Of all the unhappy homes, not one in a hundred has a bank account, and not one home in a hundred who has a bank account is unhappy. It seems almost foolish to put it off any longer, when it is such a simple, easy matter to start a bank account.

Stockholders Meeting Monday and Good Reports.

The stockholders of the West Tennessee Fair Association at Union City met at the City Hall last Monday with a majority of stock represented and quite a liberal number of the stockholders present. Secretary Woosley submitted a report of the finances, showing cash net earnings of 11 per cent for the year. In addition to this the report shows improvements valued at $400, which would raise the earnings altogether to 15 per cent.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: The old officers re-elected are W. C. Farris, president; R. L. Andrews, S. R. Bratton, J. C. Isbell, vice presidents; J. W. Woosley, secretary; H. Dietzel, treasurer; directors, S. T. Wade, Pink Marshall, H. Dietzel, W. E. Webster, B. J. Wade, T. R. Reynolds, Geo. Dahneke, H. P. Moss, J. P. Verhine, J. D. Killion, Ira Shore. E. H. Marshall was added to the directorate.

State-Supplied Life Insurance.

The State of Wisconsin has gone into the life insurance business. In other words, Wisconsin will insure the lives of its normal, healthy citizens in much the same way that the average life insurance company will assume such risks.

The clerks and treasurers in all counties, cities and towns, the State banks and the factory inspectors are insurance agents. This law makes it their duty to receive applications and remit the premium. But they get no extra salary therefor. The State will write no policy in excess of $3,000, but it will write policies for $500 and permit the insured to pay yearly, semi-yearly, quarterly or monthly. The policyholder may be his own collector if he so desires and the State will allow him 1 per cent for sending in his premium. The State issues policies on the ordinary life plan, the ten-year endowment plan and endowment at the age of 65. It also deals to some extent in "term" insurance and sells annuities by which a person can pay a certain amount at certain periods before he reaches the age of 50 and then draw a yearly "old age pension" after he passes 60.

Wisconsin is the first State in the Union to enter upon the life insurance business and is doing so under the provisions of a law which was passed by the State Legislature about a year ago. The Wisconsin officials believe they have devised a practical scheme which will be of advantage in providing insurance for those who need it most. That, in fact, is the main object of the departure since the State is not striving for any spectacular accomplishments as is the case with many of the insurance companies. It will not be possible to buy "fliers" or to take out million-dollar policies, for Wisconsin is not looking for customers who engage in enterprises of that kind.—Courier-Journal.

Blown Seventy-Five Feet.

Columbia, Tenn., Nov. 1.—William Thomas, aged 30, who has for several years operated the rock crusher and quarry of W. P. Ridley, one mile from Columbia, on the Mount Pleasant Turnpike, was killed Thursday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock by the explosion of about a half box of dynamite. Thomas went to the tool chest where the explosives were kept and it is supposed that he dropped some tools on a cap, exploding the whole box of explosives. Both his legs, one arm and one hand were completely blown away and have not been found. His body was found about seventy-five feet from where the accident occurred blown up against a rock wall. His face was not disfigured in any way. Thomas lived a few minutes after the occurrence. His funeral will take place this afternoon at the residence of his father on the Mount Pleasant Turnpike.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

NEWS NOTES.

That the Turkish army has retreated to the last line of fortifications outside Constantinople was granted in the first official bulletin admitting defeat. The Porte has applied to the Powers for mediation with a view to cessation of hostilities. Constantinople is in a panic over reports from the battlefield. Crime is rampant in the city and a general massacre is feared.

Rudolph Spreckels, head of the Wilson National Progressive Republican League, issued an appeal to progressive Republicans throughout the United States to vote for Wilson for President, urging the unfitness of Taft and the alliances of Roosevelt with trusts.

In a circular to railroads and shippers the Interstate Commerce Commission says the prevalent car shortage might be relieved by the faster movement of freight trains and the speedier return of cars.

Rutherford B. Cook, assistant secretary of the Chicago National League baseball club, shot and killed one of two men in an automobile who stopped him and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Eighteen out of twenty-four members of the Republican National Committee have notified Chairman Hilles that they favor Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, for Vice President.

A bronze tablet in memory of the seven heroic musicians who went down with the Titanic playing "Nearer, My God, to Thee" was unveiled in New York.

Revelation Through the Word.

The American Harvester Trust has agents in Europe and Asia teaching natives the use of American farm machinery by use of moving pictures. Other large industrial institutions are also making use of moving pictures to teach foreign people about modern manufactures and to introduce them. It is a quick and easy way to teach, and also effective, for one can perceive through the eyes without labored mental process, and one comprehends more by seeing a thing than he does by hearing about it.

Stand at a distance from a large assembly of devout worshippers, so far that not even a word is heard. The very acts of worship will have a meaning. The vast assembly kneeling in prayer, the priest with his hands outstretched and his face turned toward heaven, alone bring a sense of reverence and holiness. It is like a moving picture in which the acts themselves are seen. Think likewise of the entire worship of the Jews as set forth in the Word. It was Divinely provided that every act should be representative of something holy, and therefore through that worship something of holiness flowed. Though for the most part the ceremonies of that worship were brought to an end by the Lord, nevertheless because the worship was representative, the historical in the Word that describe it contain holiness from the Lord and holiness inflows by means of the historicals. Take as a unit Israel's history as the chosen people, freed from Egypt, led through the wilderness, and at last established in the promised land with plenty and peace. In their midst was the Ark of the Covenant, a chest containing the commandments. When they journeyed, the Ark was taken up, and Moses said, "Let thine enemies be scattered." And when it rested, he said, "Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel." See this in its representative character and it will be like a moving picture revealing the laws of salvation, the way to heaven, and the attainment of eternal life. The commandments in the Ark protected from defilement are the commands of the Lord kept pure in the heart. Through keeping them in spirit all enemies of man's peace are scattered, and he is led on in spiritual victories until finally he is established in spiritual peace and plenty.

Moffett-Eaton.

Mr. Howard Moffett, of this city, and Miss Virginia Eaton were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Louisville, Ky., on the 31st ult.

The groom is a son of Mr. Henry Moffett, this city, for a number of years successfully engaged as traveling salesman, now connected with one of the important wholesale houses in Chicago, with Tennessee territory in his circuit. He is one of the most popular brands of Union City product, and it is accepted on the highest faith that his bride is a young woman of charming graces and ideals.

The Union City friends tender warmest congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Moffett will be at home in Union City after Nov. 15.

Crittenden-Cooper.

Adding to the list of interesting weddings was that of Miss Bessie Lucile Cooper, one of Nashville's attractive young girls, to Mr. Kenneth Shelby Crittenden, which was celebrated in the presence of a large number of friends Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Belmont Methodist Church, the ceremony performed by Rev. C. Watterfield and Rev. William Alexander. The auditorium of the church contained a wealth of evergreen plants. Jackson vines, stationed at the altar were stands of pink roses and chrysanthemums, and preceding the program a musical program of many charming selections was given by Mrs. Walton Lawrence, organist; Mr. Casper Kuhn, violinist, and Miss Bessie Ford, vocalist, who sang two beautiful numbers. Composing the bridal party were ushers, Messrs. Bob Smith, Allen Clark, Emerson Lucas and Robert Dodd, who led the bridal party; the maid of honor, Miss Grace Cooper, sister of the bride, whose gown was of pink charmeuse and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. She entered immediately before the bride who came in with her father, Mr. James Allen Cooper.

Miss Cooper, a beautiful petite blonde, was charming in her lovely toilette of white charmeuse, trimmed with rare lace and studded with pearls. The veil of illusion was fastened to the head dress by sprays of orange blossoms, and the bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley completed the costume. Mr. Jim Hill was Mr. Crittenden's best man. They joined the bride and her father at the altar.

Following the ceremony was a reception at the home of the bride, the guests including a number of friends and relatives, and assisting Mrs. Cooper in entertaining were Mrs. Battle Clark and Mrs. W. F. Ford. Roses and chrysanthemums appeared again in the decorations of the home, combined with house plants, and presiding over the register was Miss Ruth Crutchefield. Mrs. Cooper wore a handsome toilette of black charmeuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden left Wednesday on an Eastern trip and when they will be with the bride's parents. For traveling the bride wore a tailored suit of blue with blue hat. A handsome collection of presents was received. Seen among them were many beautiful pieces of silver, a tea service, a chest of silver and various other large pieces.

So many readers of this paper know and appreciate the names of the brave Confederates of this county, who played such an important part in war days that it is only right for this reporter to correct two mistakes made in last week's issue of this paper in reference to those days and names.

In regard to the gun left to the Leonidas Polk Chapter by Captain Hiram Harris, of Mississippi, this was a clause in the latter Confederate's will. Captain Harris, who had been commissioned to this county by Governor Harris, two years after the war, to defend our people against two Berry outlaws, received a cross of honor from the Leonidas Polk Chapter, some time before his death, for his services in the county. He was loved and venerated by the people of Obion County, and before his death, his daughter's husband, Dr. Charles Tisdale, was asked to send this gun, captured from the desperado Berry himself, to the chapter of the county.

The name of Maddox was used in the report of the electing of officers at the second meeting of the Southern Historical Association at Mayor Coble's home last week. The name should have been Matlock. Mr. Phillip Matlock, of Mason Hall, one of the best known Confederates in the county, was the association officer to whom reference was made.
