

BETWEEN US

When a man comes to us for Clothes, we expect him to have confidence in us and in our statements, and we mean to deserve such confidence. You may not think of it, but it does make a big difference to you who makes the clothes you wear, especially if the maker is willing to tell you what he makes them of—and how. Lots of men, in buying Clothes, are not half particular enough about quality; they will buy almost anything that looks stylish, and fits; especially if the price is low. That is wrong—Be sure first of the quality you are getting. Is it all wool? Is it well tailored? A price means nothing unless you know what you are getting for it. In this store we want you to know what you're getting for your money. We are not afraid to tell you, either. Ask if the goods are all wool; ask if they're tailored right; ask about style, wear—try the clothes on. Wherever you go this summer, or whoever you go with, you will not be ashamed of your clothes if you get them here.

We make a Special Feature of Young Men's Styles; they're right, too.

You'll find that we have the swellest line of Extra Trousers ever shown here. For a line on them take a look in the window. We have made a careful selection in our large line of Shirts for this season. Come in and look. Merchandising to-day is not merely keeping store and selling things, but selling things and keeping faith. TRY US. Every Article Guaranteed. Low Prices.

H. T. ROBINSON & SON

CLOTHING, SHOES, FURNISHING GOODS AND TAILORING.

CRONANVILLE.

Mrs. Linna Elliston, of Hayti, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kate Allison, and her mother, Mrs. Stephens.

Mrs. Emma Wright and children, of Texas, are visiting the families of R. A. and W. J. Cates and Mrs. R. M. Darnall.

How glad we are to see these hot, sunny days, for it is such that make our little cotton get up out of the clods and—grass.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Thos. Dublin and Master Erie spent Sunday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rrakin.

There was a game of ball pulled off Saturday evening at Darnall between the kid teams of Slough and Darnall, the Slough kids coming off victors.

Mr. Vernon Dunning and West Carnell, of Newbern, spent two or three days visiting relatives of the former in the vicinities of Lakeview, Slough and Darnall.

Mrs. Ida Ryan, of Du Queen, Ill., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Dave Holt, at Slough. Mrs. Holt is just able to be up some since being confined to her bed some ten weeks.

Mrs. Pennabaker, who ran her little steamer, Des Plaines, from Slough to New Madrid all last fall, has returned and is now running from Island No. 8 to New Madrid.

Charlie Boeckler, a negro, who was cutting timber in No. 9 Bottom, was killed Friday afternoon by a tree falling on him. He was killed instantly and horribly mangled.

Mr. Houston Jones and family have removed to Rlytheville, Ark., where he has a position as engineer for a lumber company. We are sorry to lose them from our community.

Will T. Estes, who is doing quite a lot of carpenter work about the place of Dr. Ed Keity, at Bessie, spent Saturday evening and Sunday morning at home, coming and returning on the Des Plaines.

Farmers are getting along nicely at present with their crops. After planting the second, and some the third time, there is nearly a full stand of cotton, but it is about five weeks behind. Perhaps we may pull around the rapids all o. k.

Mr. Joe Estes and brother, Will, have returned from Mayfield, Ky., where they had been to visit their father, who is, or was, in very bad health. He was considerably improved at the time of their return.

Arthur Hopson, Clifton Cates, Craig Cates, Miss Mable Craig and Miss Jallie Downing are all home from school, and all from different institutions. All, however, save Arthur Hopsor, attended Tennessee schools—he attended a Missouri school.

The Hopson Brothers have begun the construction of their new $8,000 gin, which is being built just north of their mammoth store. It will be a custom gin and is the result of the combine here last fall. The gins in operation gave no one an opportunity to gin their cotton until nearly all the crop had been disposed of, and people were forced to sell at about half price. Mr. Hopson is under contract with a number of our planters to gin for them and lay seed and lint on their gin yard—not on the river—at $3.75 per bale of five hundred pounds. Last season, it cost $5 per bale and 20 cents for banking. We see a chance now to realize something this year.

I was anxious to see from what point "Sylvan" would hail, and behold, it is Hickman! That is only twenty-four miles, and I may soon meet her. UNCLE BILDAD.

Eggs at Half Price.
I will sell eggs during the summer months from my fine strain of Buff Plymouth Rocks at 75c for 15.

MRS. S. E. ROSSON,
R. F. D. No. 4, Kenton, Tenn.

Warning.
I hereby serve notice on parents or guardians that boys who have been trespassing on my pond or premises must be kept off. If this notice is disregarded, I will be compelled to have the Sheriff arrest all boys trespassing as aforesaid.
June 15, 1907. JOE HERRING.

YOUR SUMMER TRIP.
Let me help you plan it. I may be able to make a suggestion that will save you money. Write for Summer Folder describing resorts in the Tennessee mountains, including Monticello, Sevierville, Beechboro Springs, Estill Springs, Pleasant Springs, Hot Aquas Springs, and many others. If you are going to the Jamestown Exposition write for Jamestown folder. Liberal stopovers allowed.

PREMONT.

Pete Clack, who has been very sick, is better.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Buster Hawkins last week, a boy.

Charlie Caldwell and family visited relatives at Troy Saturday night.

Rev. Garrison filled his appointment here at the schoolhouse Sunday afternoon.

Ollie Nichols and family, of Troy, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Caldwell.

Mr. Sam Bassett and bride, of Cronanville, arrived here Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Downing, of Hornbeak, paid a recent visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cloar.

Mrs. B. G. Glover visited her son, J. L. Glover and family, at Clayton, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones, of Bessie, were here last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins.

Miss Hester Grainger has returned to her home at Paris, after a pleasant week's stay with Misses Murdie and Inez Cloar.

Miss Dee Glover, who is attending the Institute at McKenzie, will begin her fourth year's school work here the second Monday in July. We hope the children will all be ready for school the first day, and try to make this the best school we have ever had.

The Antioch Sunday-school is preparing to celebrate the Fourth of July with a grand Sunday-school rally and picnic on the Antioch church ground. Everybody is requested to come and bring your dinner, as there won't be any free dinner. There will be refreshments served on the grounds.

J. Matt Morris.

The announcement of the death of Mr. J. Matt Morris, which occurred Sunday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock at his home on Eddings street, in Fulton, brought sorrow to the hearts of a large circle of friends by whom he was held in high esteem.

J. Matt Morris was born in Foster ville, near Bellbuckle, Tenn., on February 16, 1832, and in 1837 moved with his parents to the Mt. Rose neighborhood, Obion County, about four miles west of Fulton. Mr. Morris was married to Miss Mary Ligon in 1857, and still lived in Obion County until twelve years ago, when he and his wife moved to Fulton, where they lived happily until her death, since when he has prayed to die. Mr. Morris' death was due to general debility and silent grief.

The deceased had been a member of the Masonic order and a devoted member of the Christian Church for the past thirty-five years, and was always in active service until his health failed.

Mr. Morris was the second son of a family of nine children. The only surviving one is R. P. Morris, of Union City, who is seventy-three years of age and enjoying excellent health. Mr. Will Morris, the oldest brother, died last January in his seventy-ninth year. This family is noted for longevity.

The deceased is also survived by one son, N. B. Morris, and one daughter, Mrs. Samuel McCall, and two grandchildren, J. Matt Morris, Jr., and McCall Morris, of this city.

By this death Fulton loses one of her oldest and best known citizens, having lived in and near Fulton since five years of age, and during these years had endeared himself to a large circle of friends, for whom he had always a good word.

The services were held at the residence, attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives. Services were conducted by Rev. J. Clarence Read, of the Christian Church, after which the long procession wended its way to City Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. The many beautiful floral offerings coming from Fulton and other towns attest the love cherished for Mr. Morris.

The pall bearers were W. W. Morris, J. S. Murphey, W. K. Hall, Herbert Carr, Sam McCall and W. C. Ligon—Fulton Leader.

BRONCHIAL TROUBLES

Readily Yield to Soothing, Healing Treatment of Hy-o-mel.

Bronchial troubles are purely local. They cannot be helped by stomach dosing. They are caused by irritation in the air passages and can be relieved and cured by medicated air alone. In this lies the secret of the great success of Hy-o-mel in the treatment of bronchial troubles.

The first breath of Hy-o-mel's medicated air soothes the inflammation, stops the cough, and relief soon becomes permanent and a cure results.

Hy-o-mel has made many remarkable cures in the worst and most chronic forms of bronchial troubles and is sold by the Red Cross Pharmacy with the same guarantee as they give when Hy-o-mel is purchased for catarrh, that is, to refund the money in case the remedy does not give satisfaction. The complete outfit costs but $1.00.

The Great Racine.

In one fashion the elements are kind in California. Save in the mountains there is no thunder and lightning, and man and beast, native of the sunny land, have no knowledge from physical fact of the existence of the artillery of the gods. Hence it was that Racine once glorified himself, though he was a fearsome horse when he ran into dollars and fame.

Racine was a bay, bred at Palo Alto, near San Francisco, by the late Senator Stanford. He was the best horse of his day in his own State, and of a quality to do battle with the fastest of the East. Thomas H. Williams thought Racine worthy the best of the land, and he leased Racine for a campaign on the Eastern and Middle Western courses. In course Racine came to famous old Washington Park at Chicago, a track where annually gathered mighty thoroughbreds for the running of the American Derby and other rich stakes.
