W. C. Hill was in Jasper Saturday. Wylie Parker went to Whitwell Saturday. Shell Codwell is clerking for Jas. Coldwell.

Millard Hinch, of Ebenezer, was here Sunday. Wm. H. Gott, of Inman, was in town Saturday.

John D. Miller, of Vicotria, was in the city Saturday. T. A. Randle, of Brownsville, Ala., visited his family Sunday.

Geo. M. Dame, of Jasper, the feed man, was in the city Friday. C. E. Cunningham has been suffering from lambo Saturday week.

John Carson, of Victoria, was here Sunday interviewing his best girl. Claude Springfield, of Jasper, was in the city Sunday visiting his "best."

Bert Lee, of South Pittsburg, visited relatives in Copplinger Cove Sunday. Mrs. J. S. Deakins, who has had a tussle with la grippe, is much better.

Sam Johnson has moved to Jasper where he is engaged in blacksmithing. Miss Verda Bennett spent Sunday in Whitwell visiting friends, returning Monday evening.

Misses Louise Hill and Nannie Coplinger visited the cement plant at Copenhagen Sunday. Mrs. E. S. Haynes has been suffering with la grippe and neuralgia, but is now recovering.

The base ball fever germ gave a wiggle in this town Saturday evening. It's a sure sign of spring.

J. Michael Thomas, of Copenhagen, and sister, were here Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Curtis.

W. F. Smith, better known as "Calico Bill," of Gruetli, was on hand for G. A. R. meeting Saturday.

Mr. W. D. Floyd, and family, of Needmore, were in the city Tuesday, visiting W. A. Chadwick.

Some slight changes are being made to the interior of Hotel Marion this week, preparatory to reopening shortly.

John O'Neal has resigned his position as storekeeper for Jas. Coldwell, and returned to his home near Tracy City.

Miss Nina Randle has been appointed Secretary of the M. E. Sunday school, south, vice Clarence Fagg, resigned.

The spring chicken has made its appearance, but can hardly be classed as a fryer yet. Mrs. W. K. Marlin has the neighborhood beat in raising the fluffy specimens.

Mrs. F. O. Pearson is now in Chattanooga, where she has accepted a position with the Rosenberg Dry Goods Co., as milliner.

W. H. Simpson, of Jasper, was in town last week. He is associated with Geo. M. Dame in the feed and produce business, and is hustling things.

W. A. Price, of Jasper, was here Friday. He wants his friends to remember that he still wants to measure them for that suit of clothes, any size, shape or style.

Miss Minnetta Holland, of Pryor Institute, was the charming visitor of Miss Juliette Hopkins over Sunday, and sang a beautiful solo at League services Sunday night.

It was reported in this place last week that Miss Eunice Hutton, of Victoria, was dangerously ill. Miss Hutton, as far as we can learn, is convalescent from a threatened attack of fever, and able to resume her class in music.

The ever genial John C. Gross, of Coalbont, was a caller in our office the first thing Monday morning, having come from Tracy City the afternoon before. He was on his way to up-valley points and thence to Chattanooga. He is looking as if life was prospering with him and his, and we were glad to see him.

Latest reports from Nashville are that "Shug" Johnson turned up in Johnny Dobb's headquarters earlier than expected, or as he expressed it "to be in at the beginning." He is described as a "big fellow from the mountain district." Training began Friday last, and Johnson is put down as a pitcher.

Measles and la grippe are fashionable in this part. They are common now. Swapping horses is staying with us. We sympathize with John Curtis, who lost his wife at Whitwell, Feb. 8, 1907. She was born near Sequachee, June 25, 1868. She leaves a husband and three little children. She followed one that went home to the Saviour some 12 months ago. Her last words were, "I am going home to God."

Oh, that the husband may lead the three little children to the home of the mother. We have known her from her infancy. She was much beloved by everybody and is not only missed at home but is missed abroad. She was quiet and harmless. We say to the husband and children that mother is at rest and no doubt lives in the promises of God. Weep not for her. Neither lament nor mourn for she is with dear Jesus, while you are left alone.

Peach trees are blooming out. The apple is blooming in. My honest opinion is that Fruit will be mighty thin. Pricy Barnett has been complaining some time, but she is better. The old lady is very poorly. The fee has learned to turn double winter sets.

Subscribe for the News and read it. It is only 50c. Caching. Cold Wave. Knoxville did one good act this week, voting out the rum holes by a vote of 2 to 1. "On to Chattanooga" is the cry of the temperance forces now, and the conflict will be waged there.

Mrs. Tower, of Chattanooga, returned yesterday evening to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. G. Sherman, whose recovery is very slow.

Cole City, Ga.

Special to the News.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Basham called on Mrs. R. H. Basham today. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis spent Saturday at Mrs. Will Davis'. Miss Daisy Price and Miss Hix, of Lower Cole City, were on our streets Sunday. They spent the day with Mrs. Joe Davis and called on Mrs. Joe Hartline. Geo. Strickland and Miss Daisy Price were out walking Sunday eve. Joe Smith had a very bad Texas fever but I think it is about over, as he had a milk cow to sell. Her horns were knocked off and her tail cut short and he wanted forty dollars for her and was offered five. He said he could not sell his wagon anyhow, so he will stay with them. The wagon has only three wheels. I think Green Prince is going to planting his garden. He has burned a dozen corn stalks. Mrs. Joe Hartline and Mrs. Joe Suttles were laughing yesterday. I wonder what they were tickled about. If you want to see George Strickland grin just ask him who he was with Sunday. Mrs. Suttles, Mrs. Walter and wife and little daughter, Minnie, called at Mrs. Walter's Saturday and stayed until Monday. Mrs. Della Basham called on Mrs. Suttle this morning. Mrs. Joe Hartline and Miss Belle Suttle were shopping at Lower Cole City today. Tom Boston is going to make a garden. I see he is making pailings. Miss Minnie Hollis is the prettiest girl in Cole City.

Miss Cora Harp, of Shellmound, Tenn., spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Stanifer, last week. If you want to see Miss Hattie Goodson smile just ask her how she likes Jack. Jim Boston changed his mind and moved to Whiteside, Tenn. Miss Laura Higdon looked sweet Sunday. I would like to hear from Laohogage as I have a dear friend there. What has become of the writer? I know "Sweet Aster" won't write any this week, for she is away on a visit to Whitwell. Mrs. Thompson is visiting her son at Whiteside. Lee Cloud, Green Prince and Geo. Prince called at Mrs. Prince's to see his patch of potatoes. I think Mrs. Cursey has got a right to have a fever to go back to Tracy as her husband is there. Ben Cane took dinner with Geo. Strickland Sunday. Tom Boston has returned from Whitwell where he visited his brother-in-law, Will Floyd. Ben Cane said he was going to buy a buggy to take his best girl riding in. If you want to see Miss Hix smile just ask her how she likes Ben. Miss Daisy Price was all smiles Sunday. She caught a new sweetheart. Here is a riddle: As I went to St. Ives I met a man with seven wives. The seven wives had seven sacks; seven sacks had seven old cats; seven old cats had seven kits. Kits, cats, sacks and wives, how many went to St. Ives? Who Is This?

Visiting was the order of the day Sunday. We are having some very wet weather. Lots are going to be late making garden in our neighborhood. Alex Quarles took dinner with Mel Webb Saturday. H. H. Torbert made a short call here one day last week. Mrs. Tommie Dobbins, from So. Pittsburg, visited here Saturday. Mrs. Rebecca Hancock, of Ebenezer, visited at C. E. Hancock's one day last week. Albert Hancock and family, from Babcock, Wis., the son of H. Hancock, has moved to our vicinity and thinks he will make it his home. We are glad to get Northern people to settle here. Mrs. Alex Rogers was here Saturday selling papers and pictures and asking her friends to patronize her. H. H. Hancock and wife, from Hoge Crossing, visited their parents here Sunday. Gerald Smith was visiting C. E. Hancock's Saturday. Mrs. Adline Quarles was in Jasper shopping one day last week. H. Hancock from Ferris Switch, visited his daughter, Mrs. Mell Webb, here Tuesday. W. B. Rogers and family from Sequachee, visited H. H. Torbert, Sunday. Frank McGuine is making a crop on Mr. Bible's place this year. Cattle can make a living in our neighborhood as I saw Mrs. Gearing's and five or six more in Will Smith's salad patch the other day as I passed. I don't know what will become of the cattle now as Will Smith has plowed it up. Tom Turner made a business trip to C. E. Hancock Tuesday. Mrs. Joe Lowman was visiting Mrs. Kate Kelly one day last week. Mr. Gearing was at this place Monday on business. Mrs. Ada Berryhill, from Georgia, visited her aunt and uncle, H. H. Torbert, Sunday.

J. C. Kelly was unloading a car of agricultural machinery and gasoline engines Saturday, but that is not unusual. Mrs. Shirley Woods is taking a further course in instruction in violin playing from Prof. Cade, of Chattanooga. Mrs. Woods is already the leading violinist of the valley, but is striving for further improvement. W. H. Martin has bought an I. H. C. gasoline engine of J. C. Kelly and will use it on the farm he has recently purchased of W. D. Spears.

The M. E. Church now presents a very neat appearance. The tower which has been erected to the front is very graceful and pretty. We understand the interior is also finished up very attractively.

The winds of March have no terror to the user of DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve. It quickly heals chapped and cracked skin. Good too, for boils and burns, and undoubtedly the best relief for Piles. Sold here by Jno. W. Simpson, Jasper, Tenn.

Visiting is the order of the day. Misses Martha and Ethel Hudson visited Miss Lottie Defur Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Defur visited Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Defur Sunday. Miss Mary Defur is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams.

Joe and Tom Defur, of Whitwell, visited across the river Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson visited Mr. and Mrs. Will McCurry Saturday. Jim Bickett called on Tom Defur Monday.

Mrs. Jim Anderson visited the Misses Hicks Friday eve. J. Hudson is on the sick list but is recovering. Misses Millie Pickett and Mary Defur were shopping in Whitwell Saturday.

Bob Pickett attended the singing Thursday. Miss Lottie Defur looked pleased Sunday. Ask Miss Carrie Thomas if she got tickled the other day. I guess she will say yes.

Ask Miss Mary Defur how she likes to hear the talking machine. Walter Hudson went expecting to attend a singing Sunday, but there was n't any. Lum Thomas was seen coming from across the river Sunday with a smile on his face as long as down to yonder and back.

W. H. Powell is on the sick list this week. J. D. Defur called on Tim Anderson Sunday eve. Lock your heart in an old time trunk, and go with a boy that never gets drunk.

Wind is the order of the day. The children seem gay, passing off the time at play. W. D. Lewis, of Doans, Tex., I knew him before he left the valley. Was glad to know the bereaved have hopes to meet him on the other shore, where parting will be no more. We all ought to be ready to meet our Lord when He calls.

Some people seem like they would rather have the riches of this world than to spend eternity in the kingdom of our Lord. The day is coming when the rich man will weep and wail for the way he has treated labor here below.

Let us see what the apostle says about the rich who oppress the poor: "Go to, now, ye rich man, weep and howl, for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver is cankered and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and it shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasures together for the last days. Behold the hire of the laborers, who have reaped down your fields, which is by you kept back by fraud, crieth, and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth and been wanton. Ye have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. Ye have condemned and killed the just and he doth not resist you. Be patient, therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord."

We generally see when the rich company wants to oppress the poor who have worked for them and made them what they have got that they will come right to you home and get your laborer to do all they can to make the laborer humble to them. The laws will press the laboring man for the rich in worldly gain. If the rich man would realize that his body shall lie down as ours, and if he don't mind when the trumpet shall sound to call the people on higher ground to stand before the Lord, the rich and proud will be behind. So you people who have been scattered by the strike get down upon your knees and ask the Lord to help you to get on higher ground.

Rain and mud is the order of the day. Our Sunday school is doing fine. Mrs. Ike Rush spent a day with her mother here last week. Mrs. N. N. Rush.

There is quite a lot of sickness in our town. Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, a 9-pound girl Monday. Mrs. John Cope is spending the evening with Mrs. Rush.

Mrs. Bud Huntley is on our sick list. One of Jim Simmons' boys is sick. Mr. and Mrs. John Grimes' baby is dead. We sympathize with the bereaved family. "Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep from which none ever wakes to weep."

Come on, "Watchman," of Tateville, we like to read your pieces. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Girdley visited the latter's parents.

Fred Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. Ike Rush Sunday morning. John Smith left Friday morning for Tracy City.

We were sorry to hear of Will Floyd getting hurt, as he was one of our friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. John Wess visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud Huntley Sunday.

Wake up, Miss Millie Bellis, of Dunlap, and write. Your "old friend" in Clifty, has not forgotten you yet. Mrs. Ike Rush and Mrs. Jennie Bryant were visiting Mrs. John Smith Friday evening.

N. N. Rush and son, Howard, visited Ike Rush and wife Sunday evening. Two Mountain Sisters.
