SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Berryhill, Editor.

Telephone 140. Kindly report as early as convenient.

The Wednesday Club was entertained last week at the country home of Mrs. Ben Herring Wednesday afternoon. A covered wagon was sent for most of the town guests owing to the threatening looks of the weather. The reception rooms were decorated with sprays of red-bud, apple blossom and cherry branches and big open wood fires added to the attractiveness of the setting. Bridge was played at five tables, Miss Annie Lewis Jackson winning the first prize: A beaten-brass card receiver. Mrs. Bob Whipple cut the consolation favor: A brass bridge score holder. The refreshments consisted of pimento sandwiches, pineapple and vegetable salad and coffee.

Brave Major Archie Butt, J. J. Astor, the grand old captain of the Titanic, Stead, Straus, Millet and all those other gentlemen who saw their wives and women companions into the life-boats, and then went down with that mighty ocean-liner into two miles of water were men trained from the cradle in all the graces of gallantry and refinement and were men who were of great use in their walks of life. There is something especially sad in the death of Col. Astor, tender and devoted to his lovely young wife, and of whom there had been such unkind criticism. Major Butt was the most popular bachelor in Washington society and was said to have been engaged to one of the most beautiful young women in the South. The loss of the millions in jewels, around whose vaults the sharp-nosed sharks are now drifting, is nothing to compare with the loss of unselfish lives. Henry B. Harris, partner and chum of Geo. Coban, was one of the ones to remain on the doomed vessel, his wife, a popular musical comedy actress, staid with him.

Hudgens-Waterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKendree Waterfield of Nashville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, and Mr. Frank Hampton Hudgens of Honea Path, South Carolina. This interesting wedding will be solemnized Wednesday evening, June 19, at 8 o'clock at the Belmont Methodist church in Nashville. Miss Waterfield is popular here, her former home, where she is admired for her refined sweetness and beauty. Miss Genevieve Nailling will serve as one of the bridal attendants.

Mrs. Fred Dahnke gave a card party Thursday in honor of the Thursday Afternoon Club. The guest list was handed to members of this club exclusively. Five hundred was played at six tables, Miss Bess Beck winning the club prize, Miss Katie Morris cutting the consolation, the visitors' favor going to Mrs. Ben Capell, who was the guest of her parents several days last week. Each of the prizes was a box of silk stockings. A luncheon of salads, ices and coffee was served on the tables after the game. Before and during the game fruit punch was served by Misses Ruth Crenshaw and Bess Glascock. Mrs. Dahnke was assisted in receiving by her cousin, Miss Margaret Watson.

Flint-Nichols.

The marriage of Miss Emma Nichols, of Troy, Tenn., to Dr. B. Flint, of Wingo, was solemnized this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the New Meadows Hotel, Rev. W. H. Trice, pastor of the Church of Christ at Union City, officiating.

The bride is a most talented and beautiful young woman and a social favorite in her home town, Troy. She was accompanied to this city by a number of relatives and close friends, among them being: Messdames A. E. Nichols and Wm. Stewart, and Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Roberts, of Troy.

Dr. Flint is a prominent citizen of Wingo and enjoys a large practice.

The newlyweds expect to leave for Wingo this evening. We join the host of friends of the contracting parties in wishing for them a life of happiness.—Fulton Leader.

Rainey-Rittenhouse.

Miss Fannie Rainey and Mr. Rittenhouse, of this city, were married Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. Brinkley, the pastor.

The young people are popularly known here and many kind wishes attend them. They will be at home in Union City.

With every cake of Juvenile Soap at 10 cents we give a box of Talcum Powder.—Caldwell's Book Store.
