(Successors to H. T. Robinson)

UNION CITY, TENN.

Death of Mrs. W. A. Forester.

Mrs. Priscilla Francis Forester, wife of Mr. W. A. Forester, died at her home Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. She has been in bad health for several months but had been confined to her room for the last few months with dropsy.

Mrs. Forester was a Miss Lewis. She was born in Hickman County, near Centerville, Tenn., and was married to Mr. Forester on Dec. 13, 1865. They moved to this county in 1884. Mrs. Forester was aged 62 years and 12 days. She leaves a husband and six children which are Mrs. E. M. Stone, Mrs. V. D. McCord, Mrs. Ben Bransford, Messrs. Dallas, Mark and Dock Forester; one sister, Mrs. Sarah Allen, of this city; one brother, Frank Lewis, of Camden, Tenn.; a step-mother and five half-sisters and a half-brother to mourn her death.

Mrs. Forester was a member of the M. E. Church, joining when she was quite young, and was a true Christian woman and has lived a devoted mother and a faithful wife. She was a woman whom every one loved who knew her.

Services were conducted at the home by Bro. Stuart and Bro. Oliver Friday at 2 o'clock p. m. and the remains were interred in East View Cemetery at 3:30.

For Assault and Battery.

Tuesday night in front of his grocery store, Home and Gibbs streets, northeast, J. A. Ragsdale was assaulted and badly used up, sustaining severe cuts and bruises on the head, and Wednesday Rome Clark, a citizen of that part of town, was arrested for being a party to the act. The parties were arraigned before the Mayor yesterday morning, with Lannon and Stanfield representing Mr. Ragsdale and R. A. Pierce representing Mr. Clark.

The charge was felonious assault and battery. Mr. Ragsdale was examined before noon and a recess taken until afternoon.

Big Sheds Destroyed.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 13.—Three big corn sheds at Shuck Switell, four miles east of here, were completely destroyed by fire Saturday night. The flames were discovered a few minutes after the night train passed. The sheds were valued at about $505, and belonged to the Woodland Grain Company. There was no insurance.

Overall Factory.

Mr. Rice, of Martin, was in the city again last Tuesday night and met with the Commercial Club. The overall proposition was brought up again, and the committee reported that about $3,000 stock had been subscribed. The subscription asked for was $8,000, or $5,000 paid up. Sever present at the meeting increased their subscription and others subscribed. Still there was considerable discrepancy.

Mr. Coble and Mr. Carter both stated that they had not finished the canvass, and Mr. Coble thought that more subscriptions could be secured.

It is an enterprise that would contribute in many ways to Union City's growth. It is of such character that the freight rate cuts very little figure and therefore Union City has as many advantages to offer in location as any other point. She has better advantages in many ways. An overall factory is a practical enterprise. Overalls and jumpers are a staple. Every clothing merchant handles them. They are sold everywhere. There are no advantages to be derived by buying overalls in a city, and therefore we can manufacture and sell overalls as well as any point in the world.

Mr. Rice is a practical man, and the company has arranged to have a well known business man at the head of the concern. Union City people are therefore protected against any ordinary risk in investing their money. This balance should be made up and the enterprise should be started at once.

It would not do at all to let this opportunity fall through. The cotton gin and the cannery are both the best of successes, and the overall factory stock will sell for a profit in a few months, if started. There is practically nothing to lose with local men and good men in charge.

Get together and finish the subscriptions. It behooves the city to do this and get after many more small enterprises. We need them. Remember the manager proposes to take a large per cent of the stock and the city is asked for only a portion of the capital.

Everything new and fresh at R. S. Godwin's new grocery. Phone 78.

RONEY.

We are having beautiful weather and everybody is hustling, picking cotton, sowing wheat and gathering corn.

Quite a crowd of our young people went to the Lake Saturday. They report a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frank, nee Kuykendall, little son and daughter left Sunday to join Mr. Frank in Memphis, where they will make their future home.

We are glad to say that Mrs. W. J. Tucker is convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cashen and little son were visitors at W. J. Tucker's last Sunday.

Messrs. William Lee, Wash, James and Parris Calhoun spent the greater portion of last week prospecting over western lands.

CAMPGROUND.

Mr. John Stone and family and Mrs. Jane Beard are spending several days at Reelfoot Lake.

Mr. John Barnes made a business trip to Newbern Monday.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Howell Sunday were Mrs. John Howell, of Middle Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Howell, of near Troy, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Thompson, of near Mason Hall.

Miss Lena Douglass visited her uncle, T. C. Word, a few days last week. Mr. Jesse Goodman and Miss Birdie Brown, Mr. Jesse Young and Miss Mary Butram drove to Union City Saturday and were quietly married.

Miss Beulah Mae Stone spent several days of this week with Miss Ellen Barnes.

Several from here attended the debate at Moriah Saturday night. The subject was "Which is More Useful, Wood or Iron?"

Mrs. John Barnes visited with Mrs. Emma Calhoun Monday afternoon.

Messrs. Kirk Brown and Frank Bright were guests of Mrs. Bird Cox Sunday.

Cotton Gin.

The Union City cotton gin has been running day and night for some time. Cotton has been coming in from all sections. Missouri has ferried across the Mississippi and sent us several loads. Mr. Pittman, the manager, is still paying the highest prices received for cotton in this country and it is coming in from everywhere.

We speak of the Union City cotton gin. Ordinarily this is a matter of small importance in a cotton country, but this is not a cotton country, and that is why it deserves more than the usual interest. The prices prevailing here for several days have been $4.90 and $5.00. The best quality has been bringing $5.00 right along, and that means the bulk of the cotton brought here.

Union City is growing to be a cotton market, and the news is spreading. Nothing like it to give us a good boost. The next best thing is to cinch the overall factory, invite more factories and let's quit politics and go to doing business, which is of some value to us locally. Hurrah for the cotton gin.

Hon. Luke Lea Coming.

D. P. Caldwell asks us to announce that Luke Lea, of the Nashville, Tennessee, will certainly be here next Saturday (to-morrow) and will speak at the opera house at 1 o'clock.

Johnny and Ella.

Manager Reynolds has been giving the patrons of the opera house this week an attractive offering in the shape of a musical melange and scenic production. The music was good, the dancing fine, and the comedy better. It is a far better show than seen here by the same company some years ago. The "Bell Boy" was Monday night's bill, Tuesday night "The Man Question," and Wednesday night "Zira from Turkey." Each one of the attractions was provided with special scenery. The Red Mill and the lady taking a voyage in a balloon around the audience Tuesday night were the features in the scenic equipment and they were first-class in every respect. The audiences were not large, but those present enjoyed the entertainment immensely.

The Galvin show is managed by the elder Galvin, who has been in the theatrical line for fifty years. Johnny and Ella are his son and daughter, and the whole enterprise is one of the best of its kind, a very great improvement over their shows here before.

Married.

Mr. Walter Whipple and Miss Fay Hampton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Sunday afternoon, Esq. Theo. Ferrell officiating.
