CONFERENCE AT HUMBOLDT.

Preliminary Exercises and Services in Progress.

Humboldt, Tenn., Nov. 17.—Numerous Methodists arrived on every train this morning with the hope of hearing Bishop E. R. Hendrix preach at 11 o'clock at the Methodist Church. A full hour before the appointed time, however, every vacant seat in the large church was taken and scores were disappointed. The Bishop's great sermon was one as is heard in Humboldt probably twice in a century.

Rev. W. E. Thompson, of Central Church, Memphis, preached a great sermon at 11 o'clock to an audience of 500 people—the seating capacity of the house—and a number also failed to gain admittance into the church. At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church Dr. W. T. Bolling, of Broadway Church, Paducah, delivered a characteristically strong address to an audience that filled the house to overflowing.

Dr. J. H. Stevenson, of Nashville, preached at the Presbytorian Church; Rev. J. W. Waters at the Christian Church and Rev. E. L. Smith at the C. M. E. Church at 11 o'clock.

Among the big lay delegates to Memphis Conference whose faces have been often seen in Humboldt during the past five days are Editor Jack Reeves, of the Hardeman Free Press; Hon. W. S. Coulter, of Dyer; Judge R. Bond, of Brownsville; Hon. T. B. King and John R. Pepper, of Memphis, and Jerry Porter, of Clinton.

"It doesn't matter how much money a Methodist preacher takes to annual Conference, he always goes away broke," was the remark of a prominent lay delegate, upon witnessing a collection being taken up for some charitable purpose. He was right; the preachers almost run over each other to give their money to any cause that bears the earmark of worthiness, and there may be a rich preacher and a poor one the first day of Conference, but the two leave it on an equality.

At the anniversary of the Board of Education of the Memphis Conference last night, Dr. Collins Denny, of Vanderbilt University, made a notable address in which he impressed upon his hearers the value of helping the youth to form a high ideal.

Following are some extracts from Bishop Hendricks' address:

Selfishness is the bridge where man goes back to the animal; self-sacrifice, the wings whereby he flies back to heaven. Friendship of man is stronger than friendship of woman. Of man it is the friendship of the high reason—of women the friendship of the laborer. Of man it is the friendship of the battlefield—of women the friendship of the home.
