

A Pretty Church Wedding.

At the First Methodist Episcopal Church at the corner of Eighth and Center Streets in Little Rock, Ark., on the afternoon of Wednesday, June 9th, at three o'clock sharp, a very pretty ring ceremony was used to solemnize the marriage rites between Miss Eleanor Irene Keiser, of Little Rock, and Rev. William Alpheus Swift D. D., of the Little Rock Conference. Rev. T. E. Sharp pastor in charge officiated. The music for the occasion was excellently rendered by Mrs. Jabine, the regular organist.

The ushers for the occasion were Rev. Buchler, Mr. Pearl Douglas, Mr. Quinby and Mr. Pressley Fields. Preceded by the relatives and members of the bride's family, the bride and groom came up the aisle in step with the strains of Lohengrin's march.

During the impressive ceremony the soft notes of Schubert's Serenade were sweetly blended with the words which made them one; after which the full rich chords of Mendelssohn's Wedding March ushered them out into the sunshine of that rare June day to the awaiting carriages amid showers of rice and loving congratulations.

The church was decorated with palms and cut flowers in white and green. The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of mode colored cloth with a touch of old rose on the hat to match and she carried a sheaf of bride roses and maiden hair ferns.

Rev. and Mrs. Swift left at once for Memphis, attending the Confederate Reunion and from thence to their native State, Kentucky, visiting Mammoth Cave and stopping with relatives and friends of the groom for a few days, making a special visit to his parents at the old home. Rev. and Mrs. Swift will be at home after July 1, at Mena, Ark., a very pretty town well situated in the western part of the State and conference.

Many beautiful presents were received: Cut glass, silverware, hand painted china, rugs, etc., some of the handsomest being a tray of silver spoons mounted with the badge of the Theta Delta Theta Sorority of Vanderbilt University, of which Miss Irene has long been an efficient officer, and a handsome silver water set given by some of the members of Asbury church over which Rev. Swift had held a four years' itinerary.

This marriage is the result of an introduction received on the board the good ship Grosser Kurfurst five years ago while with a number of friends on a trip to the Holy Land and tributaries of the Mediterranean Sea.

Among the friends and relatives present were: Mrs. G. Leslie Eminizer and daughter, Pauline, of Greenville, Miss., Mr. Jas. F. Kieser and daughter Alice Irene, of Rogers, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Luten, Miss Cantie Mai Luten, Master Waymon Luten, Louise and Mabel Luten, of Union City, Tenn.—Mena Exchange.

The Unveiling.

The Woodmen of the World conducted unveiling ceremonies last Sunday in memory of the late W. I. Davis, of the Seventh District, this county. The monument was erected over the remains at East View. A number of visiting sovereigns were in the city and marched with Reelfoot Camp No. 19 from the lodge hall to East View Cemetery. The ceremonies were conducted by the local lodge team, assisted by Beech Camp No. 271, led by Council Commander C. L. Andrews. Rev. Hudgins was the orator of the day, delivering a very strong address in behalf of the work of the order and the life of deceased. A very large number of people were assembled at the unveiling, including sovereigns and others and witnessed a very impressive service.

Nagle-Lunsford.

A pretty home wedding of interest took place June 10, when Mr. L. K. Nagle, a popular young business man of Columbus Ky., led to the hymenial altar Miss Allie Lunsford, one of Union City's fairest daughters. The wedding took place at the Lunsford home, No. 3 Northwest Lee street, in the presence of a number of invited guests. Rev. Castleberry, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating. The groom is well and favorably known in the city, being a nephew of our townsman, Mr. Geo. Nagle, and is to be congratulated in winning Miss Allie for his life-long companion.

Memorial Fund.

A call has been made upon all county committees to forward the Carmack Memorial Fund to headquarters by July 1. The State-wide Prohibition law goes into effect at that time, and the committee desires that all the subscriptions to the fund be turned in, so that the event may be celebrated by the purchase of a suitable monument to be erected to the memory of Edward Ward Carmack. Let everyone of the committees turn in all that they can before that time to D. P. Caldwell, this city, that it may be forwarded to Col. A. M. Shook, Nashville, Tenn.

DeGraffenreid-Knott.

H. M. DeGraffenreid, of this city, and Miss Margaret E. Knott were united in marriage at the quarters of the bride, 1200 South Eighteenth street, St. Louis, last Wednesday morning, June 9, the minister solemnizing the sacred rites being Rev. Wainwright, a St. Louis pastor.

Mrs. DeGraffenreid was a resident of this city for a number of months, at the home of Mr. Moody, and here the young people met. Mr. DeGraffenreid is the general manager of Dahnke's Cafe, a young gentleman of excellent character and business standing, popularly known and esteemed. The bride is a young woman of graces and accomplishments and both are warmly congratulated on this occasion. Mr. and Mrs. DeGraffenreid are temporarily residing at the home of Mrs. M. V. DeGraffenreid.
