nor shall any writ of error be refused, or abate in any cause or suit decided since the 6th day of May, 1861, and prior to this time, by reason of any lapse of time. And in all actions for torts brought, or which may hereafter be brought in the courts in this State by attachment levied upon the property of the defendant, the courts shall have power to proceed to judgment and collection of the same, as upon contracts, without personal service of process upon the defendant, until the Legislature may see fit to change the law in such cases.

Sec. 5. All laws, ordinances, and resolutions, as well as all acts done in pursuance thereof, under the authority of the usurped State government after the declared independence of the State of Tennessee, on or after the 6th day of May, 1861, were unconstitutional, null and void from the beginning: Provided, That this section shall not be construed as to affect any judicial decisions made by the State Courts, held at times differing from those provided by law, prior to May 6th, 1861; said judicial decisions being made pursuant to the laws of the State of Tennessee enacted previous to said date, and between parties present in Court and litigating their rights.

Sec. 6. All laws, ordinances and resolutions of the usurped State Government, passed on or after the 6th day of May, 1861, providing for the issuance of State bonds, also all notes of the Bank of Tennessee, or any of its branches, issued on or after the 6th day of May, 1861, and all debts created or contracted in the name of the State by said authority, are unconstitutional, null and void; and no Legislature shall hereafter have power to pass any act authorizing the payment of said bonds or debts, or providing for the redemption of said notes.

Sec. 7. All civil and military officers who have been or may hereafter be appointed by the acting Governor of the State, are hereby ratified and affirmed, and they shall continue to hold and exercise the functions of their respective offices until their successors shall be elected or appointed, and qualified as prescribed by the laws and Constitution of the State and United States.

Sec. 8. The proffered amendments to the Constitution, and the schedule thereto, shall be submitted to the people at the ballot box, on the 22d day of February next, and upon the adoption thereof, by the people, an election shall be held on the 4th day of March next for Governor and members of the Legislature, the latter to be voted for by general ticket, upon the basis prescribed in the act apportioning representation in the state, passed on the 19th day of February, 1852, to assemble at the Capitol on the 1st Monday in April next, and officers to continue in office until their successors shall be elected and qualified, under the regular biennial election of 1867: Provided, That said apportionment be so modified as to give to the counties of Johnson, Carter, Campbell, Anderson, Union, Sevier, Macon, and Hancock, each one member, and the district composed of the counties of Fentress, Morgan, Scott, and Cumberland, one additional member in the House of Representatives.

Sec. 9. The qualifications of voters and the limitation of the elective franchise, may be determined by the General Assembly, which shall first assemble under the amended Constitution.

And Whereas, The time at which it is provided the election for Governor and members of the General Assembly shall be held, is so near at hand; that I have deemed it proper, in advance of the full returns, to declare the result of the election adopting the Constitutional Amendments: Therefore,

I, ANDREW JOHNSON, Military and Acting Governor of the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby declare that the foregoing alterations and amendments to the Constitution of the State of Tennessee, and the Schedule thereto annexed, have been ratified and confirmed by the vote of the people of the State; and that said articles now constitute a part of the permanent Constitution and supreme law of the State of Tennessee, and as such are hereafter to be so held and regarded by all the people thereof.

And I do hereby further declare and fully authorize and direct, the several persons in the proceedings of the late Convention named and appointed, to open and hold the election for the ratification or rejection of the amendments to the Constitution, to open and hold an election for Governor and members to the General Assembly, as in the Schedule prescribed, on the 4th of March next; and they are hereby empowered to open and hold said election in person, in their respective counties, wherever practicable, and to appoint and qualify, if necessary, such judges and inspectors of election, and other officers, as may be necessary to open the polls and conduct the election in such other parts of their respective counties, as the convenience of the people may require; and to make returns to the Secretary of State as provided by the 3d resolution of the Convention, as nearly as practicable in conformity to the Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided.

And I do hereby further declare, and further authorize and direct the Executive Committee, appointed in each Grand Division of the State, and referred to in the 5th resolution of the proceedings of said Convention, to supply, whenever practicable, the places of all such persons as may for any cause become vacant in the list of persons hereinbefore declared qualified to hold said election; and in such cases, when it is not convenient or practicable for vacancies to be filled as above provided, any loyal citizen of the county is hereby authorized and empowered to open and hold said election, and make returns thereof, which shall be as valid as if done by any of the persons hereinbefore mentioned.

I do furthermore authorize and empower the commanding officer of each Regiment, Battalion, Detachment, Battery, or Hospital of Tennessee troops, wherever they may be on the day of said election, to open and hold an election for their respective commands, or Hospitals, and make due return thereof under the same rules and regulations above prescribed.

In closing this proclamation, I sincerely congratulate the people of Tennessee on the happy result of the election, and the opening prospects of a speedy and permanent reorganization of the State government. For nearly three years, in the midst of dangers and difficulties the most complicated and perplexing, I have earnestly labored to restore the State to its former proud position in the Union. My constant effort has been to save it—not to destroy it; but the rebellious sentiment of the people often interposed obstacles which had to be overcome by military power. The task was painful, but the duty has been performed, and the result has passed into history. Time, I am happy to say, has greatly calmed the passions of the people, and experience restored them to reason. The folly of destroying their government, and sacrificing their sons to gratify the mad ambition of political leaders, needs no longer to be told to the laboring masses. The wasted estates—ruined and dilapidated farms—vacant seats around the hearthstone—prostrate business—insecurity of property, and even life itself, every where proclaim it in language not to be misunderstood.

But all is not lost. A new era dawns upon the people of Tennessee. They enter upon a career guided by reason, law, order, and reverence. The reign of brute force and personal violence has passed away forever. By their own solemn act, at the ballot box, the shackles have been formally stricken from the limbs of more than 275,000 slaves in the State. The unjust distinctions in society, fostered by an arrogant aristocracy, based upon human bondage, have been overthrown; and our whole social system reconstructed on the basis of honest industry and personal worth. Labor shall now receive its merited reward, and honesty, energy, and enterprise their just appreciation. Capital, heretofore timid and distrustful of success, may now confidently seek remunerative and permanent investments in the State. Public Schools and Colleges begin anew their work of instruction upon a broader and more enduring basis. The foundations of society, under the change in the Constitution are in harmony with the principles of free government and the National Union; and if the people are true to themselves—true to the State—and loyal to the Federal Government, they will rapidly overcome the calamities of the war, and raise the State to a power and grandeur not heretofore even anticipated. Many of its vast resources lie undiscovered, and it requires intelligent enterprise and free labor alone, to develop them, and clothe the State with a richness and beauty surpassed by none of her sisters.

(SEAL.) In testimony whereof, I, ANDREW JOHNSON, Military and Acting Governor of Tennessee, do hereunto set my hand and cause the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the Executive Office, in Nashville, on this 25th day of February, A. D. 1865.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

STRATEGY, MY BOY, STRATEGY.—A dispatch from Washington says:

The Navy Department to-day received information that Lieut Cushing constructed a mock monitor so closely resembling one of those vessels that no difference could be detected at a distance of one hundred yards. On Saturday night, the 18th, about ten o'clock, this boat was taken within about one hundred yards of Fort Anderson, and sent adrift. As there was a strong flood tide it moved up the river and passed the fort as if under slow steam. At the time the army had worked about two thirds distance around and in rear of the fort, the rebels no doubt thinking their communications to be cut off by land and water, hastily escaped by the only avenue open to them, leaving their guns unspiked and their magazine uninjured.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The Herald's James River correspondent states that Lee has gone Southward to conduct the operations of opposing Sherman. Joe Johnston is in command at Richmond and Petersburg.

A large part of the rebel army around Richmond had on Saturday last been under marching orders for several days, and a considerable number of rebel troops are believed to have been despatched to act against Sherman.

Reports of his design to shortly abandon Richmond and Petersburg are repeated, and deserters now add that notice has been given by him to the people of the latter place to have their tobacco and other stores removed within seven days.

They say that nearly all the artillery has been taken from Petersburg. Batteries only sufficient to keep up appearances are left.

Heavy artillery practice continuing for several hours was indulged in on Thursday and Friday last by the opposing forces in front of Petersburg. The casualties, however, were few, and the firing appears to have had no result of any importance.

Deserters are pouring in the Union lines, averaging one hundred daily. A large proportion bring with them their arms and equipments, and the cavalry men bring their horses. Since the fall of Charleston, S. C., troops in large numbers have joined the deserting throng.

The Richmond Sentinel of Friday had a report that Grant was again massing on the Vaughan road. Gen. Singleton and Judge Hughes, en route from Washington to Richmond, arrived at City Point on Friday last.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The steamship Memphis which left Charleston bar on the 21st, reports that the national flag was flying over the city and all the forts in the harbor. General Gillmore's headquarters were established in the city. The forts which remain in a good state are of a most formidable character. Two hundred pieces of artillery were spiked, but otherwise uninjured, fell into the hands of the Union forces. About six thousand bales of cotton were burned by the rebels before they left, but it is believed that large quantities of tobacco and cotton are concealed. Before leaving the rebel rear guard were busy engaged in plundering and firing the houses. Few citizens except the poor remained in the city after its abandonment, the rebels leaving before or with the rebel army.

The new blockade runner, steamship Desoto, with a cargo of liquors, was captured in the harbor on the night of the 18th, while running up towards the city, her officers being entirely ignorant of the change of affairs.

It is said that the garrison from the forts, and crews from the rebel gunboats in Charleston harbor, were sent to Wilmington and Richmond.

The papers are barren of news concerning Sherman. They are boastful at times, and promise Sherman's defeat ere long. They say his doom may be looked on as sealed.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 29.—The cause of the fire in the Enquirer buildings yesterday not ascertained. The loss will probably reach forty thousand dollars—covered by insurance.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The Herald's Wilmington correspondent says a large number of Union prisoners were released by the capture of that place. They were confined in Camp Lamb, about one mile from the city. Their treatment was of the most brutal character, and for three days preceding the evacuation they had not received a mouthful to eat. The citizens had endeavored to feed them, but the food was taken away by the officer in charge. They presented a most sickening spectacle, many of them having been rendered idiotic and had forgotten their own name.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—By steamer Havana we have Havana dates to 22d. There was no news from Mexico. Arguelles has received his sentence, which is eight years in the prison chain gang.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 27.—Maj. Gen. Washburn has been assigned command of this department and is expected to arrive soon. His appointment gives general satisfaction.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Advices from New Orleans state that Kirby Smith's army still refuses to cross to the east side of the Mississippi. Two attempts to move them over were made, and it is thought a third attempt will result in open mutiny.

All the Union troops at Camp Ford, in Texas, have been exchanged.

The Raleigh Confederate says the people of Wilmington had 15 000 bales of cotton hidden, awaiting the arrival of Federal troops.

The Times' Washington special says Mr. Washburn, M. C. from Ill., received on Saturday a letter from General Grant, in which he comments upon Gen. Sherman's movement in a hopeful view. A few days more of success, he says, will place the rebels in a situation from which they cannot escape.

COUNTERFEITS.—Information has been received by C. L. Barlow & Co. that certain druggists in this city have been palming off on persons calling for Dr. Vellee's Pink Cerate an article of their own manufacture, which they say is superior to the genuine.

We would advise all persons to get the genuine, and should you require any medicine for the Itch, Ringworm, Tetter, or any disease of the skin, do not suffer any unprincipled man to impose any other preparation on you, but get Dr. Vellee's Pink Cerate, manufactured by C. DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.—We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens in Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of Diarrhœa and Dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure, after suffering for months with the worst form of Diarrhœa and Dysentery. ap 26—1y w h—1y
