

Sequachee News.

VOL. 4. Supplement.—Oct. 29, 1896. NO 17.

After election, what?

Don't forget to vote.

Persimmons are ripe.

We believe in Home Rule.

Every life has its dark days.

A man breathes twenty pints of air a minute.

The NEWS advocates free thought and free speech.

Mr. Sherman has nearly finished wheat planting.

See Col. Cliff's announcement on back of this sheet.

Gabel & Brown have resumed sawing at their mill.

We are glad to hear Mr. Tom Richards is improving.

See Davidson's new stock.—Cheap as the cheapest.

The speaking at Jasper on Saturday will be at 10 o'clock.

The voice of the mocking bird sounds very sweet just now.

The man who wants the earth invariably gets it—after he dies.

Subscribe for the NEWS and send a copy to your absent friends,

J. G. Lankester of the Mitchell House, Jasper was in town today.

Dr. J. C. Carter of Chattanooga paid Sequachee a visit this morning.

The average attendance at the public schools is keeping up splendidly.

No Tri-County Democrat for two weeks. Whats the matter with us?

Miss Myrtle Rogers is making quite a valuable assistant postmaster.

A Minnesota town is called Red Neck Gulch. Red liquor must flourish there.

We are interested in Mr. Owen's pork fed on Helianthus Annuus and Tuberosa.

Who will get up an election return party in Sequachee? Don't all speak at once.

A Montana man has named his baby Sixteentone. Sixteen parts noise and one part baby.

Miss Sara Ables nearly broke up her bachelor housekeeping, the other night,—it was a mouse.

Mrs. La Ganke, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gabel, Tuesday.

Our neighbors from Victoria will join with Sequachee in hearing the election returns on Tuesday night.

The Annual Meeting of the Sequachee Manufacturing Co., will be held Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 4 p. m.

It will soon be the season for a nice fire, a warm corner of the sofa, a pretty young girl and a turn down light.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked a Dutch justice. "Not guilty." "Den what do you want here? Go about your pisiness."