

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE.

Vol. XX. No. 14.

CAMDEN, TENN., FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1900.

WHOLE No. 510

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

CHANCERY COURT.

The following are the proceedings of chancery court, which met here Monday, up to the time we go to press:

E. M. McAuley and wife vs. J. A. Barnes et als.; continued upon application of complainants.

Bullock & Rushing Bros. vs. V. V. Nichols; retired from docket.

E. J. Nunnery vs. George Nunnery; sale of land ordered.

Guy Hall, administrator, vs. S. W. Bullock, administrator; ordered that insurance company pay the money into court; all other questions are reserved.

J. L. Thompson et als. vs. Frank Thompson; decree to sell land.

U. R. Harris vs. J. E. Holmes et als.; decree to sell land to enforce lien.

Capps et als. vs. Meyers et als.; plaintiff's bill dismissed.

R. L. Nance et als. vs. H. W. Akers et als.; decree to sell land.

J. F. Stockdale vs. Sallie Stockdale; decree for divorce.

R. L. Mitchell vs. Waverly Bank and Trust Co.; pro confesso taken, and cause continued.

George W. O'Bar et als. vs. J. M. Spicer et als.; order pro confesso taken.

W. T. Morris vs. Warren, Neeley & Co.; cause tried, and receiver ordered to pay amount in his hands to complainant less receiver's fees and cost of suit.

E. M. McAuley et als. vs. Horace Rushing et als.; judgment on note for $17.90 against F. P. Wheatley and decree for sale of land.

A. H. Pritchard vs. G. C. Council; compromised and dismissed at cost of complainant and security.

L. E. Davis vs. J. Townsend; the cause dismissed, etc.

M. S. Holland vs. J. B. Florence et als.; cost paid and bill dismissed.

W. G. Roberson et als. vs. W. H. Hyatt et als.; continued by consent.

Sol Barnes et als. vs. E. G. Flowers et als.; decree for sale of land.

J. R. Hatley vs. A. Adams et als.; continued on affidavit of the complainant.

Addie Barnes vs. H. G. Barnes; decree for divorce; complainant's name changed to Alice Nowell.

Lawrence Lanier et als. vs. the Camden Bank and Trust Co.; the motion to appoint a receiver was disallowed, and the assignee, D. G. Hudson, will continue to collect as fast as possible. It was further ordered by the court that the clerk and master shall in 60 days take and state an account of all uncontested claims against said bank and of all contested claims separate and make his report at the next term. It was further ordered by the court that the assignee at the expiration of said 60 days will pay on the uncontested claims only out of moneys then on hand such prorata as the funds may justify not to exceed 25 per cent; before such prorata is paid, the clerk and master will submit to the attorneys in the cause the account of the uncontested claims; the assignee will take from creditors to whom he pays prorata a receipt and obligation, then to pay back such amount as may be paid to them if necessary to equalize all conditions.

The bank order was modified so as to permit parties, where the justice of the claim is acknowledged by the assignee to be just, to file their account without filing petition to make themselves parties, etc.

FOR SALE.

One No. 12 16-inch disc harrow. Will sell cheap for cash only.

PHILLIPS GROCERY Co.,
20-13th Camden, Tenn.

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE!

We have just made arrangements with B. F. Brown, the celebrated photographer, to make you one cabinet photograph which we will give you free every time you spend $5 cash with us; or, if you want three photos, buy $10 (cash) worth and the pictures will cost you nothing. This will only last a short while. Come early.

STIGALL & POTTS,
Camden, Tenn.

M. C. Taylor has located at Camden, and is prepared to do watch and clock repairing. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Children often inherit feeble digestive power and colic of a more or less severe character results when food is taken which is at all difficult to digest. White's Cream Vermifuge acts as a general and permanent tonic. Price, 25 cents. Sold by all druggists.

THE CHRONICLE and St. Louis Semi-Weekly Republic, one year, $1.10.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

P. J. O'Reilly left for Centerville yesterday morning.

G. C. Camp, of Eggville, was in the city Wednesday.

Joe Hubbs and family are all reported sick this week.

Mrs. Paralee Rowe has been on the list of sick this week.

Tom W. Floyd, of Big Sandy, was in the city yesterday.

J. H. Whitfield has moved to the McElyea place, near the Melton House.

W. A. Yarbrough and family are visiting relatives and friends at Nashville this week.

Several of our citizens will attend the meeting of the Hopewell presbytery at McKenzie.

Chancellor Abernathy was not very well yesterday, though he was able to preside over court.

Terrell Travis, railroad agent at Kingston Springs, is here during the absence of W. A. Yarbrough.

We congratulate our neighbor, Rev. N. E. Waters, on the arrival of a fine daughter at the parsonage last Friday morning.

Those of our town citizens who put garden seed in the ground last week are now reminded that they were a little previous.

Since the arrival of a new baby at his home, Isaac N. Wilson is one of the happiest men within the confines of this municipality.

T. J. Dodd, who purchased the McRae place, near Benton Seminary, move over from Springville last Saturday. We are glad to have them with us again.

Hon. R. H. Fryer, of Huntingdon, will address the Benton County court at the quarterly term at Camden on Monday, April 2, 1900, on the subject of cattle quarantine.

The farmers of Benton County are buying an unusual large amount of farm machinery this year, and, we note, they are getting the very best on the market. This speaks well for our farmers, and we hope they will reap abundant crops next autumn.

The following visiting attorneys attended chancery court here this week: T. L. Lanier, of Waverly; W. W. Farabough, of Paris; James and George McCall and Joe R. A. and Lee Hawkins, of Huntingdon; Mr. Dunbar, of Erin; Mr. Biggs, of Jackson.

Hon. W. L. Morris, who has accepted the appointment as clerk and master to succeed D. G. Hudson, whose term of office has expired, qualified yesterday and will take charge of the office. The appointment of Mr. Morris meets with general approval here, and we extend congratulations. Mr. Hudson's time is fully employed in settling up the affairs of the Camden Bank and Trust Co.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

My son, Willie Pafford, under legal age, has left my home to do for himself, and this is to notify the public that I will not be responsible for any debt, debts or contracts he may make. J. F. PAFFORD.
Camden, March 20, 1900.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk G. B. Greer to Eb Davidson and Ila Hudson, David Love and Vinnie Earp, R. P. Kirk and Minnie Barnes, James Greenhall and Jennie Swindle, W. R. Greer and Fredona Barnes, John Bell and Dora Wilson, Franklin Prince and Allie Pierce.

A girl in this State advertised for a husband and got him, says the Huntingdon Tomakawk. The advertisement and wedding outfit cost her $11, and inside of a year he died and left her $5,000 insurance. And some people say advertising don't pay!

The Delineator, the favorite magazine of the ladies, is issued by the famous fashion publishers, the Butterick Publishing Co., (limited) at 7 to 17 west 18th street, New York, at the remarkably low rate of $1.00 per year, or 15 cents per copy. Of all family magazines it is the greatest caterer to domestic needs, and can be recommended for its cheapness, usefulness, beauty, freshness and utility.

W. M. Moss, postmaster at Jackson, was removed from office last Monday. Misconduct as custodian of the building were the charges preferred against Moss.

The State Democratic Executive Committee met at Nashville on the 15th and issued a call for a State convention to meet May 10th to nominate candidates for governor, railroad commissioners and Presidential electors. The convention will also nominate delegates from the State at large to the national Democratic convention at Kansas City.

The action of the committee was harmonious throughout, there being no dissenting vote to any proposition.

FROM LIBERTY.

Regular correspondence.]

Mrs. R. I. Hargis is on the sick list this week.

Farmers are forced to take a rest on account of snow and rain.

John Smith has gone to Decaturville where he thinks of opening a barber shop.

Zeb Hudson is all smiles since the arrival of a fine new boy at his home yesterday.

R. W. Ayres is making repairs on his steam house preparatory to putting up tobacco.

Robert Florence has returned home from Huntingdon where he has been attending school.

Those who have had measles are reported better, and we rejoice that there are no new cases to report.

Dr. Florence is putting up a line from his office to intersect the Big Sandy telephone line at Eggville.

As spring is here and the measles have subsided, all who are interested should come out next Sunday to Sunday school and get literature for the next quarter.

LIBERTY, March 20.

FROM WHEATLEYVILLE.

Regular correspondence.]

Wheat in this locality is looking well.

We are sorry that the Parker's Branch young man broke his leg a few days ago.

G. W. Davidson, who located in this community a few weeks ago, will keep books for W. M. Blanks this summer.

We guess the Flatwoods reporter will summer at Bay Village. The Way reporter should be satisfied with the answer concerning the Bluegrass State.

While driving to Eva Saturday Jack Melton's mules ran away and his buggy was almost completely demolished. Mr. Melton was fortunate in escaping injury.

WHEATLEYVILLE, March 20.

All agents of THE CHRONICLE are required to remit the full amount of our club rate subscriptions.

FROM POSTOAK.

Regular correspondence.]

Aunt Polly Galbreath has returned from a visit at Eva.

Mrs. H. D. Helms, who has been in bad health quite awhile, is some better.

Mrs. Ida Lankford and children, of Eva, have been visiting her father, T. T. Denton.

There was a very good attendance at quarterly conference despite the bad state of the weather.

John Patrick and wife, of Sulphur Springs, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Patrick's father, J. M. Wiseman.

Eb Davidson and Miss Ila Hudson were married last Sunday forenoon. We extend best wishes to the happy couple.

POSTOAK, March 20.

FROM GREENBRIER.

Special correspondence.]

Ask Dock Wyatt if he has talked over the telephone.

G. W. Bucy and family, of Henry County, are visiting here.

W. E. Wyatt has gone to Holladay where he will enter school.

O. P. Lashlee and wife and child, of Morris Chapel, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

It began snowing here Wednesday evening of last week and continued about 24 hours. Everybody will wait a few days about planting corn.

We hope that every one has read the recent speech made by Governor McMillin at Pulaski. He show our State to be in a better financial condition than it has been for a long number of years. We hope he will be re-elected and in the future represent us the remaining years of his life in the United States Senate.

GREENBRIER, March 20.

FROM CHALK LEVEL.

Special correspondence.]

Jack Austin smiles behind his ears—its another boy.

A dance was given at the home of Toad Hardin Saturday night.

Billie Bomar lost about fifty panels of fencing by fire one day last week.

Miss Effie Holland, of Camden, is visiting her brother, Lamdon Holland.

Miss Mattie Barker, of Gardner, is visiting relatives and friends in this community.

Buck Barker is preparing to put up a dwelling. You can't hold old Chalk Level down.

Homer and Jim Holland think of engaging in the mercantile business at Cooley's Landing.

Miss Jennie Swindle, one of our most charming young ladies, and James Greenhall, were married at the home of the bride's father, Asa Swindle, on last Sunday evening. They are both popular young people, and we join in wishing them a long, happy and useful life.

CHALK LEVEL, March 20.

No one knows the unbearable torture one undergoes from piles unless they are so afflicted. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is a quick, safe and painless cure. Price 50 cents in bottles; tubes, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists.

If you agree with your friend he has a good opinion of your judgment.

Couldn't help getting a cold never cures it; but carrying home a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and using it as directed, will cure the worst kind of cough or cold. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by druggists.