Overcoats At Factory Prices Not Even Freight Added

We're always on the lookout for pick-ups and when Strouse Bros., makers of the famous "High-Art Clothing," advised us that they would take stock November 1st and wanted to close out their entire stock before that time, we took advantage of our opportunity and secured some of the season's choicest garments at prices that enable us to offer them at original factory prices. You cannot fully realize just what a snap this is until you have seen the goods, and you had better come early before the stock is exhausted. You'll find in this lot of coats just what you want in style, weave and quality.

Overcoats usually sold at $18.50 up to $25.00, now offered at $13.50 up to 18.50

We're Overstocked on Raincoats Here's Your Chance for a Substantial Saving

We bought heavily on raincoats for this season and thus far, on account of the prevailing warm weather, our sales have been disappointing and we are in danger of having a number of garments left at end of season unless we cut the prices deep at once. The cold days are coming and it behooves you to make your selection now while the stock is unbroken and at its best. We positively guarantee our prices and qualities. If after you make a purchase you are dissatisfied, we will cheerfully refund your money. Just compare our offerings and we'll feel safe concerning your decision.
