Society.....

Mrs. Clifford Jones Entertains.

The ladies of the First Christian Church were entertained in the home of Mrs. Clifford Jones Monday afternoon. After devotional exercises, a most delicious menu was beautifully served.

The Co-Workers Circle.

The members of the Co-Workers Circle of the C. P. Church met at the home of Mrs. E. O. Milliken on North Third street Monday afternoon. These meetings are always pleasing, helpful and instructive.

New Church Members Entertained.

Quite a unique entertainment was given by the ladies of the First Christian Church at the parsonage on the evening of the 27th ult., complimentary to the new church members.

Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. Chas. Borchard surprised her mother, Mrs. F. Y. White, by inviting a number of Mrs. White's old-time friends to enjoy an elaborate 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday at 6 p. m.

Surprise Wedding.

It was stated in last week's of The Commercial that Miss Bess Coleman had returned to Malden after a visit with homefolks here; but Miss Coleman was met at Cairo, Ill., and in the presence of a few friends married to Mr. Loring Cordry, formerly of Malden, Mo., but now in business at St. Louis. A letter immediately followed this marriage to Miss Coleman's mother, Mrs. Mollie Coleman, announcing the fact. It was known by the relatives that the marriage would take place in March, therefore came as a great surprise. Many friends here congratulate Mr. Cordry in winning one of Obion County's fairest daughters.

Mrs. Kirkland Entertains.

Mrs. Ed Kirkland entertained last Thursday afternoon in a very charming manner. The home was decorated in holly. Miss Mary Turner presented each arrival with a carnation. Rook was the party game and Miss Minnie Pardue won first prize, a cut-glass bowl. Miss Mayme Worley cut for the consultation and won a fern dish. The refreshments were in two courses and very delightful.

Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Seid Waddell delightfully entertained a large number of their friends at their beautiful home last Friday night, in honor of the Union City dormitory boys. The colors, purple and white, were carried out during the features of the entire evening. Many games were enjoyed, and the contest was won by Miss Ruth Caldwell, receiving the girl's prize, a box of candy, and Mr. Ruby Smith the boy's prize, also a box of candy. Delicious refreshments, consisting of cream and cake, were served. The crowd left at a late hour voting Mr. and Mrs. Waddell ideal entertainers. The hospitality was enjoyed by Misses Margaret Whitson, Dorothy Beck, Theresa Arm, Lorene Waddell, Reba Wrather, Jessie Gibbs, Virginia Swiggart, Ruth McConnell, Grace Caldwell, Stella Williams, Marie Lockhart, Ruth Caldwell, Elaine Mitchell, Helen Verhine, Gladys Raymer, Ruby Mayes, Olive Lane, Annie Laurie Caldwell, Clara Luten, Annie Laurie Griffin, Myra Nash, and Messrs. Cecil Thomas, Wood Taylor, Grover Wilson, Richard Honeycutt, Fred Key, Darrah Waddell, Will Chism, Ruben Smith, Earl Lancaster, Clifton Fields, Pierce Caruthers, Joe Buford, Joe Mosely Scott, Ben Welch, Frank Key, Pratt Waddell, James Brice, Leslie Johnson, Jack Williams, George Pindle, Dewitt Caruthers. A GUEST.

Miles-Willis.
John Miles, of Kenton, and Miss Anna Willis were married in this city last Saturday, H. S. Sacra, Esq., officiating. The bride is a daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Geo. B. Willis, a worthy young lady, and the friends extend congratulations.

McCullough-Noah.
Mr. Elbert McCullough and Miss Alice Noah, of this city, were united in marriage on the 26th ult., Rev. J. F. Stuart officiating. The young lady is a daughter of T. P. Noah, and was for some time with Mrs. Arm in the millinery store, popularly esteemed by numbers of friends, while the groom is engaged with Mr. Craig in tailoring and has numbers of friends. They are the recipients of congratulations.

Hawes-Peacock.
Mr. Webe Hawes, of this city, and Miss Nellie Beth Peacock were quietly married yesterday morning at Obion. The young lady is a popular Lake County favorite and the young man is popular in this city with numbers of friends.

FOR SALE.—My home, 516 East Church street, house with 6 rooms, reception hall and hot and cold water attachments. Mrs. A. C. BROWN, Union City, Tenn.

Medical Society.

The Obion County Medical Society met last Monday afternoon at the Elks Home. The meeting was devoted principally to the annual election of officers. Dr. J. F. Darnell, of Obion, was elected president; Dr. J. J. Wells, Glass, vice president; Dr. D. J. P. Father, secretary-treasurer; Dr. D. C. Maddox, censor. Dr. Maddox was received as a member of the society at this meeting. No papers were presented for discussion, and for that reason the meeting was brief. A program committee was appointed with the names of Drs. Blanton, Pierce and Matlock. The next meeting will be held at Obion in April.

Church Services.

Rev. L. G. Landenberger, of St. Louis, will begin a series of sermons on the Tabernacle next Sunday morning, Feb. 5, in the New Church House of Worship. The subject at 11 a. m. will be: "The Outer Court, the Holy Place, the Holy of Holies; or the three planes of the nature of man of whom the structure is a type." The second service will be held at 3 p. m. and will be on "The Lord's Providence over the passing away of Children and the ministrations they receive in the other life." The Holy Supper will be celebrated at the morning meeting and all christians are invited to unite with us in the service.

Nichols Plumbing Co.

The papers have been filed with Register Chapel for charter incorporating the Nichols Plumbing Co. A. B. Nichols is at the head of the concern and the company will include the names of three others. The capital stock is $6,000, with $5,000 paid up. The company when organized will increase their stock of supplies and enlarge their quarters. Union City will probably need a great deal of plumbing in a short time.

Church Notice.

Cumberland Presbyterian Church Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. At the morning hour the subject will be "Elijah's Sinful Flight." The evening hour will be a popular hour. Song service will precede a twenty-minute sermon. These songs will be old-time songs and everyone will join in the service. All will be cordially welcome.
