

Don't Let Your Hogs Die

with Cholera. The season is here now when this terrible disease makes wild ravages through the country destroying thousands of dollars worth of Hogs. Dr. Hess' Stock Food will keep them in a healthy condition, increase their weight, and enable them to safely combat disease. Get a 25c package and give it a trial. We are sole agents. Hess' Poultry Panacea makes hens lay. Price, 25c.

Red Cross Drug Store

WATSON & KIMZEY, Proprietors.

"First Aid to the Sick."

Phone 100.

Have You Tried

Sunshine Flour?

Ask your grocer for it.
NONE BETTER

Dahnke-Walker Milling Co.

Ask us for prices when selling your grain.

Curtice Brothers' CANNED GOODS

We have the exclusive sale of this line and now now have a complete assortment in stock. They're Eastern grown and Eastern packed, and we guarantee this line to be superior to anything ever handled in this city. They come to us direct from the canning plant at Rochester, New York.

Kin-Hee Coffee

Is another one of our brag lines, and it is giving perfect satisfaction. We sell it under a strict guarantee, and have never had a lot returned.

You will find our store headquarters for all the good things for the table during the Christmas Holidays

Two Phones--204 and 230

E. P. Grissom

Three Delivery Wagons

The Legislature Convenes In January.

THE NASHVILLE BANNER

Prints the Promptest, Fullest and Most Reliable Reports of the Legislative Proceedings

SPECIAL OFFER.

Remit one dollar for the Daily Banner four months by mail, and the paper will be sent to you free until January 1, 1907.

Subscribe To-day

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Lowney's canoes at Dahnke's.

Geo. P. Hurt, of Martin, was in the city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Craver are at home from Clinton, Ky.

John J. Cherry was down from Nashville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt visited Cairo Sunday.

W. B. Stovall, Esq., of Rives, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Currey returned Tuesday to her home in Carro, Ill.

Mrs. J. E. Finch returned Sunday from a visit to Kenton.

Miss Parks returned to her home in Paducah Tuesday morning.

Miss Wallace Smith, of Obion, is visiting Miss Allie May Little.

Fancy Vest display will be the next attraction at The Model.

Mrs. Oscar White is in Louisville for eye treatment by a noted oculist.

Mrs. Andrew L. Hurt returned last Sunday from a visit to Kenton.

Virgil Sherrill, the Paducah lumber dealer, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. Harry Threlkeld attended services Sunday from Woodland.

Attorney D. H. Burnett, of Tip-topville, was in the city this week.

Miss Ethie Williams, of Hickman, visited Mrs. Craddock Monday.

Miss Maggie Wise is engaged in photographic work at the Wallace studio.

If you want a piece of cut glass go to the Nailling-Keiser Hardware Company, successors to H. Dietzel.

Mrs. Chambers has been very ill the past week at her home on Main street.

Mr. M. Buchanan and daughter, Miss May, of Polk, were in the city Friday shopping.

Mrs. Dickson continues very ill this week. She has been very sick for several weeks.

Dr. J. F. McMichael will be in St. Louis until Saturday, when he returns to his office.

Fancy Vest display at The Model will be seen in the windows to-morrow and next week.

Booth Lowrey is the greatest humorist I have ever heard.—A. W. Stovall, Ex-Senator.

Booth Lowrey is every inch a king among men, in body, mind and soul.—Jackson Daily Whig.

Walter Phebus, now of Wickliffe, Ky., was in the city yesterday visiting home and friends.

Mrs. W. P. Pearson and son, Ira, of Martin, were in the city yesterday visiting and shopping.

Dr. Nailling left a handsome little boy with Mrs. Maud Curlin Thursday evening, the 15th.

Our wagon passes your door every day; or phone 109 for bread, cakes, fruits and everything good to eat.

Mrs. D. H. Little, who has been very sick for several weeks, was reported considerably better yesterday.

W. P. Skinner, of the firm of Williams & Skinner, grocers, was in Memphis Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Hilton returned to Union City Sunday evening, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Smith, near here.

Mrs. Alice Grable, of Henry, Tenn., is the guest of Prof. and Mrs. C. M. Mathis in the city this week.

Do you want to buy a Gift? Rochester Ware makes a useful present.—Nailling-Keiser Hardware Company, successors to H. Dietzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fope Herring have returned to town again to spend the winter. They reside on Fifth street.

If Booth Lowrey has a superior, I have never heard him.—Capt. S. A. Mynders, State Superintendent of Education.

Col. Roy W. Martin and Jno. M. Gardner, of Martin, were in the city this week, returning from a trip to Texas.

Capt. Wm. Askins has been suffering for several days with an aggravated case of eczema. He has been very sick.

Hardy Bros. & Hagnewood Co. will give away, Dec. 24, the handsomest doll ever brought to Union City. They tell all about it in their ad this week.

The Naples (N. Y.) Record says of Booth Lowrey: "He combines in full proportions the orator, the poet, the wit and impersonator."

The friends of Mrs. C. J. Watson will be pleased to know that she is able to sit up this week after a severe illness of several days.

Evangelist Smoot, the singer, arrived from Illinois this week and is now engaged with the pastors in the conduct of the union meeting.

Mr. J. J. Bean, of Lynchburg, is in the city the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Garner, and incidentally to look after political matters.

Watch The Model show windows next week for the finest display of Fancy Vests ever seen in Union City.

Mrs. Newton White, of Pulaski, and Mrs. T. N. Jones, of Columbia, are in Union City, the guests of Mrs. W. H. Gardner on Fifth street.

Rev. J. J. Castleberry has returned from Louisville, after a very successful series of evangelical services in that city, in which he was actively engaged.

Hardy Bros. & Hagnewood Co. will give away, Dec. 24, the handsomest doll ever brought to Union City. They tell all about it in their ad this week.

Mrs. Jno. W. Bransford was called to see her grandmother, Mrs. Bondurant, in Kentucky this week. Mrs. Bondurant was very sick with pneumonia.

Geo. W. Robinson and W. Edgar Hudgins paid a visit to St. Louis this week. While in that city they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Tomerlin.

You are invited to look at the newest things in parlor furniture, decorated centre tables and iron beds at Union City Hardware and Furniture Company.

Ex-Gov. Robt. L. Taylor says of Booth Lowrey: "Those who hear him go away with aching sides and tear-stained faces." At City High School, Monday night, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Josh Adams is able to be up, which is pleasant tidings to her many friends. Her eyes are not yet recovered, but Dr. Nailling thinks they will be all right soon.

Gospel services at the Presbyterian Church, north First street, on next Sabbath, the 25th, at 11 a. m. Subject, "Christ's Ascension." The public is cordially invited to attend.

Hardy Bros. & Hagnewood Co. will give away, Dec. 24, the handsomest doll ever brought to Union City. They tell all about it in their ad this week.

Mrs. Chas. Burchard is reported very much better this week. She began to improve the first of the week, and her many friends in the city are glad to know that her condition gives assurances of early recovery.

There will be services in St. James' Episcopal Church next Sunday, Nov. 25. Rev. R. W. Rhames will be here on Saturday. Holy communion will be celebrated at 10 a. m. There will be no evening service.

Dr. Turner has a number of new homes which he will sell at a bargain and on terms to suit the other fellow. Buy you a home and pay for it by the month.

Mrs. J. A. Hefley, who has been suffering with pneumonia for two weeks or more, was reported by her physician, Dr. Blanton, to be somewhat improved this week. This is pleasant news to the many friends the family.

Mrs. B. S. Richardson and little daughter, Nina, went to Cairo Monday and were joined there Tuesday by the former's sister, Mrs. W. S. McCaslin, and that night they left for Chicago, where Mrs. Richardson lives.

Get your cook and heating stoves at Union City Hardware and Furniture Company.

The Arkansas Leader says of Booth Lowrey: "His charming eloquence, sparkling wit and side-splitting humor are indescribable. He holds his audience spell-bound from start to finish, as completely as any man we have ever heard."

W. H. Gardner went to Helena, Ark., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Reeves. Russell Gardner and party, from St. Louis, will arrive on the Annie Russell and meet Mr. Gardner at Helena and he will return with them to Hickman on board the launch.

Everybody invited to attend the Demonstrations of Pure Food Products at Williams & Skinner's on Monday, Nov. 26, 1.30 to 9 p. m., and Tuesday, Nov. 27, 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

BON AIR COAL

Makes more heat than any Coal Mined in the South. You buy Coal by weight, you burn Coal by measure.

A ton of ordinary Coal measures 25 bushels. A ton of BON AIR Coal measures 26 1/4. The facts and figures prove conclusively that BON AIR is Best and Cheapest.

Place your order now and get Summer Rate which will certainly save you money. Sold only by UNION CITY ICE & COAL CO.

DISTRIBUTORS OF COMFORT.

We also carry a large supply of cheaper Coal and Seasoned Wood.

A LIVE AND LET LIVE SYSTEM

Beginning October 15 our store will be open from 6 o'clock a. m. to 7 o'clock p. m.

Wagons will run from 6:30 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m. (Saturdays from 6:30 a. m. to 8 p. m.) Two wagons—quick deliveries. Two phones—quick service. Early orders bring early deliveries.

We make Prices on CASH basis

Therefore we must make our terms weekly and monthly. Prompt settlements make long friends. Give us your trade and we will guarantee satisfaction. Persons indebted to us on old accounts will be expected to make their settlements by November 1st.

W. L. WHITE & BROTHER

Phones 66 and 462.

W. E. Walters

IS THE MAN---TELEPHONE HIM FOR Staple and Fancy GROCERIES AND PURE FRESH MILK

A Share of Your Patronage will be Appreciated--Prompt Service.

W. E. WALTERS

Telephone 421. Free Delivery

DR. WILL A. NAILLING, Physician and Surgeon.

OFFICE: Nailling's Corner, near Postoffice.

HOURS: { 9 to 10 a. m. 2 to 3 p. m. } Phone 41.

Dahnke's Cafe

Oysters, Fruits
Fine Candies
Finest Lunch Parlor
Hot and Cold Drinks

FAMOUS CREAM BREAD

Caterers for Club and Social Affairs
Orders receive prompt attention. Phone 109

DAHNIKE'S CAFE

UNION CITY, - TENNESSEE

WEST TENNESSEE MONUMENT CO.

GEO. B. WILLIS, General Manager

MONUMENTS

Dealers and Manufacturers of Marble and Granite
Cemetery Work Given Careful Attention.

Estimates given on plans for Building Stone, Sills, Lintels, Steps, &c.
Cemetery Curbing. Prices and Work Guaranteed Satisfactory.

UNION CITY, - - - TENN.

WINCHESTER

"NUBLACK"
Loaded Black Powder Shells
Shoot Strong and Evenly,
Are Sure Fire,
Will Stand Reloading.
They Always Get The Game.
For Sale Everywhere.