Gone to Jackson.

J. R. Thompson, formerly proprietor of the park drug store in this city, who sold some time since, went to Jackson this week to fill the position of prescriptionist and salesman for the Jackson Drug Company, one of the leading drug houses at Jackson. Mrs. Thompson and little son are at present located in Metropolis, Ill. Mr. Thompson was one of our best druggists and citizens and we trust he may find the change both pleasant and profitable.

All jockeys have special days for trading, viz: First Mondays, etc., but Robinson, Bransford & Co. are one price and give bargains every day; therefore they have no special days.

Will Attend Father's Funeral.

C. F. Dahnke received a telegram this morning from Nashville, Ill., to the effect that his stepfather, Mr. William Kaufman, died at that place to-day and would be buried to-morrow. Mr. Kaufman, who was about 78 years of age, had been ill for a long time and his death had been expected for some time. He had been a citizen of Nashville for many years and is survived by a wife and several several grown children besides his stepsons.

Mr. Dahnke will leave to-day to attend the funeral and will be joined near Cairo, by his brother, Geo. Dahnke, of Union City, who will accompany him to Nashville.—Fulton Leader, Nov. 13.

Death of Mrs. Carr.

Calista Duvila Carr was born June 2, 1833, died November 12, 1905, age 72 years 4 months and 22 days. She was married to J. D. Kerley in August, 1858. They were blessed with six children, three boys and three girls and only one boy and two girls survive the father and mother. Two years ago the father was laid to rest and on his death bed said, "Liss, I am going to rest; Heaven is my home and it won't be long until you will follow me."

She professed religion at an early date and united with the Methodist Church, being a member until a sufferer for more than two years with heart trouble and dropsy and prayed for the hour to come to release her from pain. She said, "Grieve not, my dear children: I am going to rest; meet me in the sweet bye and bye."

The funeral took place Monday, services being conducted by the Rev. Sam Wynn.

Return to Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Spradlin leave this week for Del Rio, Tex., to spend the winter. They were in Texas last year and so much pleased with the climate and country that they were induced to return. Next spring they will be back to Union City again.

You'll be happy when you break in our double soled leather lined shoes. You needn't break 'em in though for they fit right away and are a dressy walking shoe. Robinson, Bransford & Co. One Price.

Second Crop of Apples.

Judge Morris left us a couple of second-crop June apples last week, which were raised on his farm near Hickman. The apples were about as large as a wild plum, smooth and very well matured. They are the second growth this year.

A Small Fire.

One of Mr. C. E. Cobb's houses near Scates' grocery store caught fire last Saturday, originating from the burning out of the flue. Very little damage was done. The flame was soon extinguished.

The Frosty Mit was never a knit proposition. Knit gloves go with the Glad Hand—in frosty weather. Knit gloves, 25c to $1, at the One Price store.

The Survivor of the Fittest.

My friend from Arkansas, which will be seen at the Reynolds Opera House Monday night, November 20, is the final survivor of more than twenty of the so-called rural plays offered the public during the last six years. It is natural to presume that this is because the great public, the final arbiters of all things in this country, have given My friend from Arkansas a higher place in their estimation than all the others combined and paid more than a million dollars to prove their opinion of its merits.

Attorney F. W. Moore was last week retained as local attorney of the M. & O. R. R. Co. Mr. Moore held this position before his recent retirement from law practice.

James Russell, son of Mr. J. H. Russell, of the country near Gibbs, who has been very sick of typhoid fever for three or four weeks, is recovering, so his father informs us.

Andy Totten, colored, was badly crippled at the Hardy Grain Company's mill last week. The palm of his left hand was lacerated in a very serious way while operating the machinery.

Mr. W. A. Taylor, of Kenton, is the latest recruit to Coble & Clagett Company's sales force. Mr. Taylor is employed in the dry goods department. He is a good man and the company's interest will be much advanced by his work.

The Presiding Elder, Rev. Baskerville, Rev. McCoy, Rev. Wynn and Mr. Fry went to Mayfield this week to be present during the meeting of Annual Conference. As soon as the list of appointments are announced they will be published in this paper.

Arthur Norton and family, who have been located at Moorehouse, Mo., for some time, have moved back to the country near Spout Spring on Reelfoot Lake. Obion and the prospects of this country look better to Mr. Norton than those of Missouri. He will probably buy a farm and settle here permanently.

Mr. M. N. Walker, train dispatcher for the Cotton Belt road at Mt. Pleasant, Texas, was in the city the first of the week visiting his uncle, T. F. Stubbs. The Commercial regrets to learn that Mr. Walker's wife died a few weeks ago of consumption. She had visited in Union City and was known and loved by quite a number of friends.

Esq. T. J. Ogilvie, of Obion, was in the city Monday returning from a visit to his son at Brownsville. This gentleman, who is one of the of the staunchest and most reliable Democrats in the county, has been mentioned as a probable candidate for the State Senate to represent this group of counties in the General Assembly. Mr. Ogilvie informs us, however, that he has no intention of entering a contest for the honor. He would relish the privilege of representing Obion County in the Senate for the reason that he thinks it the best county in the State and believes he has some ideas if molded into laws would be of great advantage to the county, but does not care to make an aggressive canvass.

Watch the Label.

If you are a subscriber to The Commercial your name is printed on a little yellow label. On this label is printed the date to which your subscription is paid. Look it up and if you have the paper anything we want the amount may be small, but a hundred small amounts mean big results. The Commercial appreciates your patronage, but if you will attend to this matter to-day the favor will be doubly appreciated.

Dangerous Accident.

Little Helen, baby daughter of Mrs. Cordie Garth, had her right hand and face accidentally burned last week. She threw some paper into the grate and pieces dropping on the hearth set fire to her skirt. The top skirt was thin and burned all the way up to her chin, which was badly blistered. Her hand was badly burned. The accident might have been fatal but for the help of her older sister, Jeanie, who made quick work of smothering the flames. The underskirt was of wool and that was scorched all over the front. A fender was in use, but this was moved by the little girl.

The way is hewn for the most careful buyer. 'Tis mid-fall and the best things have proven their value. Still a good lot here to select from. Don't wait too long, however. Robinson, Bransford & Co. One Price.

AMERICAN SLAVES.

Red Cross Pharmacy's Emancipation Act that Will Free Thousands.

Red Cross Pharmacy, Union City's leading druggists, are ready to restore freedom to many who have been in absolute slavery.

No one appreciates better than the victim of indigestion that he is an abject slave to his stomach, and the Red Cross Pharmacy, in guaranteeing that M-i-o-na will strengthen the stomach so that you can eat what you want and when you want it, removes all fear of further bondage.

The stomach is to the body what the foundation is to the house, and when it is weakened or diseased, one organ after another is affected until the heart, lungs, kidneys and liver will all be involved. Indigestion causes nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, backaches, distress after eating, furred tongue, and general weakness and debility.

M-i-o-na is not a mere temporary relief for indigestion, but a positive remedy for all stomach troubles, promoting good digestion, stimulating the secretions, and restoring health.

Ask the Red Cross Pharmacy to show you the guarantee under which it sells M-i-o-na. A large box of the tablets sells for 50 cents, but costs nothing unless it cures.
