Charley Cloyes Drowned.

Charley Cloyes was drowned in the river at Pocahontas, while he was with other young men were in the river. He was a son of Rev. A. C. Cloyes, who was here at the time and Mrs. Cloyes being at the home of Dr. J. W. Johnson. News of the sad affair was brought to them an hour or so after the body was found. When Cloyes was down he called for help and it was thought that he was suddenly stricken with cramps. Help did not reach him in time and he sank. A search for the body was made by dragging the river in the morning. The body was found Sunday morning. They were a professional searchers there Monday morning. The search was engaged in by the business at Pocahontas. They were having purchased Avery Brothers in that city. He was well known as a man who had a host of friends. He formerly clerked in the B. Avera in this city. He was a young man and a social and business man at Pocahontas.

One of the great misfortunes was received here. His wife was in bed sick at the time. He was ill for some weeks. He was to get up and around the house. He was recovering very slowly. Mrs. Cloyes, notwithstanding his feeble condition, left Tuesday night for Pocahontas. Paragould (Ark.) Democrat. Deceased was once a resident and has a number of relatives near this city.

Starved to Death. It is what could truthfully be said of many children who die. They have worms, poor little things—they don't know it and you don't realize it. If your child is cross, fretful, pasty complexioned and loses weight for no apparent reason, give it White's Cream Vermifuge, you will be surprised at the results and how quickly it picks up.
