We congratulate our old friend, Col. D. M. Nobles, who, according to yesterday's dispatches, has been appointed postmaster at Paris.

Postoak Camp, Woodmen of the World, will be well represented at the unveiling of the monument to Dr. Hariley at Holladay Sunday.

D. F. Nolles, esq., and Rev. Joseph Allen, of Devider, were here Monday to get estimates for a telephone line from Camden to that place.

The trial of the Tiger Disc Plow by the Phillips Grocery Company Monday proves all that has been claimed for the plow, and everybody is pleased with it.

William Priestly Caraway, jr., arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Caraway, of Big Sandy, last Sunday. The father is said to be doing as well as could be expected and will recover.

The annual Sunday picnic continues to attract a large crowd at Hollow Rock. Sixty-nine tickets were sold here to that point Sunday, and nearly as many more went through overland.

Two colored boys, Lee Barnett and Will Olliver, of the third district, left Sunday to join the volunteer, but were captured by relatives and returned home. They probably had an eye on Company I.

Letters from Faxon and Cypress were received too late for publication. A letter from Townes without signature is declined. The correspondent at Devider has violated a newspaper rule by writing on both sides of the paper.

During the past week a number of counties have instructed delegates to the gubernatorial convention. The instructed votes for the candidates as they now stand are: McMillin, 568; Bond, 136; Taylor, 92; Woodard, 101.

Mrs. O. P. Lashlee and sister, Miss Alice Barnes, were thrown out of their buggy which turned over while driving Wednesday and Mrs. Lashlee sustained injuries on her head and arms, but they will hardly result seriously. Miss Barnes received painful but slight injuries.

Yesterday's dispatches announce that Judge Bond and Judge Taylor have withdrawn from the contest for governor. No reasons for this action is assigned, and the withdrawal of Judge Bond comes in the nature of a surprise. Under present conditions the nomination of Hon. Benton McMillin is assured.

Mr. G. H. Cuff, of Way, left with us Monday a branch from a peach tree on his place, that has attracted a great deal of attention here. It is not only loaded with a vigorous growth of fruit, but as may as five peaches developed from one bloom, three being the average. Mr. Cuff does not know the variety of this fruit, and we will appreciate any information from fruit growers on the subject.

A Waverly special to the American yesterday says: Wash Beavers was killed near Waverly last night by Tom Burnham. It seems that Beavers went to the residence of Burnham's father and demanded permission to stay all night. On being refused Beavers made several threats, and Burnham, becoming exasperated, fired a load of bird-shot into his breast, killing him almost instantly. Beavers lived at Clydston.

Cousson's Honey of Tar

is not a mixture of stomach destroying drugs, but is a scientifically prepared remedy that cures coughs and colds, and all throat and lung troubles. Its action is quick, prompt and positive. 25 and 50 cents. Sold by J. G. Presson.

As was expected, the convention last Monday did the correct thing in unanimously instructing the delegates for Hon. Benton McMillin for governor. Depend upon it, the Democrats can always be depended on to do the correct thing at the right time. Mr. McMillin is deservedly popular with the people of Tennessee, and the Democracy of old Benton did themselves honor in endorsing him for governor.

The strength of Company I was reduced one-half after the company reached Nashville last week. The men who left were from Big Sandy, the recruits from other places stood by Captain Luter. Eugene Travis has been promoted from the ranks to first sergeant of the company, Claud Hudson has been promoted from the ranks to sergeant, and C. H. Sullivan has been made a corporal. The company will receive several recruits from here to-day and to-morrow, and Captain Luter passed through here yesterday with 23 recruits from Fulton.

Rev. G. O. Bachman, of Nashville, general secretary of the State Sunday School Association, spent Tuesday in our midst in the interest of the general Sunday school work of the county.

In the evening he addressed an audience at the Methodist Church, and after an impressive scripture lesson, in which he pointed out the importance of this work, and explained the methods by which it is accomplished, a committee of five was appointed to arrange for a county convention, consisting of F. E. McElyea, W. E. McRae, Rev. C. S. Brandon, W. S. Corbitt and Rev. L. C. Deshazo.

This committee will at once compile a directory of all the Sunday schools of the county and arrange for a convention of Sunday school workers, at which an association will be formed.

This county association will be an auxiliary to the State Sunday School Association, and is interdenominational in character.

The work of the association will be to organize Sunday schools, help weak schools, hold conventions and in every way possible strengthen the hands of Sunday school workers, and stimulate the work within the county. Superintendents of Sunday schools will confer a favor if they will send their names and addresses to the chairman, F. E. McElyea.
