

REGENT $3.50 SHOE For Men

Is the very best shoe a man can buy for the price. The hundreds of pairs that we have sold, and not a bad one in the lot, make us safe in saying "a new pair if not good wear."

The new Fall Styles have arrived. Box calf, Vici and Velour calf.

If we please you, tell others; if we don't, tell us.

Watkins, Harlan & Evans.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Students' Club.

The Students' Club met Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Miss Rebecca Mayes. Miss Mary Carpenter, Vice President, presided in the absence of Mrs. W. P. Morgan, President, and the meeting proved to be one of unusual interest. The special subject of the afternoon was "Victoria—the Queen and Woman." Mrs. Mary Hines read a splendidly prepared paper upon this subject—a paper that elicited compliment and praise. Mrs. Sae Gray Dunnington was booked for a paper on the "Comparison of Queens Victoria and Elizabeth," but was not present. Miss Lucy Floyd led the general discussion on a "Bird's-eye View of Europe from the time of Victoria's Accession." A great deal of enthusiasm was brought forth in this discussion.

The time of meeting for the club has been changed from the second and fourth Friday afternoons to the second and fourth Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock. The club meets next with Mrs. Hazel Padgett. Special subject, "Origin of the Premiership," by Miss Rebecca Mayes.

Miss Ellen Friel will prepare a paper on "Contrast between Gladstone and Beaconsfield." General discussion, "The Yoke of Democracy," leader, Mrs. W. M. Biddle.

Progressive Nioce.

Mrs. J. P. Street entertained delightfully at "Progressive Nioce" Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Charles West, of Nashville. After an interesting game, delicious refreshments were served. Those present were—Messdames Charles West of Nashville, George P. Martin, C. A. Forgy, C. W. Bradshaw, Robert Pillow, Sue G. Dunnington, R. C. Ewing, W. H. Howard, John H. Carpenter, J. L. Hutton, Alex Titcomb, Sam Holding, J. M. Mayes, Annie Bowen and Meade Frierson.

The Misses Ashton were hostesses of a very attractive entertainment Friday night. The pretty home was brilliantly lighted, while a wealth of beautiful chrysanthemums and cosmos distributed through the room gave a finishing touch of beauty to the decorations. The graceful efforts of the hostesses rounded out a pretty completion. An interesting game of anagrams was indulged in. Music was sandwiched between and frappe was served at intervals. Delightful refreshments were had at the close. Those present were, Misses Mary and Edna Frierson, Annie Fleming, Clyde Gant, Rebecca Carpenter, Mammie Hodge, Willie Mary and Rachel Ashton; Messrs. John Lee, Arch Craig, Bob Harlan, John Gant, Willson Frierson, Robert William Smith, Proctor Polk and Flew Shegog.

Miss Callie Mai Simmons gave a chestnut-hunt Saturday to a number of her young friends. The young people went five miles out on the Sowell Mill pike and had a delightful time. The following were in the party: Russell Thompson and Louise Adkins; Theo England and Pearl Yarbrough; Joe Miller and Janie Fleming; Earle Sellars and Frankie Lipscomb; Hugh Barker and May Hart; Algine Hodge and Libbie Tegarden; Brawley Bennett and Callie Mai Simmons; Bessie Lipscomb, Mable Holtz and Annie England.

Misses Bessie Erskine, of Memphis, Dot and Elise Ewing, Lily Warfield, Clyde Gant, Edna Frierson, Sue Todd Walker, Carrie Alexander, Alleen Moore, Pearl Province, Lula Mosely and Sarah Magruder; Messrs. H. F. Clarence and Eugene Alexander, Flew and William Shegog, Wiley Warfield, Nimrod and Frank Porter, Lynch Perry and A. P. Fleming—chaperoned by Messdames John T. Moore and E. J. Ewing—went chestnut hunting to Mt. Nebo yesterday. A basket dinner was spread, and the party had a good time, and plenty of nuts.

Miss Cornelia Jones was the hostess at a beautiful card party given Wednesday night in honor of Miss Mary Gordon, of California. There were five tables, and four-handed progressive euchre was played. An elegant three-course luncheon was served. Those participating in the game were: Misses Mary Bidley, Rebecca Mayes, Ethel Hendler, Mina McLemore, Mary Bains, Mittie Elam, Olivia Barrow, Rebecca Williamson, Bessie Erskine, of Memphis, and Mary Gordon, of Cal.; Messrs. Fred Gamble, Will Ridley, Chairs Mayes, Richard Smith, Hugh Brown, Percy Brown, of Spring Hill, Will Howard, George Frierson, William Evans, Sam Harlan, Briggs McLemore and W. B. Wooten.

Perhaps the most important social event which will occur in Columbia this season will be the marriage of Miss Mina McLemore to Mr. James D. Rich ards, Jr., of Murfreesboro. The ceremony will take place in the First Methodist church, Wednesday, November twentieth, at 9 o'clock p. m. This will be followed by a handsome reception to the young couple, tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Meade Frierson at their residence on Eighth street, which will be attended by the bridal party and relatives.

A crowd of young people of the Bear Creek neighborhood enjoyed themselves with a chestnut hunt last Saturday, going to Nebo. The following were in the party: Ernest Fariss, Miss Susie Mitchell; Harry Borum, Miss Mary Mitchell; Ed Caldwell, Miss Susie Baker; Ripley Steel, Miss May Mitchell; Ned Dainwood, Miss Ethel Caldwell; Kirk Loftin, Miss Bessie Fariss. The young people report a delightful time.

Mrs. Grant Courtright entertained Wednesday night, complimentary to her guest, Miss Daisy Kemp, of Winchester, Ohio. A delightful time was spent socially, and dainty refreshments were served. Misses Florence Haley, Daisy Kemp, Dora Parham, Mary Sue and Sadie Aydelotte; Messrs. Doc Willis, Leslie Davis and Feland Dunn, were among those present.

The following party of merry young folks were napping in Mr. Allan Harlan's grove Tuesday: Misses Annie and Rebecca Williamson, Janie Shegog, Mary Bains, Ethel Hatcher and Minnie Towler; Messrs. W. B. Wooten, Ernest Cochran, Will Howard, Joe Lee, Sam Harlan and Wallace Wilkes.

The Stocking Sociable given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church, at the residence of Mr. J. P. Brownlow, Friday night, was a perfect success socially and financially. About one hundred guests were present.

Mrs. Jennie Robinson, sister of Mrs. J. B. Ashton, gave an elegant dining Friday to the church society at Wil liamsport, and a number of her friends. Several from Columbia were guests in this pleasant home.

Mrs. E. G. Grant entertained the following informally at dinner Saturday: Mrs. Robert Pillow and daughter Miss Mary, Mrs. Hazel Padgett, and Miss Pearl Province.

PERSONALS.

Ernest Yoest is here from Elkmont. Sheriff Hight is back from Nashville. Mrs. Ella Haley is visiting in Bigbyville.

Mrs. W. P. Morgan is visiting at Lexington, Ky.

Miss Susie Mitchell has returned from Franklin.

H. P. Fiquers, Esq., has returned from Conference.

Senator E. W. Carmack has returned to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Fiquers have gone to Primin's Springs.

Mrs. W. P. Wolridge returned this week from Washington.

Miss Alice Bond, of Mt. Pleasant, is visiting Mrs. R. C. Church.

Mrs. J. D. Harmon and little daughter have returned from Palaski.

Miss Annie Tyler, of Brentwood, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. T. N. Fiquers, Jr., has returned from a business trip to Cincinnati.

Mrs. Smith, of Murfreesboro, is visiting her brother, Mr. Connor Easley.

Miss Laura Fariss left yesterday for several days visit in Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trotwood Moore have returned from a visit to Nashville.

Rev. W. A. Province is spending this week in Lebanon in attendance upon the Synod.

Mrs. Fred Latta and Mrs. W. A. Province are in Lebanon attending Synod.

Mr. John M. Gray and family left Thursday for Nashville to spend the winter.

Miss Daisy Erwin left this week to spend some time with Chattanooga friends.

Miss Mattie Sparrow of North Carolina, is visiting her brother, Mr. R. G. Sparrow.

Messrs. Vance Wallace and Johnnie Johnson have returned from Caney Springs.

Mr. T. P. Murphy of Cynrston, Lincoln county, was here this week on business.

Mrs. S. P. Payne and Miss Simmie Payne have returned from a visit to Bigbyville.

Miss Alice West is visiting relatives at Birmingham and other points in David-son county.

Capt. J. R. Bryan was here yesterday enroute from Birmingham to his home in Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shuneman and children, and Miss Nettie Green have returned from the country.

Mr. and Mrs. George Daimwood have moved to the Marshall place on Bear Creek, near Mt. Olivet.

Mr. J. A. Ketchum returned last week from Cornersville, where he was called by the death of his brother.

Miss Mattie Stamps, of Bear Creek, after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in the city, has returned home.

Little Miss Annie Louise Latta is staying with Judge and Mrs. E. E. Erwin while Mrs. Latta is in Lebanon.

Mr. Ed Geers, enroute North, stopped here Wednesday from Memphis, to spend two days with friends.

Mrs. B. M. Renick and children of Paris, Ky., are visiting her sisters, Mrs. Meade Frierson and Mrs. F. D. Lander.

Mrs. Francis A. Shoup has gone to Texas to spend the winter with her son,

ANOTHER NEW LOT OF Wall Paper.

Just received; all the latest styles and colorings.

We are selling nice Papers at 5c. With 18-inch Borders for 10c.

Also a complete assortment of floor grades in all the latest designs.

Will sell you your paper on wall if you prefer, and guarantee satisfaction.

R.AINS, the Druggist.

Frank A. Shoup.—Nashville American.

Miss Mattie Hastings and Mrs. W. P. Hastings and children, of Wilhoite, are visiting Capt. James Friel's family.

Misses Myra Thompson and Mary Gordon, and Mr. Henry Pointer have returned to Spring Hill from a visit here.

Misses Florence Pratt, of Duplex, and Annie Moore of Rally Hill, have returned home from a visit to Miss Lula Wallace.

Hon. J. W. E. Moore of Brownsville, who is a candidate for Judge of the Chancery Court of Appeals, is in the city to-day.

Senator and Mrs. W. B. Bate returned to Nashville Sunday, after spending several days in the city as guests of Mrs. E. R. Dunnington.

Mrs. W. H. Rogan and little son, of Chicago, and Mrs. R. Swansburg and daughter of Mt. Pleasant, are guests of Mrs. A. Y. Simmons.

Capt. W. N. Hughes, U. S. A., who has been retired on account of disability, has returned from Columbus Barrocks with his family and will make Columbia his home.

Miss Mackie Scott, after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in Spring Hill, has returned home accompanied by Miss Nellie Watson, who will remain several days as her guest.

Dr. J. E. Dixon, who has been suffering from jaundice, has been in feeble health for some time in Nashville at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John W. Witherspoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reams have returned from Chattanooga, where they attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows. Mr. Reams was appointed Deputy District Grand Master for this district.

Mr. James A. Sloan of Nashville, was in the city making arrangements to bring his family here the first of the year to locate. Mr. Sloan is of the firm of J. A. Sloan & Co., who recently purchased the wholesale grocery business of E. W. Gamble & Co.

The many friends of Rev. John P. McFerrin of Birmingham, were glad to meet him again Sunday, although his mission here was a sad one. He went to Nashville with the relatives of Mrs. Williams, deceased, and took part in the burial services there Monday morning.

Ed Hill had an exciting time with an unruly horse several days since at Bates & Hill's plaining factory near the depot. The horse turned a wagon over on Ed, but fortunately he managed to extricate himself without being hurt.

A few days ago Mr. John N. Hunter advertised in the Herald for a stray horse, and soon after the paper reached the country the animal was returned to its owner. Moral: Try an ad in the Herald yourself.

At the meeting of Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows Tuesday night, W. A. Willis was passed through the third degree. An interesting report was received from Mr. J. W. Reams, representative to the Grand Lodge.

Miss Irene O'Neal is the proud possessor of a pair of Belgian hares. Two or three days ago the family was increased by the arrival of two of the cutest, prettiest baby hares, which are attracting the attention of the little people of the town.

Mr. L. C. Martin, who has had charge of the Columbia Journal for a few months, has sold the property to Messrs. D. L. Hoover and Jas. A. Merrill, of Franklin, who took charge Wednesday. We wish Mr. Martin success wherever he may decide to go, and welcome Messrs. Hoover and Merrill.

The meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen next Thursday night, Nov. 7, will be their last meeting but one. The city election will take place November 19; the election commissioners will announce their successors on Monday following, and on Friday night, November 29, the old Board will hold their final meeting and turn over the affairs of the city to their successors.

If your new Fall hat was purchased of Mrs. Williamson, that is a sufficient guaranty as to its quality and style. A number of Columbia ladies who bought at her establishment and afterwards visited the Nashville millinery stores, say their hats were greatly admired and in several instances were copied from by the city trimmers. This is quite a compliment to Mrs. Williamson and her efficient trimmers.

The three young ladies—Misses Lucy Haley, Ida Lipscomb and Henrietta Lazarus—who were successful in the Banner contest for tickets to the Grand Opera at Nashville, last week, report a delightful time. They put up at the Tulane, and had the best of everything. The Banner staff and their wives showed them every courtesy and extended charming hospitality. There were 151 successful contestants representing three States—Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama—at the grand banquet given by the Banner. Maj. Stahlman was presented with a handsome gold matchbox by his guests.

To Our Mt. Pleasant Readers.

The Herald wants a route agent for Mt. Pleasant. He must be something more than a mere carrier boy. We want a bright lad who will not only deliver the papers promptly every evening, but one who will canvass the town and see the people and get new subscribers. If you know such a boy, please call his attention to this notice, and have him communicate with us at once, by telephone or in person.

New Eatables.

New Oat Flakes, New Grits, New Hominy, New Hominy Flakes, New Oat Flakes, New Canned Goods of all kinds.

8 packages XXXX, Ar-buckle or Porto Rico Coffee, One Dollar.

WHITE BROS'

N. Main St. Both 'Phones.

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB.

Mary had a little lamb, Some steak and mushroom stew, And 'ere the sunlit morning dawned She had the nightmare, too. —London Answers.

G. W. NICHOLS.

GROCER.

WEST SEVENTH ST.

In order to stimulate business, will sell Groceries at 10 per cent. less than any grocer in Tennessee. Get competitor's prices and compare them. He will save you a hat-ful of money.

AROUND TOWN.

Miss Mary Black is sick with typhoid fever.

Bolbs of all kinds at the Columbia Green House.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Haley are now at the Guest House.

Mr. W. P. Oakley has moved from Fly to Columbia.

Mr. James Baugh is now with W. J. Guest & Co., the butchers.

Mr. Wes Roberts has moved to the Voss cottage on Fourth street.

The members of the Vendome Stock Co., are registered at the Bethell.

Mrs. James A. Smiser, who has been sick with fever, continues to improve.

The residence of Mrs. Nettie Ruttie is being prettily papered and painted.

Adele Nichols, oldest daughter of Mr. G. W. Nichols, is sick with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sowell have moved to the new Watson house on South Main.

Master Joe Waldo, who has been sick for several weeks with typhoid fever, is convalescing.

Mr. Claud Craig, formerly of McKennon, Anderson & Foster, is now with the Trade Palace.

Ed Hight has recovered from an attack of jaundice, and was able to go to Santa Fe Sunday.

Messrs. Joe Dixon and W. C. Napier will leave soon for Oklahoma, where they will seek their fortunes.

Mrs. M. J. Glenn and family have moved to South Main Street from the Ussery place in South Columbia.

Mr. Robert Harrington and family left this week for East St. Louis, Ill., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ketchum moved Monday from Fourth Street to the Barker residence on North Garden.

Mr. Albert Fleming this week received from a friend in Missouri a rattlesnake skin eight inches wide and fifty-five inches long, with ten rattles.

All claims against the estate of J. H. James must be filed with us as executors. A. S. and Edgar James, Executors. oct25-2t.

The many friends of Mrs. T. C. Brittain will be glad to know that she is much better, and the doctors think the crisis is past.

The Board of Stewards of the First Methodist church are requested to meet at the Herald office this evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

Mr. Elijah Neeley of this city, has a spirit level that has been in use for sixty years. It is made of mahogany, and is still in good condition.

The Daughters of the Confederacy dinner next Monday promises to be a great success. Take dinner with them, and thereby help a good cause.

Messrs. Riggs Hayes of Lewisburg, and Blair Hayes of this city, have rented the Sheppard stand in West End, and will open a grocery in a few days.

An effort is being made by Lieut. Robert Ragsdale to organize a military company at this place. A number of young men have agreed to become members.

Ed Hill had an exciting time with an unruly horse several days since at Bates & Hill's plaining factory near the depot. The horse turned a wagon over on Ed, but fortunately he managed to extricate himself without being hurt.

A few days ago Mr. John N. Hunter advertised in the Herald for a stray horse, and soon after the paper reached the country the animal was returned to its owner. Moral: Try an ad in the Herald yourself.

At the meeting of Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows Tuesday night, W. A. Willis was passed through the third degree. An interesting report was received from Mr. J. W. Reams, representative to the Grand Lodge.

Miss Irene O'Neal is the proud possessor of a pair of Belgian hares. Two or three days ago the family was increased by the arrival of two of the cutest, prettiest baby hares, which are attracting the attention of the little people of the town.

Mr. L. C. Martin, who has had charge of the Columbia Journal for a few months, has sold the property to Messrs. D. L. Hoover and Jas. A. Merrill, of Franklin, who took charge Wednesday. We wish Mr. Martin success wherever he may decide to go, and welcome Messrs. Hoover and Merrill.

The meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen next Thursday night, Nov. 7, will be their last meeting but one. The city election will take place November 19; the election commissioners will announce their successors on Monday following, and on Friday night, November 29, the old Board will hold their final meeting and turn over the affairs of the city to their successors.

If your new Fall hat was purchased of Mrs. Williamson, that is a sufficient guaranty as to its quality and style. A number of Columbia ladies who bought at her establishment and afterwards visited the Nashville millinery stores, say their hats were greatly admired and in several instances were copied from by the city trimmers. This is quite a compliment to Mrs. Williamson and her efficient trimmers.

The three young ladies—Misses Lucy Haley, Ida Lipscomb and Henrietta Lazarus—who were successful in the Banner contest for tickets to the Grand Opera at Nashville, last week, report a delightful time. They put up at the Tulane, and had the best of everything. The Banner staff and their wives showed them every courtesy and extended charming hospitality. There were 151 successful contestants representing three States—Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama—at the grand banquet given by the Banner. Maj. Stahlman was presented with a handsome gold matchbox by his guests.

To Our Mt. Pleasant Readers.

The Herald wants a route agent for Mt. Pleasant. He must be something more than a mere carrier boy. We want a bright lad who will not only deliver the papers promptly every evening, but one who will canvass the town and see the people and get new subscribers. If you know such a boy, please call his attention to this notice, and have him communicate with us at once, by telephone or in person.

J. ROSENTHAL

Ideal Weather for Shopping. An Ideal Place for Buying. A Happy Combination.

This week we are making some special inducements in several departments.

Wraps

An excellent line of up-to-date garments at figures that cannot be duplicated.

New additions to our line of . . .

Dress Goods

A big selection of new effects at small prices.

Carpets

The activity in our Carpet Department is not surprising. Here you will find a large stock of floor coverings, selected to suit the masses, and at prices to suit the most economical.

J. ROSENTHAL

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Mrs. Susie Daniel Towler.

The many friends of Mrs. Joe Towler were greatly shocked and deeply grieved to hear of her death which occurred Wednesday morning at Price's Infirmary, Philadelphia. Mrs. Towler, accompanied by Mr. Towler, went to Philadelphia about two weeks ago, to have an operation performed. After the surgical treatment Mr. Towler remained until his wife was able to sit up in bed some, and then being assured by Dr. Price that all danger was past, he returned home, arriving on the 3 o'clock train Wednesday morning.

About 9 o'clock a telegram came from Dr. Price announcing Mrs. Towler's sudden death from heart failure.

The remains will not reach here until Saturday morning at 3 o'clock. The funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, and the burial will be in Rose Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Towler was one of the most popular and beloved young women who has ever made her home in Columbia, and many hearts are heavy with an unutterable sadness at the sudden ending of her bright young life.

Young and cheery, pretty, bright and cordial, she numbered among her friends all classes and all ages. She enjoyed life and loved to live; and yet she was prepared for death, and not afraid to die.

To such an one the end is but the beginning; the sleep of the body but the resurrection of the soul. Parents, husband and child survive her, and how sadly she will be missed only hearts that have ached like theirs can tell. But with her all is well. Her sweet spirit will grow sweeter still through countless years of endless ages, while her frail, tired body is at rest.

Mrs. A. E. Williams.

Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Williams, wife of Dr. Williams and mother of Mrs. A. P. McFerrin, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, at the parsonage, from pneumonia. A beautifully impressive funeral service was held at the residence at 4 p. m. conducted by Revs. Jno. P. McFerrin, W. A. Province and A. S. Pettie. The casket was hidden beneath the mound of rich floral offerings, and at its head sat the aged and bereaved husband, who sang feelingly, as the choir did, "In the Christian's Home in Glory." The body was taken to Nashville on the evening train, where another service in memory of the dead was held, and the beloved one laid to rest in beautiful Mt. Olivet.

Mrs. Williams had been making her home with Mrs. McFerrin for some time, and had instilled herself into the hearts of those who had learned to know and love her. She had passed her three score and ten years, being 71 years of age. She was a mother in the truest and broadest sense. Her charity was proverbial and limited only to her ability. She was a Methodist, and ever lived a consistent Christian life, so when the summons came she was ready. Her patience and holy trust were an inspiration to those who watched over her dying bed. Just before the end came, she sang the chorale of "I'll soon be at home over there." At her request friends sang "In the Christian's Home in Glory," and before the echoes of the sweet refrain had died away she wearily sank to rest.

She leaves a husband, two daughters and a son, who, while they mourn her loss, smile through tears of sadness, for they know that "mother" is at rest, and they know where to find her.

Mrs. Alice Oakley.

Mrs. Alice Oakley, wife of Mr. Robert Oakley, near Theta, died Friday morning at 1 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at Mt. Zion, by Rev. J. W. Hatcher; burial at Lasting

Hope. Mrs. Oakley was forty years old, and was a good christian woman—one who will be sadly missed in the home, church and neighborhood. The friends of the deceased sympathize with the bereaved family.

Mr. William Hobbs died at his home near Campbell's Station Wednesday, of last week, after a spell of typhoid fever. The funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at the Christian church there, the services being conducted by Elder Slayden, of Columbia. Burial at Shane's graveyard.

Mr. Hobbs was 45 years old, and leaves a wife and seven children, who will sorely miss his kindly presence and strong arm in life's cares and struggles. They have many friends who sorrow with them in this dark hour.

Chiborne Lee, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Andrews, died Friday afternoon at the home of its parents on South Main street. The little fellow had not been well for some time, but his death was unexpected. The parents are deeply grieved over this affliction, and have the sympathy of every one. The funeral was conducted at the residence this morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. A. S. Pettie. Burial at Ross Hill.

Mr. Willis McCandless, who lived a few miles out on the Nashville pike, died Monday, aged sixty-two years. The burial took place Tuesday at Thompson Station. Mr. McCandless left a wife and several children who are deeply grieved over this affliction.

M. P. McRILL, DENTIST.

Office: Rooms 5-7, Masonic Building. Telephone, (Citizens') Office, No. 109; residence, No. 287. 4-7-1y

An Unfortunate Accident.