A FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Benton County Farmers Met at Camden Saturday and Organized.

Pursuant to a call made by Hon. Thomas H. Paine, commissioner of agriculture of Tennessee, the farmers met at the court-house at Camden Saturday, February 24, 1900. The meeting was called to order by Col. J. W. Rosamon, president of the West Tennessee Farmers' Institute. Prayer was offered by Rev. N. R. Waters.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of Hon. John P. Lashlee chairman and Judge L. E. Davis secretary.

Hon. Thomas H. Paine addressed the meeting at some length, in which he fully explained the work of the agricultural department of Tennessee and showed the advantages and benefits to be derived from farmers' institutes. He urged the farmers to organize a farmers' institute for Benton County.

At the close of his address a motion was made and adopted that the chairman appoint a committee of five to effect a permanent organization. Thereupon W. T. Morris, J. M. Perkins, Jack Allen, D. M. Cuff and Col. J. W. Rosamon were appointed to draft a plan upon which to organize said institute, who reported as follows:

President, Hon. John P. Lashlee; vice-presidents, H. D. Odle, first district; M. W. Baber, second; A. E. Swindle, third; John Allen, fourth; L. E. Davis, fifth; George B. Bane, sixth; W. H. Melton, seventh; J. H. Hudson, eighth; J. M. Perkins, ninth; Dorsey B. Thomas, tenth; H. A. Greene, eleventh; S. T. Presson, twelfth; Ed Walker, thirteenth; James Smith, fourteenth; I. N. Bridges, secretary. The report was adopted.

The institute was addressed by Capt. John W. Morton, managing editor of the Tennessee Farmer, on the subject of sheep husbandry. The subject was handled in an able and impressive manner, and at the close of Captain Morton's address a resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted requesting the legislature of Tennessee to enact some law for the protection of the sheep of the State from the ravages of dogs.

Henry Fryer, assistant commissioner of live stock, then addressed the institute on the subject of stock raising. He urged the necessity of co-operation with the State board of health, showing the great interest at stake to the farmers in the handling of live stock. The discussion was joined in by Commissioner Paine, C. B. Greer, President Lashlee, Judge L. E. Davis, J. M. Lashlee and others.

The institute was entertained for more than an hour by Col. J. W. Rosamon in an able address on the subject of horticulture. He fully discussed the best means of the art of cultivation and was given careful attention.

The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the president. February 24, 1900.

L. E. DAVIS,
Secretary.

JOHN McCALL ENDORSED.

A Lexington special last week to the Nashville American says:

"The Republican executive committee of the Eighth Congressional District met in Lexington to-day, with every county represented. The committee called a Congressional convention to meet at Lexington on April 18 to select two delegates and two alternates to the national Republican convention. * * * The committee also adopted resolutions endorsing Hon. John E. McCall for delegate at large for West Tennessee to the national convention, and recommended him to all the other counties of the State by a unanimous vote. This unanimous action of the committee is considered by Mr. McCall's friends as a complete knockout for Mr. Jeffreys' aspirations, since both men reside in the Eighth Congressional District, as showing the sentiment in the several counties."

When children have earache, saturate a piece of cotton with Ballard's Snow Liniment and place it in the ear. It will stop the pain quickly. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by all druggists.

Every church, school, college and temperance organization in Carroll County will take part in a grand temperance rally at Huntingdon next Monday.

No one knows the unbearable torture one undergoes from piles unless they are so afflicted. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is a quick, safe and painless cure. Price 50 cents in bottles; tubes, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists.

There is no insulation so perfect as that of small, selfish natures preoccupied with pique.

Children often inherit feeble digestive power and colic of a more or less severe character results when food is taken which is at all difficult to digest. White's Cream Vermifuge acts as a general and permanent tonic. Price, 25 cents. Sold by all druggists.

All agents of THE CHRONICLE are required to remit the full amount of our club rate subscriptions.

WANTED—Honest man or woman to travel for large house; salary $65 monthly and expenses, with increase; position permanent; include self-addressed stamped envelope. MANAGER, 230 Cassien Building, Chicago.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

R. H. Fryer, of Huntingdon, was over Saturday.

Trustee J. T. Camp wants your county warrants.

Dr. F. M. Capps, of Coxburg, was in the city Tuesday.

A. H. Fritchard, of Holladay, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Harriet Farmer has been quite sick this week.

The infant child of R. L. Bridges is reported some better.

James Hudson, of Gardner, was here a few days this week.

Jesse Hall has gone to Perryville where he has accepted a good position.

This locality was the scene of a furious snow storm on Wednesday night.

Miss Coonie Haggard, of Nashville, visited her aunt, Mrs. P. J. O'Reilly, last week.

P. J. Flanigen, of Nashville, representing R. G. Dunn & Co., was in the city this week.

Correspondents should not forget that rubber stamp signatures will not pass at this office.

A communication with the name of the writer omitted has been received from Hall's Valley.

Miss Mollie Mattice left Sunday for Memphis, after spending a few weeks here with homefolks.

The man who carried away an umbrella from this office is not a man unless he returns the same.

The young folks enjoyed an entertainment at the home of D. G. Holland, in South Camden, Monday evening.

William Robins has closed up his restaurant business here and gone to Nashville to accept a position with the McEwen Laundry Co.

Wyly and Otto Coble, Dr. B. B. Barnett, J. M. Bishop and Bud Walker, of Sugar Tree, spent a few days here on business this week.

One of the little twin children of Lafayette Whitfield, of Pavatt, died last Saturday. We join in extending sympathy to the heart-broken parents.

W. D. Steele and wife, of Sunrise, came down Sunday to visit his parents. He returned home Tuesday, but Mrs. Steele will extend her visit here.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Tennessee State Sunday School (interdenominational) Association will meet at Nashville on April 10, 11 and 12.

W. A. Yarbrough and family are spending a few days with relatives at Nashville. Terrell Travis came down from Bellview and has charge at the station during the absence of Mr. Yarbrough.

Elmer, the 14-year-old son of H. A. Wafford, of the Morris Chapel community, died Tuesday morning, from a complication of pneumonia and measles, it is said. The family has our heart-felt sympathy.

We received pleasant calls last Saturday from Hon. Thomas H. Paine, State commissioner of agriculture, and Capt. John W. Morton, of the Tennessee Farmer, of Nashville, and Col. J. W. Rosamon, of Gadsden, who is president of the West Tennessee Farmers' Institute.

J. H. Kee informs us that a call has been issued for a meeting of the Kee-Edwards heirs at Camden on Monday, March 5, 1900. We are told that it is the intention of these heirs to send an attorney to England to look after an estate which is worth a fabulous sum, aggregating several hundred million dollars.

Notwithstanding the extremely disagreeable weather of last Saturday there was a very good attendance here at the organization of the Benton County Farmers' Institute, and great interest was manifested by those present in the able discussions by the distinguished gentlemen who took a part in organizing the institute. Quite a number who were assigned to discuss the subjects included on the program, were prevented from being present.

Clerk and Master D. G. Hudson went to Nashville Tuesday.

Rev. J. R. Harrison preached a good sermon here Sunday evening at the Methodist Church.

The little child of P. J. O'Reilly was buried at Camden Cemetery last Friday afternoon. We are informed that the child had about recovered, but it relapsed into congestion of the brain, and death followed quickly. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mike Burse met with a serious accident while repairing a cistern for U. A. Potts. He fell from the top to the bottom of the cistern and struck on his head. Mr. Potts succeeded in getting him out and he was taken home in an unconscious condition. He was better yesterday afternoon.

E. G. Flowers is still marshal of Camden. His resignation was accepted by the town council, but on application he was re-elected. A petition was circulated here Friday asking the town council to increase the salary of the marshal from $25 to $35 per month, but according to the act of the general assembly this could not be done until after the next municipal election and before the election of a marshal.

COUNTY WARRANTS WANTED.

All parties holding county warrants are hereby requested to present them to me at once and get them cashed. J. T. CAMP, Trustee.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Knights of Pythias held an interesting and enthusiastic meeting at their castle hall last Monday evening. Esquire Waters was created a Pythian Knight, while Mike Fry and James Vickrey were instructed in the rank of page.

The application for membership of R. L. Phillips was presented to the lodge and referred to the proper committee.

Next Monday evening Mike Fry and James Vickrey will receive the second and R. L. Phillips the first.

A large attendance is expected. All or most of the old members are being reinstated, and it will not be long until Bayham Lodge, No. 86, will be herself again.

PYTH.

FROM CLAUD.

Special correspondence.]

D. B. Thomas, of Eva, was here to-day on business.

John Cherry, of Henry County, is here on business.

Edward Wilson smiles, and says it's a boy at his house.

Miss Lillie Lowry is on the sick list, but she is some better.

A new daughter arrived at the home of W. F. Wheatley last week.

Ed Hartley, of Red Rock, was down Saturday shaking hands with old friends.

The young folks were enjoyably entertained at the home of H. C. Cooley Saturday.

Thomas Parker, of New Orleans, is at home on a visit, after an absence of two years.

The infant child of A. A. Melton died last Saturday, after a short illness. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

CLAUD, February 27.

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE!

We have just made arrangements with B. F. Brown, the celebrated photographer, to make you one cabinet photograph which we will give you free every time you spend $5 cash with us; or, if you want three photos, buy $10 (cash) worth and the pictures will cost you nothing. This will only last a short while. Come early.

STIGALL & POTTS,
Camden, Tenn.

Couldn't help getting a cold never cures it; but carrying home a bottle of Ballard's Rosehound Syrup and using it as directed, will cure the worst kind of cough or cold. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by druggists.

THE CHRONICLE and Home and Farm, one year, 80 cents.

FROM FLATWOODS.

Regular correspondence.]

Fate Walker, of near Rushing's Creek, has moved into our midst. Mrs. C. S. Chandler is recovering from a severe illness of a few days.

The infant child of Aaron Melton died Saturday and was buried here yesterday. Surely God needed another angel in his kingdom.

Surely the Wheatleyville correspondent likes to "wonder" a great deal, and he is still wondering if we have located Parker's Branch.

The burial of Mrs. Farmer, wife of Prig Farmer, took place here Saturday afternoon. The deceased was a member of the church at this place, and had many friends who deeply sympathize with the bereaved.

FLATWOODS, February 27.

FROM WHEATLEYVILLE.

Special correspondence.]

Hope Melton was up from the Blue Grass State last week.

We learn by telephone that Josh Akers, formerly of this place, is lying at the point of death at Johnsonville.

On account of the bad weather, a great many of our people could not go to Camden last Saturday as contemplated.

Now, we were not misled by the description given of the Flatwoods correspondent in his letter of last week. Nay, Pauline. If you want to see the correspondent aforesaid look out for a long, slim duck with six pencil-holders in his waist-coat pocket, a silk handkerchief around his neck and his father's shoes on. Say, he got lost in a little town south of here Saturday, but an 8-year-old boy showed him the way out. If he will come over to see us we will send a small boy for guide. He can get a job at killing snakes, as he has had some experience in that line—spreading adders, for instance. Come over, sonny; no charges for guide.

WHEATLEYVILLE, February 27.

FROM FAXON.

Regular correspondence.]

Jeff Carter, of Claud, was here to-day.

Hugh Melton, of Way, was here yesterday.

J. F. Chentham, of Enloe, was here to-day.

J. P. Rainforth, of Stewart, was here to-day on business.

Isham McBride and wife, of Big Sandy, visited here Sunday.

Walter Brake and Will Fitzsimmons went to Erin yesterday.

The Louisville and Nashville pay car passed down the road to-day.

J. P. Atchison moved from Stewart to this neighborhood Saturday.

Marion L. Lindsey, of Madison, Ark., is here on a visit, arriving to-day.

The series of law-suits at West Danville and on the borders of Lick Creek have closed with no serious results, however.

FAXON, February 27.

FROM GARFIELD.

Special correspondence.]

W. I. Carter was at Hollow Rock yesterday.

Most everybody is busy at getting out timber.

The wheat crop of this locality is in fine condition.

T. H. H. Presson is confined to his room with rheumatism.

Rev. J. B. Bushart has returned from a trip to Obion County.

Rev. J. R. Harrison will preach at Mount Carmel next Sunday.

Jeff Morarity, of Eggville, was here a few days ago on business.

Allen Elmora will return to his home at Wildersville next week.

Otis Cole was at Hollow Rock Sunday. What can be the attraction.

Virdel Bray, who cut his foot and has been confined to his room several days, is some better.

An entertainment was given at the home of Frank Craig on last Saturday evening. Singings are all the go here now.

GARFIELD, February 27.

M. C. Taylor has located at Camden, and is prepared to do watch and clock repairing. Satisfaction guaranteed.
