

Only Thirty and Gray

How is this?
Perhaps sleepless nights caused it, or grief, or sickness, or perhaps it was care. No matter what the cause, you cannot wish to look old at thirty.
Gray hair is starved hair. The hair bulbs have been deprived of proper food or proper nerve force.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Increases the circulation in the scalp, gives more power to the nerves, supplies missing elements to the hair bulbs.
Used according to directions, gray hair begins to show color in a few days. Soon it has all the softness and richness of youth and the color of early life returns. Would you like our book on the Hair? We will gladly send it to you.

Write us!
If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the Vigor, write the doctor about it. He may be able to suggest something of value to you. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

OBITUARY.

Died June 17th, 1901, at her home in Bentonville, Ark., Margaret Jane Maxwell nee Kelly, in the 63th year of her age.

It is said that death loves a shining mark, and in this case the saying is true, for the late Mrs. Margaret Jane Maxwell was a beautiful and accomplished woman.

Margaret Jane Kelly was born in Marion county, Tenn., Feb. 11, 1837. When about 17 years of age she professed faith in Christ and united with the C. P. Church.

She was first married to Henry Shelton of Tennessee, in 1857. Soon after the Civil War Mr. Shelton died, and about 1870 she was married to W. H. Cowan of Tennessee, and soon thereafter they moved to Benton county, Ark.

This relation continued but a few years when Mr. Cowan died. About the year 1880 she was married to J. W. Simmons, of Benton county, Ark., who in a short time also died. In August, 1886, she was married to O. D. Maxwell, of Bentonville, Ark. To each of these she was a faithful and loving wife.

Her husband and two sisters, Mrs. W. G. Spangler, of Marion County, Tenn., and Mrs. N. S. Cowan, of Independence County, Ark., survive her.

She lived the most of her religious life in the communion and fellowship of the C. P. Church, and died an acceptable member of that church.

For more than forty years of her life she was afflicted, and during her last years a great sufferer, but her afflictions and tribulations only worked out for her the grace of patience, and patience, experience, and experience, hope.

In the Christian's faith and in the Christian's hope she died peacefully and triumphantly, and is at rest with the blessed dead, those who die in the Lord.

Her remains were buried in the Odd Fellows' cemetery in Bentonville, Ark., on the family lot of her former husband, J. W. Simmons, June 18, 1901.

To her grief-stricken sisters and husband, O. D. Maxwell, we extend our sincere Christian sympathy. May the grace of God be sufficient for them and all mourning friends. A FRIEND.

"This remedy cured to severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. Gone to Work.

All the coal miners in the Birmingham district proper resumed work to-day under the newly signed wage scale, which is practically a renewal of last year's scale. The miners of the Walker county sub-district will meet at Jasper, Ala., this week and it is thought they will come to an agreement with the operators of the sub-district on the basis of the Birmingham district scale. All the miners are well supplied with orders and the outlook is for steady work.—Birmingham dispatch, July 9.
