Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

Death of Miss May B. Smith.

Miss May B. Smith, aged 16 years and 2 months, died at her home near Star of Bethlehem on the night of Feb. 29, 1912.

She was born in Lincoln County, Tenn., but her parents moved here when she was but ten months of age. She was in school under Mr. Chambers at Owens at the time of her death. Although she was sick only a week she was missed very much by her school-mates. She was loved by all who knew her. She was a very studious girl at school and never gave the teacher any trouble, and always led her classes. Her favorite studies were history and spelling.

There is her place at the table, at home, and her desk at school that will never be filled. Oh, how sad it was when her dear parents realized that the death angel came like a thief in the still of the night and claimed for its victim May B., the one whom we prized above all and bore her away on its snowy wings to that Heavenly home.

Cheer up, bereaved ones—our loss is Heaven's gain. While we here on earth are weeping, she with angels in Heaven is rejoicing, and the echo seems to sound: Cheer up, mamma, papa; you can be with me ere long!

Leaves have their time to fall; flowers have their time to fade; but never again will May B. have to die. She is not dead, but sleepeth.

She has gained that life everlasting which God has prepared for them that love Him.

She leaves a father and mother, one brother and two sisters and a host of friends and schoolmates to mourn her loss.

Her beloved remains were interred at the Star of Bethlehem cemetery, Mar. 1. A large crowd followed her to her last resting place. A SCHOOLMATE.
