Again the deep mellow tones of the Court-house clock can be heard as it strikes off the hours. It is a pleasure to hear the striking of the clock once more after a long silence. Judge Jones is having the roof repaired and painted which was badly needed. The workmen have repaired the clock, and during the day and the stillness of the night the deep basso tones can be heard. The Judge is to be commended for his progressiveness.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Rev. D. H. Taylor. We hope he will soon be on his feet again.

Sheriffs Byrd and Scott made a raid on a boot-legger early, Sunday morning, and while they missed the bird by a hair's breadth they secured a gallon of his goods and brought it to Wartburg.

We commend our officers for such splendid work and trust they will keep it up. Such work as these officers performed, Sunday morning, is patriotic and for the good of the people.

Willis Walker is in town today.

Miss Ruth Quinn has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Quinn, for the past few days.

Rev. Isaac E. Feucht of near Akron, O. arrived here the latter part of the week, to become pastor of the Lutheran church. The installation services were held on Sunday morning by Rev. Kretschmar of Knoxville, after which a delicious dinner was spread. Services were held again in the afternoon.

Miss Eunice Williams of Cincinnati, O. has been the recent guest of her cousin, Miss Edith Williams.

Mrs. M. L. Monroe and little son of Goby, were visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Maxwell of Knoxville Misses Nora Galloway and Myrtle Summers of Sunbright were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jestes, last week.

A Fatal Accident

Calvin Adams who lives at Goby, was killed while loading cross ties at Goby, Sept. 8th. It seems a pile of cross ties were piled high on each other, and while he was pulling these down, the ties fell on him crushing the life out of him.

He leaves a wife and several children, and brothers. Mr Adams was a hard working man and has many friends who will be saddened by the news of his death.

RUGBY.

The Knoxville Convocation of the Episcopal Church, met in Rugby Aug. 30th Sept. 1st and 2nd, at Christ Church with a fair attendance of Clergy. The presence of Co-adjutor, Bishop, Rev. Troy Beatty of Memphis, added greatly to the impressiveness and good work accomplished by the Convocation. The Bishop preached a fine sermon, Tuesday evening, confirmed a class, Wednesday evening, administered Holy Communion Thursday, A. M. and baptized the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Walton, Anna Joyce Walton. There were morning, afternoon and evening sessions in which all the visiting clergy participated. Many delightful and helpful social occasions, never to be forgotten, marked the Convocation, among them receptions at the homes of Mrs. F. J. Coakley, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dunning, a dinner to the clergymen of the church by Mr. and Mrs. Dunning, a supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Walton breakfast at Rev. and Mrs. Bensted, to the clergy and confirmation class at which Bishop Beatty presided in a most felicitous manner.

Rev. A. C. Killeffer of Monterey and Harriman, former rector here was warmly welcomed by his many friends.

The family of Rev. Ed Jones who have been spending the summer at Rugby, left for their home in Ciattanooga last Friday. They will be greatly missed

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dunning of Oak-Lodge, have as their guests their daughter Mrs. Morley Somers and little son, of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Leon Daniels and Miss Marguete Hillis, of Chattanooga.

Miss Minnie Hamby of Rockwood, is a guest at Walton Court.

Miss Mary Rowell after a pleasant summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, left for her home in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Master Ernest Brooks has entered the High School at Sunbright.

Mrs. Albertson our Co. Supervisor, a woman of extraordinary ability and insight, visited our school and found Mr. York, our teacher doing good work. Rugby has the best wall maps, and globes she has seen in the Co. bought from popular entertainment funds.
