

Don't Lose That Third

EXPERTS have figured that eight loads of manure spread by machine are worth twelve spread by hand. On this basis alone it would pay you to buy a Low Cloverleaf Manure Spreader. By actual experience it is shown that to spread one hundred loads of manure by hand costs $44.00—by machine only $20.

Low Cloverleaf spreaders save half the distance and time in getting the manure off as compared to a spreader which has no wide-spread device and merely unloads. You don't have to drive on previously manured ground to make the strips of manure match. The manure gets two beatings and is well pulverized. Wide-spread device permits of narrow box. This enables you to drive into the barn and load directly from the gutter, saving one handling.

You cannot expect land to grow crops on an empty stomach. You have got to feed it. Manure is a fattening food. Either size of Low Cloverleaf spreader, small, medium and large, regulates the diet so that every foot of ground gets a well balanced ration.

A visit from you will enable us to show you how this spreader makes money for you. Come in and see it.

INCOME REPORT MUST BE FILED BEFORE MAR. 15

PENALTY WILL ACCRUE ON THAT DATE WHERE INFORMATION IS NOT FURNISHED.

ALL COPARTNERSHIPS INCLUDED

Likewise Every Corporation Regardless of Its Income Must Make Statement—Individuals, If Within Limits, Must Do Likewise.

All firms, individuals and copartnerships and corporations that have not done so should file their income tax reports with the collector of internal revenue for this district before March 15. There has been no extension of time and there will be none for making these reports, it is announced. The penalty will accrue on that date. Every unmarried man, no matter what exemptions he may have, who has an income of a thousand dollars or more must file a report. Married men of $2,000 must file reports. Every corporation regardless of whether it made money last year or not must file a report. The same is true of every copartnership. When the report is filed one may pay a quarter of the taxes, and the balance in three equal installments. If preferred of course the entire amount can be paid when the report is filed.

Deputy Collector Peoples has assisted a great many taxpayers here to make out their returns and he will aid many more. It is better, however, to send in a report that may not correctly be filled out in every particular, and get it in before March 15, than to wait until after that date in order to have a perfect report. It is not expected that the list of delinquents in Maury county will be large this year as there is a better understanding of the tax than there has heretofore been. The rate is also lower this year than it was last year.

TWO CASES SET FOR FIFTEENTH OF MARCH

THREE ALLEGED SPEEDING CASES DISMISSED IN COUNTY CRIMINAL COURT.

Judge W. C. Whitthorne convened county criminal court this morning and disposed of several cases, and set two for the 16th of March, and adjournment until that date.

The cases dismissed were for alleged speeding cases against Sam Bates, Robert Bates and William Ewing.

The case against Henry Kennedy, alias Bud Kennedy, for violation of the bone dry law was set for March 16th.

The case of Maury Webb for violation of the wheel tax law, was also set for the 16th.

ENTER MARCH AS GAMBOLING LAMB

BUT THE POOR LITTLE THING
NEARLY FROZE TO DEATH BE-CAUSE OF GROUND HOG.

Just as the court house clock boomed out wakening hour Sunday night, March marched in like a lamb, but the poor thing nearly froze to death—for it was as cold as "blue blazes," and then some. This is laid at the door of his Lordship, the Ground Hog, who for the past four weeks has been disturbing these parts with his antics. It is hoped that after the two more weeks, which Mr. Ground Hog hibernates, there will be some real spring weather, and that March will gambol on the green, even as the lambs. But the month is sure to go out stormy and blustery, for when March comes in like a lamb it is sure to go out like a lion.

SELLS GROCERIES TO NEGROES

Stranger Sold Groceries Below Wholesale Cost to Negroes, Giving Them Twelve Months to Pay for Same. Got Cash Deposit.

Tuesday evening a well-dressed stranger stepped briskly up to the counter at the Bethel Hotel and registered "Fred Sinch, Flint, Michigan." He was assigned to a splendid room. The next morning, dressed in a natty brown business suit, he leisurely ate breakfast and dropped down into the lobby where he chatted with guests before beginning his day's work.

Going from the hotel, the stranger went to Watson's livery stable, and introduced himself as F. Wilson, salesman of the great "Michigan Grocery Company," and secured a rig to drive through the country.

His was a house to house plan, and he intended to make a thorough canvass of the county. Business evidently was brisk, and it is understood that Mr. Wilson-Sinch "cinched" quite a number of orders, and also cash deposits on each order. It is understood that he called upon no white people at all, confining his activities to the colored population, which, perhaps, explains how he was able to sell groceries at such remarkably low prices.

This morning a representative of The Herald secured one of the orders taken by Wilson-Sinch. It was for $149 worth of groceries. Among the items was 1½ barrels of flour $15.50, pounds of lard $10, 5 boxes of soap $5, one frye, 1 bushel of beans $3, and other groceries in proportion. At the bottom of the list was one good hat free, and four yards of bleached domestic for wife, free. Of course on such a large order it was necessary to secure "a small cash deposit," the customer being an unknown party with absolutely no rating. The "customer" deposited $5 with Wilson-Sinch, and was given twelve months time in which to pay the remainder.

A duplicate copy of the order left in the hands of the "customer" bore at the top these words: "The Michigan Grocery Co., Battle Creek, Mich." Blanks were left for the name of the customer, shipping point, postoffice, and buyer's name. In filling in this order, Wilson-Sinch gave the shipping place as "Clum, Mich.," and where the buyers should have signed his name, the order is signed "Fred Wilson."

Wilson-Sinch may have been an expert salesman, but when it comes to orthography, we cannot hand him much. He enters "1½ barrels Flowers," and "2 x Sugar—but this spelling did not worry him in the least, for he made good sales during his stay in the county. It is understood that on one sale he secured a deposit of $80, and on quite a number, from $5 to $10—in other words he did a flourishing business, he was prospering, and in a most happy frame of mind.

As he lounged around the hotel lobby, he laughed and joked with the guests, and in the three days time he was there he had learned to call some of the most prominent citizens by their first names—it was Joe and Jim, Bill and Mr. Wilson-Sinch, he liked everybody, and thought everybody should like him, he was doing a great deal to bring down the high cost of living. Wasn't he selling groceries for less than they could be bought wholesale? Was he not a philanthropist? He became so popular that Former Mayor Dedman took notice. Why the cause for this popularity? Was it because of this fellow's 180 pounds avoirdupois? Was it because of his slightly stooped posture? or his neat brown suit, or because of the Elk's pin he wore, or because of the brilliant horseshoe diamond pin in his tie, or because of his jocular mood? What was it that made him so popular?

And then came Friday afternoon, Mr. Sinch told the clerk at the Bethel that he had planned to run up to Franklin for a few hours and then return, and would settle his four day hotel bill then. This, of course, was agreeable to the clerk, and Mr. Sinch departed. Up until this time he has not returned, and former Mayor Dedman has gotten so in the habit of offering rewards that he just could not help offering a reward for information as to the whereabouts of Mr. Sinch. Mr. Watson has not been consulted, but it is thought that he would be willing to donate something to the amount offered by the ex-Mayor or Dedman, and it is known that several of the negroes who purchased goods from Mr. Sinch-Wilson would be glad to give at least half of what they paid "advance payment" if they could ascertain the present location of Mr. Wilson.

A representative of The Herald discovered this morning that there is no such firm as the "Michigan Grocery Company" at Battle Creek, Michigan, or that is, there was no such firm in

CHAUTAUQUA COMING TO COLUMBIA MAY 29

T. L. CUNNINGHAM RECEIVES LETTER SAYING THAT PROGRAM DEFINITELY ARRANGED.

In a letter received by T. L. Cunningham from John F. Chambers, superintendent of the Redpath Chautauqua, this attraction will be in Columbia for the seven day period beginning May 29. Columbians need no introduction to the Redpath attractions, and it is expected that the ticket sale which will begin soon, will be large.

The letter to Mr. Cunningham states that tickets and advertising matter will be forwarded within the next week or ten days. It is said that there are a number of new attractions on the Redpath circuit this season, and it is believed that the program as a whole will be the most pleasing ever presented here.

TAPS SOUND FOR SOLDIER OF SOUTH

JAMES P. DANIELS DIES UNEXPECTEDLY AT HOME OF HIS NEPHEW, W. A. HARDISON.

James P. Daniels, aged eighty-four years, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Maury county, and gallant old Confederate soldier, died at 4 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of his nephew, W. A. Hardison, ten miles from Columbia on the Bear Creek pike. On Saturday Mr. Daniels apparently was in his usual good health, and was up and about the house. At 3 o'clock he awoke members of the family saying that he was very ill, an hour later he passed into the great beyond.

Mr. Daniels was one of the most substantial citizens of the community, and was widely known and beloved. He had been a member of the Christian church practically all his life, and at the time of his death was an elder at New Lassen.

He is survived by one brother, T. A. Daniel, of Williamsport, and one sister, Mrs. Fannie Hardison, of Match, Tenn., two stepsons, Dr. T. J. Hardison, of Carters Creek, and D. R. Hardison, of Texas.

The funeral was conducted at 1 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of his nephew, W. A. Hardison, by Elder Newt Dorryberry. Arrangements by the Maury Undertaking Co., T. L. Cunningham in charge.

BELOVED WOMAN PASSES AWAY

MRS. SUSAN ELLEN ANDREWS DIES AT SANTA FE AFTER ILLNESS OF TWO YEARS.

Mrs. Susan Ellen Andrews, aged fifty-four years, wife of W. C. Andrews, died at 4 o'clock Sunday morning at her home near Santa Fe. Although Mrs. Andrews had been in failing health for the past two years, her condition had not been regarded as being critical but a short time, and her death came as a great blow to her host of friends.

Mrs. Andrews for many years had been an active member of the Methodist church, and was widely known and beloved. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. Walter Thompson, of Santa Fe; Mrs. Ellis Fitts, of Union City; James B. Andrews, of the A. E. F.; Joe and Willis Andrews and Miss Ellen Andrews, of Santa Fe.

The funeral was conducted at the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. J. T. Cotton. Interment was in the family cemetery, Maury Undertaking Co. in charge.

WILL DIRECT STATE INTERCHURCH WORK

NEW STATE FIELD REPRESENTATIVE COMES FROM ATLANTA CHURCH.

Special to The Herald.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 27.—Rev. Jere A. Moore, pastor of the Harris street Presbyterian church of Atlanta, has taken over the work of field representative of the Interchurch World Movement for Tennessee, with state headquarters in Nashville. He has resigned his pastorate in Atlanta, to take effect on Easter Sunday.

The Rev. Moore is a Tennessean by birth, having been raised at Greenville. His first pastorate was at Johnson City, where he filled the pulpit of the Watauga avenue Presbyterian church for a number of years. He has been pastor of the Harris street Presbyterian church at Atlanta for twelve years. For ten years of that time he served as chaplain of the Atlanta Typographical Union. He was also active in war work there, and in the work of the railroad Y. M. C. A., having conducted many shop meetings for the organization at industrial plants of Atlanta.

As field representative, the Rev. Moore will have charge of the general interchurch work in Tennessee. He has arranged to return to Atlanta each Sunday in order to fill his pulpit as usual until his resignation becomes effective.

RIGHT TO BACK ASSESS IS CHALLENGED IN BILL FILED BY J. A. SLOAN CO.

DECLARES THAT BECAUSE IT
HAD BECOME A PUBLIC SCANDAL
LAW WAS REPEALED.

MAURY COUNTY IS SINGLED OUT

Merchants of This County Alleged to Be the Particular Targets of Those Who Would Reassess Them as Other Counties Not Molested.

Alleging that because the back taxing of property in Tennessee has been carried on to such an extent as to become a public scandal that the legislature of 1915 had repealed the law authorizing it, that therefore there is now no power to back or reassess property once duly assessed by the regularly constituted authorities, J. A. Sloan Company, wholesale grocers, have filed a bill in the chancery court seeking to enjoin and restrain Archibald W. Lipscomb, county court clerk, and Lonnie B. Ormes, state revenue agent, from proceedings instituted by them to back assess the complainant.

Plats for an injunction were issued by Chancellor Newman, of Davidson county, and bond in the sum of $2,000 was exonerated and the process issued. Hughes, Hatcher & Hughes are the solicitors for the complainants. Several thousands of dollars are involved in the case.

In the bill it is alleged that last October the state revenue agent, Lonnie B. Ormes, made a motion before the county court clerk to back or reassess the complainant for the year 1916, 1917, 1918 and 1919, and citation thereon was duly issued. These hearings have been continued from time to time and never held.

It is charged that the complainant, who is engaged in the grocery business, has been regularly assessed for privilege and ad valorem taxes for all the years mentioned by the regularly constituted authorities. But that notwithstanding this fact an effort is being made to back or reassess the property and cause the payment of more taxes. An attempt even was made, it is alleged, to back assess for 1919 at though no settlement for that year had then been made when the citation was issued.

It is further alleged that apparently the merchants of Maury county have been singled out particularly for back tax proceedings although they pay as much taxes as the merchants of other counties. A decree perpetually enjoining the proceedings is prayed for.

The salient features of the bill are contained in the following paragraphs:

"Complainants charge that the defendants are without power or authority to institute or maintain such proceedings, and this attempt to do so is unwarranted and unjust and oppressive.

"Complainant states that the revenue agents for the state of Tennessee and the other taxing or back assessing authorities for the state prior to 1915, did have the power to back assess or reassess property which had been assessed for taxation, but this power was so oppressive and unjustly exercised as to become public scandal and the general assembly for the state of Tennessee for the year 1915 enacted chapter 121 which deprived the revenue agents or the taxing authorities or any one else of any such authority and there now exists no power or authority in any one to back assess or reassess property which has been assessed in any degree whatever assessed.

"Complainant states and charges that its property has not been inadequately assessed by reason of any connivance on the part of the complainant or any of its officers or agents. The fact is that complainant's property, including capital stock invested in the business, has been assessed for all the years in question upon the same basis that all other property has been assessed in Maury county and throughout the state of Tennessee.

"This character of proceeding seems to be aimed particularly at the merchants of Maury county; as complainant is informed that if contemplated or inaugurated against the merchants of any other county same have been abandoned, with possibly one exception, although the other merchants of Middle Tennessee are not assessed higher than the merchants of this county."

MRS. THOS. J. BURGESS DIES IN KENTUCKY

Many friends here of T. J. Burgess, of Sadleville, Ky., will regret to hear of the death of his wife, who died on Feb. 3. Mr. Burgess was a frequent visitor to Maury county, coming here to buy stock. He had many friends in this county.

DISCARDED AS DANGEROUS

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children. They like it.
