ELECTRIC RAILROAD.

Charter Filed for Line South from Paducah.

On the first page of The Commercial will be seen the announcement that a charter has been filed for an electric railroad running from Paducah to Hickman, via Mayfield, Fulton and Union City.

The charter provides for steam or electric road, but the purpose is to construct an electric road, running ultimately from St. Louis to the Gulf.

A citizen of Paducah was in Union City this week conferring with our citizens upon the subject with a view of promoting the enterprise. It took very little time for our representative men to assure the subscription of $50,000 in stock, payable when the road is completed.

This is one of the many enterprises of a similar kind which are now being promoted all over the United States, several of which are now in course of construction. One of these lines runs from Chicago to New York and the time estimated for the operation of trains between the two cities is 10 hours to make the trip. The quickest time made by steam roads is 18 hours.

We are informed that the power station question has been very much simplified. This has always been the barrier to electric lines. Stations were expensive on account of the number required and extensive outlay of same. Recent developments have made it possible to operate trains with stations not less than fifty miles apart and a much less expenditure in the construction of these stations.

A new railroad would not be very much advantage to Union City unless it traversed the western portion of the county. We have plenty of road track on the eastern and southern border. We need a road from Union City towards Reelfoot Lake in a southeasterly direction, and even a road of that kind with an excessive freight rate would not help us as much as a good, substantial and reliable public road. Fifty thousand dollars invested in a hard road from here to the lake which could be used for hauling at all times of the year would be worth more than a railroad at any rate of freight that would not pay a farmer to ship.

Use Sunshine Flour. None better.

The Infirmary.

An institution of which Union City people should be proud is the new infirmary, located on Church street. Several difficult operations have already been performed there and each has been successful from any standpoint. The building is not large enough to accommodate the number who have applied for admission, and quite a number of rooms will have to be built, when it will be strictly up-to-date in every way. The operating-room will be floored and ceiled on the sides and overhead with tiling, and the most modern appliances known to surgery will be installed. The infirmary, while private property, will be open to all physicians alike, and any one desiring attention can go there and call for any physician in the city or county. Miss Emma Bradford, one of the most skillful nurses of Nashville, is installed as head nurse, and she has already demonstrated her fitness for the responsible position she occupies.

The boarding department is first-class, and the air of cleanliness about the institution bespeaks volumes for its fitness for receiving the sick. Its success is an assured fact already.

Real Hooligan Coming.

Of the three great "hits" in caricature, Happy Hooligan, Buster Brown and the Brownies have outlived them all, and for all round fun Hooligan outclasses them all. His well meaning innocent interference in everything conceivable not at all his business gets him into so many scrapes it is with eagerness that we look hastily over our Sunday papers' funny pages to see and laugh again at Hooligan. The first and original comedy, Hooligan's Troubles, written to suit the character, by Mark E. Swan, is still creating fun in the best theatres of the country. The original number one company, presenting the original Hooligan, Arthur O. May; the original Freckles, handsome Grace Burgoyne, and the original all star company come to Reynolds Opera House Tuesday night, Feb. 5. The plot of this hilarious fun maker, Hooligan's Troubles, is consistent. There are twenty-one vaudeville and musical numbers in the program and an enjoyable evening is guaranteed all who attend.

Ralph Davis.

Ralph Davis, the cook at the Palace Hotel, died Wednesday morning, after an illness of about a year. About a year ago the old negro's wife died and he became ill a short time thereafter and has been gradually growing worse until he died. He cooked the first meal at the Hotel when built about fifteen years ago and has remained with Capt. Reynolds since. He was a faithful servant and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds thought a great deal of him. When he became ill they procured a room near the hotel and had his wants supplied and his food furnished from the Palace kitchen.

J. F. F.

Miss Mary Swiggart was the club's popular hostess at the deferred meeting last Friday afternoon. The entertainment took place at the Swiggart home on Main street. The game was whist and three prizes were given. Mrs. Aubrey Whipple won the first, which was a gold beaded purse. Miss Hazel Hardy was the recipient of the guest's prize in the form of a hand-painted plate. A beaded necklace for consolation was given to Miss Ella Whipple. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations and elaborate refreshments were served. In drawing for the consolation prize a tray of imitation fruit was served, filled with candy. In one of these a penny was deposited, and the player drawing the penny received the consolation.

Mrs. J. A. Whipple entertained the club this week. A number of guests were present as follows: Miss Ottilie May Williams, Mrs. Hunter Elam and Miss Hazel Hardy. The club game resulted in a draw for first prize between Mrs. Hunter Griffin and Mrs. R. M. Whipple, Mrs. Griffin winning. The consolation went to Mrs. Whipple. The refreshments were lovely and the occasion a delightful one.

Review Club.

The Review Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. C. Reynolds with only a few in attendance on account of the weather. The lesson was conducted by Mrs. Reynolds. Miss Gertrude Wallace is leader for next week. Until the weather gets better the club will continue to meet with Mrs. Reynolds.

Cunningham-Isbell.

Mr. Leslie Cunningham and Miss Mamie Isbell were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Isbell, near Woodland Mills, last Wednesday evening. Rev. Penick, of Martin, was the officiating minister.

Mr. Cunningham has been engaged in teaching in the public schools of the county, his last engagement being with the school at Clayton. He is a popular young man and a good teacher. He is a son of J. D. Cunningham, a very well known and influential citizen. Miss Isbell is also a descendant of one of the county's best families. She was a teacher too and a young lady of social prominence and charming character.

The couple are worthy indeed and congratulations are numerous.

Mrs. Hassler at Home.

Mrs. Henry Hassler gave a whist party last week on Thursday afternoon. The occasion was one of the same character so often enjoyed by Mrs. Hassler's friends. The home was attractive and its hospitality abounded in various ways. Three prizes were awarded. The first for the largest score was won by Mrs. L. S. Parks. The second was given for the greatest number of games and Mrs. R. M. Whipple was the captor. Mrs. Henry Dahnke won the consolation.

Wooden Anniversary.

Mrs. Josh Adams entertained a company of friends Wednesday afternoon, it being the fifth anniversary of her wedding. Quite a number of friends were present, who enjoyed the pleasure afforded at such a time. The host received a valuable collection of presents. During the afternoon a game of finch was played. There were decorations of an appropriate nature, and a delightful course of refreshments served.

The linen shower given by Miss Bessie Rowland yesterday afternoon in honor of her friend, Mrs. Arthur Scates, will be reported next week.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country fine-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.
