

Marshall & Baird, Union City, Tenn.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1912

Entered at the post office at Union City, Tenn., second-class mail matter.

MEALS SERVED IN A TASTY WAY.

Everything from soup to desert. We delight the palate of the epicure with dainty food. You can eat your fill at our restaurant and have money left for another meal.

No Tips Accepted.
If you are pleased tell your friends if not tell us.

Good Kind Service.
Good! Good!
KIRKLAND'S
Strictly Cash.

Special Premiums.

Special premiums to be awarded by the Union City fair this fall, not included in the catalog, are as follows:

By West Tennessee Fair Association.—For punched work waist. First premium, $2; second premium, $1. Best specimen punch work embroidery. First premium, $1; second premium, 50 cents. Best specimen stenciling. First premium, $1; second premium, 50 cents. Best hand-made shopping bag. First premium, $1; second premium, 50 cents. Best collection of Christmas novelties. First premium, $1; second premium, 50 cents.

By Mrs. A. L. Brevard.—For best hemstitched table cloth made in 1912 by lady past 70 years of age. Premium, pair of S. C. Buff Orpington chickens.

By Hardy & Glass. For best loaf cake, to be made of Omega flour. Must be four or more entries. First premium, half barrel Omega flour; second premium, 48-lb. bag Omega flour; third premium, 24-lb. bag Omega flour.

By S. T. Wade.—Largest number of entries in the hog department, any breed. First premium, $5; second premium, $3; third premium, $2.

If you feel "blue," "No account," lazy, you need a good cleaning-out. HERBINE is the right thing for that purpose. It stimulates the liver, tones up the stomach and purifies the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by Oliver's Red Cross Drug Store.

Allison Mayfield, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, is credited with the statement that he has advised from Cotton Belt railway officials confirming the report that the Louisville & Nashville is completing arrangements to buy the Cotton Belt and that when the directors of the former road meet in New York, August 29, they will close the deal and authorize a bond issue of $40,000,000 to $60,000,000 to carry it out.

President Taft's plans for leaving Washington were Sunday night as indefinite as those of Congress for adjournment. With the general deficiency bill still pending in both houses it is impossible for him to quit the capital. To friends President Taft stated that he would make no speaking tour and that his rest at Beverly would be broken by only a few important engagements.

Col. Roosevelt will not have an opportunity to testify regarding the campaign contributions of John D. Archbold until the latter part of September, but meantime will address a letter to the committee making avowals as to testimony he expects to give when the opportunity shall be presented.

It has been announced that Governor Wilson will make a limited number of speeches during the campaign. W. J. Bryan has arranged to speak in the Middle West, while Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Underwood will make a number of speeches in the Southwest.

Belgrade advices are that massacres by Turks in Albania have extended to the Serbian frontier, the latest butchery being on the southern border. Following a mass meeting of protest in Belgrade, a mob of 5,000 marched to the palace and shouted demands that war against Turkey be declared.

Details of inspection of the battlefield near Managua, where the Government troops and rebels fought the recent grueling contest, received at the State Department at Washington, show that 120 women and non-combatants were injured.

On account of the size of Olympia Hall, in which the funeral of the late Gen. Wm. Booth, of the Salvation Army, is to be held, speaking will be impossible and in its place there will be hymns, supplemented by music from forty bands.

Before leaving Washington for an inspection tour of Western military posts, the Secretary of War expressed his approval of the army bill just signed, particularly the feature looking to the creation of a reserve.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun announces that Robert L. Henry, of Texas, aspires to the office of Speaker, and will oppose Champ Clark if the next House is Democratic.

Mrs. Rachel Mabry left Sunday to study the fall styles in St. Louis.

Mr. Jerro Malone, of Hickman, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Bourne is in St. Louis this week in the interest of the millinery work.

Mrs. Chas. Everett has returned from a visit to Columbia with relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. E. Pace, of St. Louis, is in the city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hardy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Glenn are the happy parents of a handsome big boy born on the 20th inst.

Mrs. Sarah Dunn, of Dickson, is expected as a visitor in the home of Rev. Brinkley this week.

Prof. Henry Burnett, of Murfreesboro, was a pleasant visitor at the Baptist parsonage last week.

Mrs. Burnett Clark has returned from Memphis, where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Hughes.

Misses Della and Verlie Haskins, of Ridgely, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Haskins, have returned home.

Mrs. Brice Moffatt and Miss Maude Moffatt, of Troy, were in the city yesterday visiting the home of Mrs. N. C. Garth.

Mrs. Klein and Misses Pauline and Lolita Klein have returned to Chicago after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Union City.

Regular preaching service by the pastor at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening. Everybody cordially invited.

Little Misses Hazel May Cameron and Evelyn Dale Myers left Sunday night for a ten days visit to Miss Myers' mother, Mrs. J. F. Myers, in St. Louis.

The visitors at the fair will not overlook the opportunity to visit Dietzel Bros.' jewelry store, one of the hand-somest to be found anywhere. They opened up this week and are prepared to give you every attention.

R. T. Curlin left last Wednesday for New York City to buy goods. He will also be in other markets and select his lines from the best to be found in the United States, including the latest importations. He is scheduled to return Sept. 6.

Mrs. S. D. Smith, mother of Mrs. J. B. Clayton, leaves this week for Chicago to visit her sons, John J. and Beeler B. Smith. After a month's stay there she will return to her home in St. Louis. Mrs. Smith has many friends here who regret her leaving.

Miss Lewis, of St. Louis, will arrive Monday to superintend the work of trimming hats at Curlin's this season. Miss Lewis is, of course, accomplished in the standards usually found at Mr. Curlin's store, and she will be assisted by Misses Nichols and McClure.

Morgan-Verhine Co., the big store, have announced a grand opening early in September, probably during fair week. The store, one of the handsomest in the world, will be wide open to the public generally, and visitors to the fair and others will lose one of the greatest attractions of the week if they fail to visit this store. It is a beauty. You will also have a chance to see the suave and well known merchant, J. P. Verhine, in all his bon homme, giving you an imitation of his polished smile and hand rubbing while he surveys the beautiful surroundings. West Tennessee has no more enterprising merchant than Jack Verhine.

McCaw-Ragsdale.

Mr. C. E. McCaw and Mrs. Ethel Ragsdale were united in marriage Saturday evening at the M. E. Church parsonage in the city by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Adams.

The young lady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ragsdale, of the vicinity of Pleasant Valley, a student of the Union City schools and an accomplished musician, charming in the graces of person and character and popularly admired.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCaw, of Rives, now connected with the Third National Bank, this city, as bookkeeper, a young man of fine business accomplishments and personal worth, and we tender the kindest congratulations. The bride and groom are boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams in the city.

If you sit in a cool draft when you are heated and get a stiff neck or lame back, you will be looking for something that will ease the pain. Fix your mind on BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT and don't be talked out of it because it is the best pain relieving liniment you can get anywhere. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Oliver's Red Cross Drug Store.

DO YOU CONSIDER YOUR PERSONAL COMFORT

It is our desire and study to make your home more attractive and comfortable.

To this end we buy

- The most comfortable, restful rockers
- The most comfortable, springy springs
- The most comfortable, soft mattresses
- The most comfortable, sanitary couches
- The most compact time and labor saving kitchen cabinets
- The most attractive parlor suites
- The most attractive bed-room suites
- The most attractive dining-room suites
- The most attractive brass, iron and wood beds
- The most attractive prices in town. These make you comfortable and us happy.

We are making good, but need and appreciate your business

The Fair Furniture Co.

C. V. JONES, Manager.

Beautiful Caskets

Scientific Embalming

Public Speaking.

Through respect to Judge A. J. Lawson the temperance address by Judge H. O. Head, of Sherman, Texas, has been postponed till next Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Judge Head will speak in response to the request of a number of our citizens, and it will be a rare opportunity to hear so celebrated a jurist. The public cordially invited.

Training School Alumni.

The alumni are urged to hand in their dues and price of plate for the banquet as soon as convenient, as Sept. 3 is the last day that plates can be secured. Remember that you can bring your friend and that the banquet will be given at 8:20 o'clock on Friday evening, September 6, 1912, at the Palace Hotel. Please do not wait for some one to ask you for your dues but leave them at once at Dietzel Bros. jewelry store.

IRA D. PARK.

Methodist Church.

The pastor will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject, "Christ's Pierced Side," and 7:30 p. m., "Union City's Great Need." Sunday school 9:40 a. m. Let us rally for the autumn work.

W. W. ADAMS, Pastor.

To Democratic Committeemen.

I will give a full size $10 steel-engraved picture of your next President and Vice President, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Marshall, in a nice frame, to the district that will give the greatest increased vote to Woodrow Wilson and Thos. B. Marshall over Bryan and Kern vote of 1908. Organize your Wilson and Marshall clubs and let's see who will be the banner Democratic district of the county.

D. P. CALDWELL.

Laundry Problems.

Sheets..... 08c
Counterpanes..... 15 to 25c
Pillow cases..... 02c
Bulster cases..... 03c
Towels..... 01c
Napins..... 01c
Table cloths..... 5 and 10c
Look over these prices and you are sure to call us. (24-24) METCALFE, Launderer, Florist and Dry Cleaner.

Notice.

I wish to make public notice of the fact that my daughter, Mandy Ledbetter, left home five years ago. Last heard of in Arkansas. Age, 15 years, black eyes and hair. Any information leading to her whereabouts will be appreciated and trouble remunerated.

ANNIE GILES.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen and President Yuan Shi Kai issued a statement at Peking declaring that an agreement had been reached on every important question of controversy.

If you have a soiled suit, send it to us. We are the dry cleaners. We also have a steam press machine and are adding customers to our list each day. Call and see this machine, as you cannot appreciate this until you see just how we turn the steam in the goods and raise the nap and remove the gloss from goods. Fifty cents a suit or three for $1.00. (24-24) METCALFE, Florist, Launderer and Dry Cleaner.

MY HOME FOR SALE—
At a great bargain if sold at once. Four doors from Palace Hotel on East Church street. SOUTHWORTH, 24-4f Photographer.

Insolvent Notice.

Having suggested the insolvency of the estate of Mrs. Annie L. Moffatt, deceased, all persons holding claims against said estate are hereby notified to file said claim, duly verified, with C. S. Talley, County Court Clerk of Obion County, Tenn., on or before the 10th day of December, 1912, or the same will be barred.

W. L. CLEMMONS, Admr. Annie L. Moffatt.

Acting under the authority of the post office appropriation bill recently passed, the Postmaster General has directed the expenditure of $1,000,000 in promoting clerks and carriers.

Use Dahnke-Walker Milling Co. Jersey Cream Flour, a home product and guaranteed.

FOR SALE—At a bargain, good residence on East Church street, plenty of room and in good repair. Apply to D. N. Walker at Third National Bank. 21-1f

The South's Greatest Exhibition The Tennessee State Fair

Nashville, Sept. 16-21--Six Days

A Clearing House for all the Natural Resources of Tennessee and adjoining States

The One Big Event to Which Thousands Look Forward

Annually. A Blue Ribbon Exhibition of Live Stock, Field, Garden, Orchard, and Bee Products, Poultry, Dairy, Woman's Work, Children, Boys' Corn Clubs, and Girls' Tomato Clubs, with more than $31,000 offered in premiums. Under the control of the Old Volunteer State, it is planned to conduct the Fair of 1912 on a scale never before attempted.

Greatest Amusement Program Ever offered the people South of the Mason and Dixon Line:

Gregg's Autos that Pass in the Air; the Cycle of Death; Walter Stanton, the Human Rooster; a Comedy Act that has no equal as a fun producer; Mat Gay, the High Diver; Fireworks Every Night; Races Every Afternoon; Night Horse Show; Band Concerts, Mornings, Afternoons and Evenings; Pony Flower Parade and Pony Races for Children.

Low Rates on Every Railroad
Every Day a Big Day

Catalogues and information for the asking. Address

J. W. RUSSWURM, Secretary
NASHVILLE, TENN.

FREE DURING THE SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION OF FREE Cole's Hot Blast Range

at our store we will give away with every range purchased, a set of this handsome, high grade enameled ware, which has been selected for both durability and utility.

This offer holds good only during the demonstration. See our large ad for date.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday
September 9 to 11, 1912

Nailling-Keiser Hardware Co.