Mrs. Nannie J. Wood.

Monday morning between the hours of five and six God sent his message to the sick chamber of Mrs. Fannie J. Wood, and in its flight it bore her gentle spirit to its heavenly home above.

God has taken from us a kind loving and patient mother and dear friend only to be transplanted in a far more grand and brighter home which is prepared for God's children only.

For the past six years no one knew but she and her Master how great was her suffering, and as long as I have known her I never heard her express one murmur of her misfortunes, of the life of an invalid, and often have I sought her sick room to be met and greeted always with cheerful heart. No one could tell what her feelings were, for seemingly she was happy. Her smiling face was her greeting of welcome, and how often have I thought if she in all her afflictions could be so happy and gather so many sweets from her life of suffering—how could we who are so blessed with good health and such happy environments, almost free from care—how could we be so selfish as to murmur when she had so many afflictions and bore them so lovingly, so long and so patiently? How great must her reward in Heaven be. God saw she needed rest and he called her to his world where no sorrow, no pain and no trouble can blight her life.

Mrs. Wood, as I knew her for the past three years, was a pure Christian woman. Twenty years ago she professed her faith in Christ and had since been a true and devoted member of the Baptist Church. She was laid to rest Tuesday at Shady Grove Cemetery, Rev. Newbill preaching her funeral.

She leaves one sister, Mrs. Fannie Faulks, of Hickman, and three children, Leake, Raymond and Lena to mourn their loss. A FRIEND.

League Conference.

The Memphis Conference Epworth League will hold a League Conference in Union City May 13-16. A more extensive announcement will appear later.

League Conference.

The Executive Committee of the Memphis Epworth League Conference met in Humboldt Saturday, Jan. 30. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. H. L. Dishon, and after a short devotional exercise the date for the next League Conference was discussed. We decided to have the Conference May 13-15, inclusive, at Union City (the place for meeting having been settled at our last Conference). We have arranged a very interesting and attractive program and are expecting to have some very able and inspiring speakers with us. The Conference will begin Thursday night, May 13, with a reception given by the local chapter. Most of Friday will be devoted to addresses on the different departments, and on Saturday the vice-presidents and superintendents of the departments will have some institute work. We want to make Sunday the best day of the whole Conference. On that day we are to gather up the fragments and feast on the good things that we have received.

Card of Thanks.

To those who kindly assisted us in the hour of trouble with tender hands and healing words we acknowledge from hearts overflowing with gratitude, trusting that He who watches over all will visit you with abundant blessings.
