Those of our citizens who are enjoying the blessings and privileges of a corporate government, will be waited on by Marshal Flowers who will receipt you for municipal tax for the year 1900.

Marshal E. G. Flowers brought his artillery into action Monday, and the dog population of Camden is now shy one midnight howler. A good beginning, but if he keeps it up he has an enormous task on his hands.

Alvin Rushing, who resided in the twelfth district, died last Monday. He was taken violently ill one day last week, and grew rapidly worse up to the day of his death. Mr. Rushing was afflicted with a malady which was incurable. He had been sent to the asylum for the insane for treatment twice during his life, and had been discharged as cured. He was a good citizen, kind and devoted to his family, and through energy and industry had accumulated some property and a good home. He will be missed by his neighbors and a host of friends.

Marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk G. B. Greer to E. D. Goodman and Lillie Hill, William Presson and Lavina Francisco.

The degree of page was conferred upon Eugene Travis at the meeting of Bayham Lodge, No. 86, Knights of Pythias, Monday evening. Rev. J. M. Pickens was advanced to the rank of esquire, and N. J. Cuff was made a full-fledged knight.

TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I am selling goods at the lowest prices possible to be made on a strictly cash basis, and find it impossible to hold up and give any credit.

I have, therefore, fully decided to adopt the "Spot Cash" system. I will reduce the price on goods when possible.

Please don't ask credit, and thus force me to refuse.

Yours, anxious for cash and barter trade. T. J. LOWRY,
Camden, Tenn.

FROM SAWYER'S MILL.

Special correspondence.]

Plans are being matured for the purpose of building a new church at this place.

Mrs. M. J. Rushing and daughter have returned from a visit to relatives at Box.

There is talk of a new telephone line from here to Garfield. Let's have it, by all means.

D. R. Pellard went to Paris this week for the purpose of organizing a church at that place.

Will Turner Presson and Miss Lavina Francisco were united in marriage Monday evening, at the home of J. L. Douglass, Rev. R. H. Elmore officiating. We wish the happy couple joy and happiness.

SAWYER'S MILL, February 12.
