SAVE YOUR FINEST CORN.

Wanted Thirty Ears of Each Variety for the World's Fair.

Editor THE CHRONICLE:

Tennessee can make one of the finest corn exhibits that will be seen at the St. Louis World's Fair. We want every county in the State represented in it.

We want 30 ears in the shuck of each variety for the Tennessee exhibit. Pull the shuck back and see that the ears are all right and then pull the shuck over the corn again.

Ask the farmers of your county to get it ready now. A well padded box should be attached to the hind end-gate of the wagon, and every promising ear thrown in it.

Later these ears should be culled and 30 of the finest selected for the exhibit. The name of the grower and his postoffice address will appear on the exhibit. Ask every one who will furnish the corn for an exhibit to notify you or write directly to B. A. ENLOE, Secretary and Director Exhibits, Nashville, Tenn.

P.S.—Shipping instructions will be furnished later.

A good farm in the twelfth civil district will be sold at a bargain. See notice in another column.

The Continental Plant Company of Kittrell, N. C., are the largest shippers of strawberry plants in the world. All desiring to grow this luscious fruit should write for their fall catalogue. They offer also all kinds of fruit trees. See their advertisement.

Wanted—200,000 axe handles. See T. J. Throgmorton at Camden depot.

Prof. W. G. Deen has gone to Logtown, Miss., where he will teach school. His family will remain here for the present.

A large crowd went to Paris Wednesday to attend Wallace's show.

Don't fail to read the advertisements in THE CHRONICLE this week.

The property on the northwest corner of court square is offered for sale. See notice to that effect.

Bring or send us your news of general interest, and we will publish it with pleasure.

FROM BIG SANDY.

Regular correspondence.]

We will have our rural free delivery next Monday, November 2.

Miss Mollie Rushing is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cantrell this week.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist Church has closed, and the meeting at the Presbyterian Church commenced Sunday.

The house of T. W. Floyd, at Ramble Creek, was burned Sunday night. The family went to a neighbors after supper; in a short time the fire was discovered; when they reached the house, it was falling in. The only things saved were a bed and pair of pants containing some money. Everything was a total loss.

We have a splendid school here under the efficient management of Professors Miller and Gingles. It is certainly the best school this town has ever had. The citizens appreciate it and show their appreciation by their hearty cooperation. There are 130 now in attendance and many from all over the county expect to become students before and after the holidays. We predict a school next winter which will be a credit to our town, as well as the ambitious young men at the head. We can recommend it to any one.
