OUR DEVIL'S CORNER

CRUSHED AGAIN.

"I will not take 'no' For an answer," he cried.
"I oblige when I can, sir," The maiden replied,
"And so as a 'no' Would offend your young ears That shall not be your answer, So quiet your fears."
"Oh! then you'll be mine!" And the youth's face was lit With the passion divine,
But she coldly said, "Nit."

SUGGESTS A BIG BILL TOO.

SMITH—"Who is your family doctor?"
BROWN—"His name is Drake."
SMITH—"Mighty bad name for a physician."
BROWN—"I should like to know why."
SMITH—"Because it suggests quackery."

HOW IT SEEMS TO EDITH.

Edith Sessions Tupper says that, when a sensitive, imaginative man or woman kisses the person he or she loves most, in that ineffable moment all the beautiful music that was ever written, all the glorious songs that were sung, all the art and poetry of the world combine and reach perfection."

It is quite evident that some one has been kissing Edith, and equally evident that she liked it.

A Valuable Book.

The News it in receipt of the "Proceedings in Congress upon the acceptance of the Statues of John Stark and Daniel Webster presented by the State of New Hampshire," sent to us by Hon. H. M. Baker. It is a book which would be a valuable addition to any library and we are glad to get it.

A perusal is quite refreshing after the trash we have had to wallow through for the past six months. We are really sorry, however, to have an historic idol swept away. We always appreciated the remark of General Stark before the engagement at Bennington as to the possibility of Mrs Stark being a widow, but that is exploded as Senator Gallinger tells us Mrs. Stark's name was Elizabeth, so there couldn't be any Molly. Too bad.

Now for Christmas. Young man, what are you going to give to that girl whose eyes sparkle for you brighter than diamonds.

Tennessee Turnips.

J. B. Luna is somewhat of a turnip producer himself, and carries off the premium so far this season. He brought in a load of turnips last week and among the lot was one weighing eight pounds and measuring thirty inches in circumference.—Petersburg Enterprise.

Frank Trimble had in his office yesterday turnips that weighed 16 1/2 pounds each. He bought them out of a wagon load of the same kind that had been grown on Mr. Monahan's farm, north of this city. A few days ago Mr. Trimble had a big yam potato grown on Mr. Harsis farm, in the eastern part of Shelby County, that weighed 17 pounds and 10 ounces.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Our friend, M. Keathley, is a sure winner in the matter of raising fine gardens and large turnips. He has had on exhibition in front of our office this week a white globe turnip that weighed 5 1/2 lbs. Fayette Kinney informs us that a colored man brought a turnip to his store a few days ago that weighed 5 1/2 pounds. This county is all right in the raising of all kinds of vegetables, as well as of grains, grasses, cotton and fruit. Turnips and potatoes are now bringing our farmers a daily source of revenue in the market.—Covington Leader.

Sombdy bring us a turnip o' mammoth size and we will endeavor to tell a yarn that will eclipse all the above turnipiana.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Martha J. Spears, nee Pitts, died at Jasper, Nov. 23, 1896, aged 50 years. She was the daughter of Allen L. Pitts, of Bledsoe Co., and sister of A. L. Pitts, Clerk and Master of Chancery Court. Was married to Col. A. L. Spears in 1873 and in 1874 they moved to Jasper where they have since resided.

Mrs. Spears has highly esteemed and the sympathy of the entire community, which went out to her while living for her heroic endurance during her long illness, is now extended to her husband and three children who survive her, and we are glad another good woman, with all it means has reached her rest. The funeral services on Wednesday conducted by Rev. S. S. Catron, were attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors, and the interment was made at the new (Rosewood) cemetery near Jasper.

Honesty and Virtue.

There is more honesty and virtue contained in a bottle of Salvation Oil, than in any other liniment known. "Mrs. A. Fiedler, 2864 Palethorp St., Philadelphia, Pa., confirms this truth: She found Salvation Oil to be an excellent remedy for rheumatism, stiff joints, bruises, etc., and thinks it should always be kept in the house." Don't listen to the dealer's arguments in favor of a substitute. Insist on getting Salvation Oil, it costs only 25 cts.

Turkey Shoot.

Last Wednesday week our local marksman held a turkey shoot on the ball ground. Eleven birds were shot for resulting as follows: J. C. Wagner, three; J. W. Graham, two; Andy Pryor, 1; Will Lee, two; C. H. Davidson, one. The turkeys were put up at sixty cents each. It is proposed to have another one during Christmas week when Mr. Owen's turkeys will be shot for. Why cannot an arrangement be made with the expert shots of the neighboring towns to have a contest in marksmanship? It would add life to the event and be the source of much fun.
