Little Ralph Copeland the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Copeland died Thursday evening and was interred Wednesday afternoon by the side of his little brother Stanley; who preceded him just a few days before to the great beyond where the pure in heart shall live for ever. This sad calling takes two of three children of Mr. Mrs. Copeland and they have the sympathy of the people in their sad bereavement.

VERY SIMPLE

"The reason why the state has had but little money to pay on the bonded debt during my two administrations is very simple. The state funds had been expended for other purposes."
