Benton McMillin.

Aroused to action under the Hon. T. R. Preston's criticism of his stand regarding the State refunding debt and other matters, ex-Gov. Benton McMillin spoke Tuesday night at 8:30 at the opera house to a rousing crowd of voters.

The speaker was introduced in an appropriate address by J. L. Fry. Upon the stage were seated many of the staunch supporters of Mr. Millin, anxious to hear his response to Preston's accusations.

After the preliminary remarks, the speaker replied directly to the charges made against him, stating that his action in defeating the funding act of 1899 had saved the State a million of dollars, and not lost between two and three millions, as Preston insisted. "The bill," said Mr. McMillin, "was a violation of every principle of the platform on which the legislature and I were elected. The platform demanded the payment of our debt; the bill perpetuated it, converting a 14-year debt into a 40-year debt." As in his previous speeches, Gov. McMillin spent a great part of his time in giving and explaining the provisions of the bill.

In concluding his remarks, he again referred to Mr. Craig's action in the matter as unjustifiable. Mr. McMillin's remarks were forceful and vigorous and drew frequent applause from the crowd.

The Union City band met the 8 o'clock train on which ex-Governor McMillin arrived, and gave him a warm reception.

Bull Moose Party.

A Progressive or Bull Moose County convention was held here Saturday. G. M. Adams was elected chairman, and J. C. Burdick, Jr., secretary of the meeting. Mr. Tom Taylor, State treasurer, was present and called the meeting to order. Resolutions making every man in Obion County in sympathy with the Progressive party and in favor of the principles advocated by Theodore Roosevelt, regardless of past affiliation, a delegate to the State convention, August 2, were adopted.

Republicans and Democrats were in the meeting. Strong and bitter resolutions denouncing the Chicago convention and Taft's nomination were adopted.

County organization was perfected. H. Foreum, of Obion, was made chairman and J. C. Burdick, Jr., secretary. Delegates to the State convention were instructed to vote for Roosevelt's interest from first to last, regardless of the interest or wishes of Gov. Hooper and his managers.

A Novel Outfit.

Thomas Southworth, whose gallery here was destroyed by fire some weeks ago, has perfected a new photographic equipment, in other words, a portable studio. Mr. Southworth has for some time been experimenting with artificial lighting, and since the burning he has given this branch of the work more attention, developing recently, in St. Louis, a bellows flashlight, which is operated together with an Eastman complete outfit for home photography. The bellows is made of black and white cloth, provided with a tube which is inserted from the rear. The tube carries the powder, and when the sitter is ready the operator ignites the powder with a connecting rubber at the same time he uses the bulb for exposure. When exposure is made, he takes the bellows, which is attached to a small stand, to the window and allows the smoke to escape.

He has also another lighting apparatus, simple and easy to handle, which does not confine the powder. This is used when not more than one exposure is wanted, and distributes very little smoke in the room. The entire outfit is complete and simple, easy to operate, takes a minimum amount of time for an exposure, and is capable of the highest results. The bellows is Mr. Southworth's own invention, and is likely to advance the field of photography.

Great Pictures.

The Auto Bandits of Paris was a sensational film exhibited at Reynold's Opera House last Wednesday night. This is a reproduction of the operations of a band of the boldest outlaws that ever infested the city of Paris. The picture is a startling revelation, including many of the most daring holdups and attacks of this band, showing the bandits' car and its routes, localities, etc. The reel is in three parts and a remarkable accomplishment in the picture line. A large audience saw the picture.

Enterprising Centreville.

Through the efforts of the Centreville Commercial Club a number of Oregon cattle men have been located in Hickman County and are about to establish cattle ranches in the hill land near Cable, which is especially well adapted to grazing.

It is the purpose of these men to erect a cheese factory and establish a steady market for milk, thus insuring a ready income for farmers desiring to engage in cattle-raising on a large scale.

Every commercial club in the State should emulate the example of the Centreville club. There is scarcely a county in Tennessee which does not have extensive acres of grazing land, and every acre of this should be pastured and turned to profit.

The movement of the Middle West farmers to the Northwest and Canada can be halted in a measure if they are but advised fully about the superior chances which await them here. Cheese factories, creameries and canning factories should be established far and wide in Tennessee. By paying special attention to the branches of farming which yield ready money every year the farm can be made more attractive to boys and girls and thousands of young persons can be held on the land who are considering flight to the big centers of population and industry.—Nashville Tennessean.

AUTO RACING.

Seven Interesting Events at Jackson August 28.

The Auto Racing Co., with C. V. Dunnivan as promoter, will put on a street parade and racing exhibition in Jackson, August 28. Advance agents were in the city yesterday conferring with Secretary R. S. Fletcher of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association as to plans.

There will be a street parade on the morning of the 28th, participated in by local and the racing company's cars. Joe Dawson, winner of the 500-mile race in Indianapolis, Ind., will appear in the parade.

At the fair grounds in the afternoon, the auto races will be held. Mr. Dawson will give an exhibition of five-mile running and seven interesting features will be seen, according to the plans given out yesterday.

This will be the first time for the Auto Company to put on an exhibition in a city of less than 100,000 people.

They come to Jackson in an off date and will go from this city to Nashville as soon as the State Fair takes place.

C. V. Dunnivan, who is backing the Auto Racing Co., is the youngest promoter in the country, according to statement given out yesterday.

The local Merchants and Manufacturers' Association will back the racing company to make a success.

Further plans will be made in the next few days.—Jackson Sun.
