Storm Party.

One of the merriest holiday parties was a number of Mrs. William Walden's friends calling on her last Friday evening. Music, cards and good cheer were very much enjoyed, as were the delightful refreshments. Upon departure each one expressed themselves as having enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent and wished Mr. and Mrs. Walden a joyous cruise on the matrimonial sea.

Six O'Clock Dinner.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Prieto was the scene of much merriment Tuesday evening. A number of friends were invited in pretty compliment to Mrs. J. D. Hubbs, of Mayfield, Ky. The entire house was decorated with a lavish supply of Christmas greenery and Christmas bells. The red and green color motif was beautifully carried out in the beautifully decorated six o'clock dinner, consisting of six delightful courses. A pleasing evening was some music delightfully rendered by Mrs. Hubbs. This was one of the most enjoyable holiday parties.

Hubbs.

Mrs. Hubbs entertained Wednesday evening complimentary to Mrs. J. D. Hubbs, of Mayfield, Ky. A number of presents were welcome to her old home and to her Merry Christmas. The delightful character of the evening was as are all of Miss Hubbs' affairs, was a beautiful and enjoyable affair.

Honoree.

Mrs. Hubbs was beautifully entertained Friday evening with an affair at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Penick, on Exchange street. A large number of friends were present to wish her many happy returns on her birthday. Great boughs of evergreen were elaborately decorated with chimes of crimson bells hung from archway, over mantles, and through the entire house. The parlors were decorated in poise. In the dining room the table had centerpiece a large cake containing...

"Lame Leg Well"

"I wish to say that I have used Sloan's Liniment on a lame leg that has troubled me much for six months. It was so bad that I had to walk sometimes for a few days. I tried doctors' medicine and a rubber bandage for my leg, but I thought everything that I could do. At last I was persuaded to try Sloan's Liniment. The first time I used it, and in two days it was well."—A. L. Hunter, Ala.

ing red tapers and the figures 16 in fancy icing, the cutting of which afforded much glee to those drawing the ring, money, thimble, etc. An immense hoop, fringed with rows of crimson bells, hung with long red streamers from the chandelier. These bells were given as souvenirs, and each contained a fortune and good wish for 1911. The ices were served in fancy red cups with red cherries on top to repeat the dominant crimson color note. The birthday register was kept by Miss Harriette Beckham, and Miss May Hunter Flack and Mr. Pratt Waddell were given prizes for the best written wishes. All departed at a late hour declaring the occasion the prettiest in plan of the entire holiday season. The out-of-town guests were Mr. Robert Salmon, of Columbus, Ky.; Misses Flack, Littleton, and Mr. Hal Davis, of Nashville.

Heflin-Woodfin.

A wedding which came as a surprise to the people was that of Miss Essye Woodfin and Mr. J. B. Heflin, which occurred on Sunday evening, Dec. 26, 1910, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Woodfin, Rev. Carman officiating. The attendants were Misses Elsie Woodfin, Allie Heflin, and Messrs. Wayne Mansfield and Dennis Payne. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the bride were present. While it was known to Miss Woodfin's family that the marriage would occur in the spring they were surprised to learn that she had consented to have the ceremony performed during her visit to homefolks. She returned on January 1 to her school south of Martin. The people there think Miss Essye a good teacher and could not afford to give her up. We extend congratulations.

Meadows-Pigue.

Munsey M. Pigue, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Publishing House, and Miss Bess Louise Meadows of Dresden, Tenn., were married at the home of the groom's brother, W. W. Pigue, 704 McGavock street, last night, Rev. John H. Shumaker officiating. Miss Meadows eluded her parents at Dresden by feigning a visit to Gleason, Tenn., the wedding following immediately on her arrival in Nashville. The bride is a daughter of Charles Meadows of Dresden, while the groom is a son of Rev. R. H. Pigue of Fulton, Ky. Mr. Pigue has some note as a baseball player, being a member of the Northeastern Arkansas League. He played with the Caruthersville, Mo., pennant-winning team last year, and has a contract with a Dallas, Tex., team for the coming season.

A Pretty Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in Prescott, was that last night when Miss Vernon Alice Caldwell, of this city, became the wife of Charles Robert Miller, of Hugo, Oklahoma. At 7.30 o'clock last evening the First Baptist Church was filled to overflowing with friends of the bridal couple. Just before the entrance of the bridal couple, the sweet voiced singer, Mrs. Clifton Arnold, sang "I Want You Only." Mrs. John C. White presided at the organ and to the sweet strains of the wedding march the bride entered the front door and the groom at the same time entered the back door. They met in front of the altar and the solemn words were spoken by Rev. T. B. Johnson, of Texarkana, that pronounced them man and wife. The bride wore a dress of dutchess satin over messelene with pearl trimmings, a veil and real orange blossoms. She carried bride's roses with a shower of lilies of the valley and maiden hair ferns. The gift from the groom was a beautiful diamond and pearl LaValliere.

The maids were Miss Mary White and Miss Betsy Hinton. The matron was Mrs. O. W. Hanna. The groomsmen were Mr. King, of Hugo, and Mr. Perry Martin, of Hope. The ushers were Messrs. John Dorris and Ivan Caldwell, of Ark. News. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, formerly of this city, and is very kindly remembered.

ing and evening—a communion service at the morning hour. Miss Willie Belle Mayes has been delightfully entertaining with a house party at her home on Main street during the holidays. Her house guests are Misses Mabel and Claire Littleton, Irene Davis, Mary Hunter Flack and Rubye Littleton, all of Nashville.

Misses Willie Belle and Katherine Mayes, with their house guests of the week and Messrs. Geo. Gibbs, Elbridge McDaniel and W. D. Hazelbaker, enjoyed an oyster supper Tuesday night.

Miss Mary Wallace Haydon entertained most charmingly last Friday evening in honor of Miss Rubye Littleton, of Nashville. Several contests appropriate to the season were enjoyed by those present and a delightful salad and ice course was served.

Misses Willie Belle and Katherine Mayes gave an automobile drive for their guests last Saturday afternoon, using the Dietzel touring car.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mayes on Main street was thrown open Saturday night for a watch party, which was greatly enjoyed by the young people. Misses Willie Belle and Katherine received with their house guests, and those attending were Misses Ada Moffett, Deila Reeves, Mary Wallace Haydon, Mary Andrews and Genevieve Nailling; Messrs. W. D. Hazelbaker, of Dyersburg; Gaskins, of Muskogee, Okla.; Walter Dodd, Will H. Swiggart, Erwin Bransford, of Arkansas, Morris Hawes, Geo. Gibbs, Elbridge McDaniel, Earl Barney, Harry Harper and Fred Cloyes. Cards and music were the feature of the occasion, after which a most delightful salad and ice course was served. The party then joined in watching the old year out and dispersed with many good wishes of the occasion for their kind hostesses.

Messrs. W. D. Hazelbaker, of Dyersburg; Will Reid, of Covington; Erwin Bransford, of Arkansas, and Hugh Ed Curlin, of Hickman, have been in the city the past week to participate in the house party given by Miss Willie Belle Mayes.

Visitor Honored. Mrs. C. O. McGee entertained in honor of Mrs. Oscar Turner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Massengill. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The refreshments were delightful. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with games and music.

New Years Dinner. Miss Mary Ranson gave an elegant six o'clock dinner to a number of girl friends.

For the New Year the magnificent display now offered at Ben Dietzel's jewelry store offers very exceptional attractions. We pride ourselves upon the exquisite beauty and artistic charm shown in the design, settings and mountings, and we are sure that never before have diamonds, pearls, gems and other precious stones been so attractively exhibited to lovers of fine jewelry.

Death of Mrs. Tomerlin. Mrs. Anne Byrns, wife of W. G. Tomerlin, this city, died on Monday, Jan. 2, at 12:45 p. m., after a short illness.

Mrs. Tomerlin was born Nov. 10, 1854, and was married to Mr. Tomerlin, his second wife, in Robertson County about twenty-five years ago. There were no children born from this union, but three stepsons are left with one of the kindest of husbands to honor her memory. Mrs. Tomerlin was the daughter of John Byrns, of Robertson County, and leaves two brothers at Cedar Hill, Messrs. Bascom and Wellington Byrns. Deceased was a member of the Methodist Church and a life-long Christian, a woman of the highest and purest character, devoted to loved ones and friends, esteemed by everyone and her name is registered in the Book of Remembrance, a sweet and sacred legacy to all. Services were held at the residence by Rev. Sellers and the remains were interred at East View.

Dr. T. H. Turner. The remains of Dr. T. H. Turner, one of the older citizens of Obion County, were shipped to this city from Greenwood, Miss., for burial, arriving Wednesday, accompanied by his son, Thomas, with whom he resided. Dr. Turner died in the Kings Daughters Hospital, Greenwood, of acute nephritis.

Dr. Thomas Henry Turner was born and reared near Medina, Tenn., at the time of his death aged 78 years, 3 months and 9 days. Dr. Turner was educated at McMoresville and graduated in medicine in Philadelphia in 1859, practicing with success until the war broke out, when he became an Army Surgeon in the Confederacy under General Forrest. He served through the war with a record of the highest character. Dr. Turner was married in 1863 to Miss Sallie N. Williams, a sister of Mrs. J. H. McDowell. Three children were born, of whom Thomas is the only survivor. Dr. Turner leaves a sister, Mrs. Emily Barnett, and a brother at Bremond, Texas.

Fifteen years ago Dr. Turner and family settled in Obion County. Dr. Turner served the county as Clerk of the Circuit Court and otherwise became known as one of our strongest and best citizens. He was a Mason, a member of the K. of P. order and a Christian affiliating with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. His character was tall and broad and strong and as clean as the sunlight of the fairest day. He was born and bred a man and lived to honor the name. Truth, honor, integrity, generosity and the highest type of citizenship were exemplified to the highest degree in his life, and he passed away leaving to the world the greatest earthly heritage, a good name and a blessing to mankind. The remains were laid to rest at East View by the side of his companion whose death occurred some years ago.

In Memoriam. There comes to all of us on the death of a dear and life long friend the happiness and feelings of bygone years.

"Fond memory sheds the light of other days around us; The smiles, the tears of childhood years, The words of love then spoken, The eyes that shone now dimmed and gone, The cheerful hearts now broken." These memories and feelings prompt me to write a few words of love and respect in memory of a very dear friend, Mrs. Katie Lee Berry, who died at her home in Woodland Mills, Tenn., Dec. 15, 1910.

Mrs. Berry was born in Owen County, Ky., and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Berry. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a most excellent housekeeper, patient, industrious, economical, thrifty and thorough; tasteful and kind. Her death was a great loss to her family and friends. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at East View, Tenn., on Dec. 17, 1910.
