Carlton-Gooch.

Dr. J. D. Carlton, of this city, and Miss Curry Gooch, daughter of Mrs. Clara Olive Gooch, of Sturgis, Ky., were quietly married at the office and infirmary of Dr. G. C. Savage in Nashville on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Oct. 23, 1910. The ceremony was said by Rev. R. M. Inlow, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Nashville.

The wedding was a surprise to quite a number of friends of the bride and groom in Nashville. Mrs. Gooch was temporarily located in Nashville while her daughter was studying music at Ward's Seminary, and the wedding was announced to take place some time later, but arrangements were made for the event during Dr. Carlton's recent visit in Nashville.

Only a few immediate relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony, among whom were Drs. Savage, Price and Doak. The bride wore a brown tailored suit, and very charming she appeared in the little circle of choice friends.

After the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Carlton left for the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlton, parents of the groom, in Murfreesboro, Tenn., remaining for a week as guests of relatives and friends. Last Sunday they arrived in Union City, accompanied by Mrs. Gooch, to their new home on First street.

Mrs. Carlton is a talented musician and was engaged in preparation for teaching. She is also a lady of pleasing personality, very high in the esteem of her friends at home and in Nashville.

Dr. Carlton is a native of Murfreesboro and was associated with Dr. Savage in Nashville for three years in the practice of his profession. He is now established in Union City as an oculist and optician with a very flattering demand upon his services.

The Union City friends congratulated and welcome the bride and groom.

Entertained by Mrs. Waddell.

The Home Mission Society, with the president, Mrs. W. H. Swiggart, in the chair, convened at the residence of Mrs. Seid Waddell. The meeting was the usual fifth Monday social, and was in honor of Mrs. Waddell's mother, one of the members.

In this elegant suburban home the society was the recipient of the lovely hospitality of Mrs. Waddell and family. Bro. Sellers opened with prayer, followed by a scripture verse from each member present. Mrs. Harris presided at the piano and played several beautiful accompaniments. A daughter of Mr. Steve Harris favored us with two delightful solos, and every one applauded her tiny sister, who recited a very taking little piece. The readings by Mrs. Wagoner and Miss Mary Lawson were particularly enjoyed. Mrs. Blanton read an exquisite piece. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Sellers. Mrs. Waddell then took charge and regaled the assembled company with the most delicious refreshments.

It has been asked, "For what does the Home Mission Society stand?" It stands for all the noble and good things a woman can do. To wipe the tears from the eyes of the dependent orphan, a smile of cheer to the lonely. It has aided in building one-half of all our parsonages and is giving Christian education to more than 600 mountain boys and girls, more than 600 Cubans, more than 50 fallen girls, more than 50 homeless, unprotected girls, carries on city mission work in 28 different cities. It costs $1.45 for active membership; $1.00 for honorary membership. Total amount of collections for 1910, $508,296.80; members, 95,022; all grades of mission work with cost of maintenance, $42,770.68.

"Miss Nancy."

Dainty and petite Daisy Cameron, formerly leading lady or star with "Little Dollie Dimples," "Piff, Puff, Pouff," "De Wolf Hooper," "The Tenderloin," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "The Bostonians," "Savage Grand Opera Company," "The Normandy Wedding," "Foxy Quiller," etc., is coming to us in a brand new four-act comedy from the pen of the eminent young author, C. Herbert Kerr, who wrote "Dollie Dimples," "Over the Fence," "A Trip to Egypt," "The Beauty Doctor," "The Reformers," "Rudolph and Adolph," "Papa's Baby," etc. The title of the new play is "Nancy," and the character is that of a little country miss, simple but good. The play abounds in comedy situations, and the dialogue is amusing throughout. It will be presented at Reynolds Opera House one night only, Friday, November 4.

Miss Cameron's great soprano voice will be heard in several high-class numbers written especially for the production, and she will be ably supported by a company of artists, direct from New York City.

Greater Youth's Companion.

Since its enlargement by the addition of an amount of reading in the year equal to four hundred ordinary magazine pages, the Youth's Companion can offer even a wider range of wholesome entertainment than ever before; but the character of the paper's contents remains the same, and the subscription price, $1.75, is unchanged.

Every boy will eagerly look for the articles on skill in sports and pastimes and how to develop it.

The girls will find many novel and practical suggestions which will be helpful in their daily life.

This reading is all in addition to the ordinary treasury of stories, articles by celebrated men and women, the un-equated miscellany, the invaluable doctor's article, the terse notes on what is going on in all fields of human activity.

It will cost you nothing to send for the beautiful Announcement of "The Companion for 1911," and we will send with it sample copies of the paper.

Seaside Oyster Dishes

This is the name of our new book which gives many shore receipts, unknown inland. Every housewife is welcome to a copy at our store.

We are handling only Sealshipt Oysters this year. We are registered agents of the Sealshipt Oyster System.

Sealshipt Oysters Straight from the Oyster Beds Under Seal

This means that the oysters are placed in air-tight containers right at the seashore, immediately sealed and shipped straight to us. The ice is packed around the containers on the outside. No ice or water in the containers—just solid oysters. The oysters retain all the true oyster flavor—the real tang of the sea.

When they reach our store they are placed in a cleanly white and blue porcelain Sealshiptcase, used by all licensed agents under contract.

Remember in buying Sealshipt Oysters you need only half as many as you do of common oysters which are half "liquor," or melted railroad ice. Once you try Sealshipt Oysters, you will agree that our strongest claims are justified.
