Berry Hubbs moved to the second district this week.

Miss Bessie Hudson has returned from a visit at Hollow Rock.

R. G. Hudson and W. L. McElyea visited at Big Sandy Friday.

Claude Hudson and wife of Hollow Rock visited here this week.

A. N. Lindsay of Big Sandy has been spending a few days here this week.

Helen, little daughter of P. J. O'Reilly has been quite sick, but is better.

Clerk and Master A. G. McDaniel was at Paris last Saturday on business.

Dr. E. M. McAuley has returned home from a professional trip to Big Sandy.

There is something new nearly every week in our "Miscellaneous Advertising."

B. F. Brown came down Sunday from Sugar Tree and spent the day with his family.

J. B. Vickrey, who has been confined to his room with the grip, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Emma Lawler and children of Ralston are visiting her sister, Mrs. Will S. Corbitt.

U. A. Potts has a force of men at work putting up the poles for the telephone exchange.

J. G. Robins has been on the list of sick, but was able to be on the streets again Wednesday.

W. L. Morris, L. R. Watson and John F. Naifeh attended the sale in the sixth district Tuesday.

Depositions are being taken before Clerk and Master A. G. McDaniel in the case of G. W. Cole vs. J. P. Jordan.

L. P. Browning, who has been residing here since last fall, removed to his former home in the tenth district this week.

About twelve couples composed of Benton Seminary students went to Johnsonville Tuesday evening to see the burned bridge.

The young people were given an enjoyable entertainment last night at the Melton House, which is famous for its hospitality.

The band reorganized Monday night. Two or three new members will be added, and the boys will begin regular practice at once.

Correspondents are requested to send in their letters on Tuesday, or not later than Wednesday morning. Otherwise they may be crowded out.

Nola Cuff left Wednesday morning for Memphis, where he has been offered a position as clerk on a steamboat in the Mississippi River trade.

Negole Naifeh will leave in a few days for the Soudan in Africa. He goes to see the old folks and to remain a few months in his native country.

W. L. McElyea is making his arrangements to move to Campbell, Mo., where he expects to make his home. Since the above was put in type, Mr. McElyea tells us he has abandoned the idea of going, as he is advised that smallpox has broken out at Campbell.

Robert Mitchell of Way was in town Wednesday. This is the first time he has been out since last August. He was taken sick about that time, and for seven months he has been almost an invalid. Though still quite feeble, "Uncle Bob" is as chipper as a cricket, and is good for a number of years with us yet.

Gus Totty has gone to Nashville where he has secured a position.

Miss Pearl Spellings has returned from a visit to homefolks at McKenzie.

The telephone exchange will be established at the residence of Mrs. Mollie Bowles, we understand.

An enjoyable entertainment was given at the hospitable home of Hon. and Mrs. J. A. Clemeat last Saturday evening, at which the beaux and belles of Camden and a number of visitors were present.

D. A. Gossett has issued a call for all the ex-Confederate Veterans of Benton County to meet at McIllwain on Thursday, March 14, 1901, for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the annual reunion this year, which will be held at Memphis.

Marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk G. B. Greer to Lon Victory and Mimmie Cox, Enos Troutt and Bertha Terry, W. G. Melton and Annie Kelley, G. R. Watson and Mary Smothers, J. M. Pierce and Martha E. Adair, C. E. Covington and Tina Pierce.

Mail matters have been very irregular this week, due to the burning of a span of the railroad bridge across Tennessee River at Johnsonville Sunday morning. The supposition is the fire originated in the top of the bridge timbers by sparks from a freight train, and the pine material of the bridge burned so rapidly that one span was destroyed before the fire was brought under control.

Fresh fish every week and first Monday. Are you hungry?
