

School Books and School Supplies

We are the authorized State Depository for Public School Books. Old books taken in exchange for new. Call on us for your books, tablets, pencils and all supplies.

Red Cross Drug Store

East Main St. H. M. OLIVER, Prop. Telephone 100

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Hugh Barr, wife of the well known Dresden Mayor and attorney, was in the city this week as a guest of Mrs. W. H. Swiggart at home on Main street.

Mr. Sam Hunsaker is in the city with his family. Mr. Hunsaker and family will after a few months move to Mr. Russell Gardner's hunting preserves in Arkansas.

Use Dahanko-Walker Milling Co. Jersey Cream Flour, a home product, and guaranteed.

Messena Clark, one of our Union City boys, left this week for Baldwin, Miss., where he is now employed as regular train dispatcher. His many friends here wish him success.

A fishing and hunting crowd composed of J. A. Morgan, John O'Donnell, Hugh Quill, John and Clifford Joyner, Douglas Walker, Hugh and John Harris returned from the lake Thursday.

Mrs. Norwood, of Jackson, State Superintendent of Sunday Schools, was in the city this week in the interest of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Norwood went from here to Greenfield to address the meetings at that place.

Don't indefinitely put off having your picture made simply because you can only do so on Sunday. Make an appointment for any night in the week. 34th Southworth, the Photographer.

Rev. Newbill was presented with an eighteen dollar overcoat and a five dollar hat last week by the lady members of his church. It can be inferred from this fact that they wish very much for his return from Conference.

A wonderful play containing rare touches of nature with bright comedy interspersed is "Meadow-Brook Farm," to be seen at Reynolds Opera House on Monday night, Nov. 15, with an excellent company headed by Lou Streeter.

We are sorry to hear of the continued illness of Mrs. Lon Henderson. Hope she will soon be restored to health. The good people are anxiously awaiting Miss Ethel's return to take up her school work at Crittendon Grove. Miss Ethel is with her mother.

Mr. Bob Wade escorted the following party hickorynut hunting down to the river bottom on Wednesday of last week: Misses Angie and Annie Phibus, Kenna Compton, Addie Palmer, Ruth Wiley, Lizzie Stitt, Leiron Bonner, Martha Wade, Mayme Calhoun, Mesdames John Joyner, Sam Woosley and Leslie Wiley.

RONEY ITEMS.

Mrs. Sutton is ill of fever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tucker were in Troy Monday.

Mrs. Dark, of Arkansas, is Mrs. Logan Moultrie's guest.

Mrs. Willie Ann Stevens, of Hickman, is visiting relatives here.

Jas. Calhoun and wife were visitors in Ebenezer neighborhood Sunday.

The surprise social musicale at Esq. Lee's Saturday eve was a success.

Miss Miller, of Martin, is the welcome guest of Miss Lula Lee this week.

William Prather is all smiles. It is a fine boy which has called to remain.

Mrs. Kuykendall and Miss Miller were in Samburg Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ida Kuykendall chaperoned a crowd on a hickory nut hunt last Friday.

J. C. Lee and Miss Lula paid a visit to relatives at Mason last Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Reeves has moved out to the old Reeves farm. We are glad to have Frank with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, of Dyersburg, were the welcome guests of W. A. Lee's family last week.

Miss Zettie Ingram, after a three weeks' visit to her parents, will return to Colorado in a few days.

R. L. Aaron was called to his son's bedside in Number Ten last Saturday. When he arrived he found the boy ill of typhoid. We trust he will soon improve.

Now that November is here and the harvest moon is shining overhead, and fruits of field, orchard and vineyard have been gathered in, the farmer can rest from his labor, and with the fruits of his toil jingling in his pocket can face the winter months without fear or misgiving. Providence has blessed our land again with another bountiful harvest. LADDIE.

PLEASANT HILL.

Mrs. Leiron Callis spent last week in Number Seven.

Many from here attended preaching at Whiteside Sabbath.

The rain interfered very much with the corn gathering this week.

Rev. Burgess Cunningham preached a good sermon here last Sunday.

Mr. Wiley Lewis, of Kenton, is visiting relatives near here this week.

Friends from Number Seven were the guests of Mrs. Jim Callis Sabbath.

Miss Mayme Calhoun was the guest of Miss Dora Callicott Sabbath last.

A crowd from this neighborhood went to Rives serenading last Saturday night.

Many from near here were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Arnold Saturday night.

Many from here attended the party at the home of Mrs. Julian Corbett Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Collom were the guests of Mrs. Sarah Callis Saturday night and Sunday. MAYFLOWER.

Cut the coal bill half in two by buying a Cole's Hot Blast Heater. Nailing-Keiser Hardware Co.

RIVES NEWS.

Mrs. E. N. White is at home from Kenton.

Miss Aletha Bonner made a business trip to Union City Wednesday.

Miss Edna Clark and little niece, May Caudle, spent Sunday at Halls.

Mesdames Dell Harper and Ora Pyles were week-end guests of Mrs. Wilford Farris.

Miss Hattie Mai Clemmons and Mrs. Meta Crenshaw went down to Obion Tuesday.

Edgar Botts, of Obion, was a guest of his parents on Home street the first of the week.

Mr. Will McNeill, our Mayor, has returned from a business trip through Mississippi.

Mrs. Knox Harper and children have returned from a visit with relatives in Union City.

The dainty Misses Kitchell spent the week in the country with their aunt, Mrs. Harry Webster.

Cesar Palmer and sister, Miss Addie, of Union City, visited relatives south of town Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. E. H. White, R. S. Harper, O. H. Clemmons, Frank Caldwell, Knox Harper, Edgar Shore, Knox and Horace Wade returned from a two weeks' outing on Reelfoot Thursday.

As the lecture Friday night by Mr. Robertson, a friend of our principal, on the pertinent theme of "The Ups and Downs of Farm Life" is for the library fund, may we all be in evidence.

Last Friday the principal and assistants of our school chaperoned the students on a day's outing in the woods. To some this would seem as a day lost, but not so, for the closer we commune with God in nature the cleaner and more exalted our brain power.

Saturday afternoon Misses Kathryn and Mary Emma Dickey entertained from 2 until 5 o'clock. An elaborate fruit course was served at 4 o'clock, with place favors of autumn leaves each initiated with that of some guest, being the open sesame for finding their respective places at the festive board. ANNA MARIA.

G. A. Nagle has opened a new feed store and stable on First street. Call him up. Phone 544.

SAMBURG.

CITY REPORTER AT THE LAKE.

Tom Pettus has a very sick daughter. Mrs. Nannie Dean is sick with typhoid fever.

Miss Mattie Lyons was here shopping Thursday.

Mr. Callicott, of Martin, was a visitor here Friday.

Samburg has a flourishing Woodman of the World lodge.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Branham Monday, a 9-pound girl.

Miss Nannie Hutchcraft is recovering from a spell of slow fever.

Mr. John Robinson and family, of McConnell, are camping in the park.

John Milliken is erecting a new cottage fronting the lake, for Albert Wallace.

Nick Long, of Union City, has brought over a number of people the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. McGeehee, of Martin, are enjoying camp life in Shaw's Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner left for Martin Friday, after camping in the park several days.

Mrs. Flowers and a party of friends, from Obion, spent the day at the lake Sunday.

Mrs. Cochran (Cohorn), of Murphysboro, Ill., is the guest of her son, John Cochran.

H. A. Gamons, wife and daughter, of Trenton, spent Thursday and Friday at the park.

Messrs. Jake Gibbs and Ben Howard, of Union City, were among the visitors here this week.

Dick Scott and wife spent the past week here. Mr. Scott bagged 20 ducks the first day he was out.

The little baby at Branham's is the owner of a new phonograph, a present from Penn Stubblefield.

Mr. Ed Milner, wife and son stopped over Thursday night en route to Gardner from Caruthersville, Mo.

Mr. John Boone, of this place, is at Proteumus this week putting up a new cottage for John McAnalla.

The Lee School opened last Monday with quite a number of pupils, with Miss Lula Lee, of Hornbeak, as teacher.

Mr. Price and daughter, of St. Louis, left for their home Thursday via Obion. Mr. Price left with several hundred ducks.

Farris Burke can be found every Friday in Samburg, much to the comfort of the hunting folks who want a shave before going home.

R. B. Green and wife and little daughter, Willo, are guests at the Pratt House, Milliken street. Mr. Green has had two days of good shooting.

A camping party of six, Messrs. John Adams, Gregory, Bynum, Hubbs, Verline, Jernigan, left for their home in Union City Friday morning, after several days hunting and fishing here.

NUMBER SEVEN.

Miss Cora Crittendon visited in Martin last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Laster are happy over the arrival of a new boy.

Miss Cordie Crittendon spent Sunday night with Miss Birtrice McSpadden.

The farmers appreciated the nice little rain that fell last Saturday and Monday.

Quite a number of people passed through en route to Reelfoot Lake Sunday.

There was a large congregation at the Baptist Church at Mount Pelia last Sunday.

Several of our people enjoyed the day Monday hickorynut hunting in the river bottom.

Mrs. Coleman, of Mount Pelia, is visiting her mother in Middle Tennessee this week.

An exchange of visits has been common for the past two weeks and makes us feel brotherly and neighborly.

Mr. Baily Stovall and his new wife will make their future home with Mrs. Stovall's mother, Mrs. Tina House.

Mr. Albert Duncan, of our vicinity, has purchased the home of R. J. Jackson, of Mount Pelia. We wish him success.

In the busy rush of life I always find a time to reflect over the past and endeavor again to inscribe a few jottings for the dear old Commercial.

I wish to correct a mistake that was published in week-before-last issue. Rev. Seals, of Paris, will preach at the Primitive Baptist Church on Fourth Sunday, Nov. 28 instead of Oct. 31.

Mr. Walker Grubb caught the largest opossum this week that has ever been caught in Number Seven. The people of this neighborhood say they will be glad when the opossums are all caught, and then perhaps the boys will be through holloing and everybody can sleep. DAISY.

Christmas, 1909, Will Soon be Here

Only Six More Saturdays

Our Christmas goods are here and we will be glad to show you. We want to urge upon our customers the advantage of early buying. Pick out your gifts now and have them engraved and laid away, then you wont be disappointed by not getting what you want when you want it. We have one of the best selections we have ever had

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Diamonds, Silverware, Silver Novelties, Cut-Glass, Hand-Painted China and Gold-Handled Umbrellas

We have a fine selection of Diamonds, bought before the rise--stones from $7.50 to $325.00. We have a large line of popular priced novelties as well as handsome gifts. Satisfaction guaranteed. Please bring in your repair work before December, as it will be almost impossible to get the work out after Dec. 10.

Phone 89 and get the Correct Time

BRANSFORD & ANDREWS

The Dependable Jewelers and Optometrists.

If you see anything in anybody's catalogue that we haven't got let us know and we will get it at the same price.

When Doing Concrete Work

SPECIFY

T. L. Bransford & Sons
Exclusive Agents.

JORDAN.

Mr. J. M. Glenn was sick last week. He is much better.

Mrs. Amanda McMurry is visiting her sister in Missouri.

Mrs. W. A. Shuck spent last week in Union City with relatives.

Mr. Fred Bondurant, who has been attending school at Dresden, has returned home.

Mr. Earl Drysdale, of Fulton, spent Thursday night at the home of Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Shuck.

Miss Jane McConnell attended the teacher's institute Saturday at Edmiston schoolhouse and spent the night in Union City.

Mrs. C. V. McDaniel and Miss Louise McConnell returned Friday from a pleasant visit to New Madrid, Mo., and Blytheville, Ark.

Miss Pearl Johnson, of Cayce, who has lately returned from Portland, Oreg., where she has been in school the past two years, is the guest of Miss Louise McConnell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Alexander entertained the young people Monday night in honor of their nephew, Mr. Marshall Alexander, of Point Pleasant, Mo., who was here on a visit to relatives. KENTUCKY.

Carmack Shot Year Ago.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—One year ago to-day Senator Edward Ward Carmack was shot to death on the streets of this city by Col. Duncan Cooper and his son, Robin Cooper, who were convicted and sentenced to twenty years each in the State prison, and whose case is now before the Supreme Court on an appeal.

Carmack anniversary services are being held at Columbia, Tenn., this afternoon, and a large party of the admirers of the dead statesman went there to-day to place flowers on his grave.

The local W. C. T. U. also held exercises to-day in memory of Mr. Carmack's death.

WANTED.

Raw Furs Raw Furs Raw Furs Raw Furs

We, the undersigned, have opened a branch house here to handle the following goods and will pay highest market prices at all times:

Old Iron Rags Rubber Metals Beef Hides
Horse Hides Wool Pelts Furs

Come and bring your goods at once while the prices are good. Our office and fur house is on East Harrison street, near the Decoy Duck Factory. Telephone No. 541.

PAUL TICK'S FUR & JUNK COMPANY

PAUL TICK, Manager

Union City, Tenn.

You Can Never Tell

How far a frog can jump
by looking at him

Some times you can't judge the quality of a basket of Groceries by just looking at them.

When you get them from us and they fail to come up to your every expectation, you just step to the telephone (we have two), confer a favor by telling us and one of our wagons (we have three) will just call and get them and return your money.

That's just about as tight as we know how to obligate ourselves. If we could command language to compose a stronger guarantee, we would give it to you.

The strongest is none too strong for us, and the best Groceries is none too good for you.

GROCERIES, BOTH STAPLE AND FANCY
GOLD-STORAGE MEATS
PRODUCE FRUITS CANDIES

All guaranteed. Phone us a trial order. We deliver.
No order too small. No order too large.

E. P. GRISSOM

The Commercial belongs to no trust or combination, but it generally manages to "get there." Beats 'em all on job printing.