

Thompson-Moss

Mr. Spencer Thompson and Miss Zella Moss were united in marriage yesterday evening at the pastor's study in the First Christian Church by Rev. J. E. Stuart. Witnesses to the quiet ceremony were Mr. U. A. Flowers and Miss Bess Harper.

Mr. Thompson is connected with the Third National Bank, this city, as assistant cashier, where he has been stationed for several years. He was reared in the vicinity north of Union City and is connected with some of the best families there. He is a young man of fine character and business qualifications. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moss, lovely in character and the charm of young womanhood. The young people will be at home in Union City, and we tender the warmest congratulations.

Mrs. Gardner Marries.

St. Louis Mo., April 19.—Mrs. Annie Cathey Gardner, divorced wife of Russell E. Gardner, millionaire manufacturer, of St. Louis, to-day sprang a surprise on her friends when she was married to Edward W. Greer, vice-president of the Greer Real Estate and Investment Company, of St. Louis, 10 hours before the time at which the wedding was scheduled to take place.

The marriage ceremony was at the Riviera Apartments, where Mrs. Gardner lives. The couple immediately went to New York City, from whence they will go to Bermuda.

Mrs. Gardner formerly lived at Union City, Tenn., as did her former husband, Russell E. Gardner. Her father now lives at Marianna, Ark. A year ago she secured a divorce from Mr. Gardner. A daughter, Mrs. Thomas R. Watkins, lives in Memphis. When she secured a divorce Mrs. Gardner received $100,000 alimony.

Death of Miss Hattie Grady.

On April 21 the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Grady and claimed for its jewel the beautiful daughter, Miss Hattie. Miss Hattie was a beautiful young lady just in her bloom of life. Age twenty-three years, two months and eleven days.

Miss Hattie was a true christian. She joined the Methodist Church at Shady Grove at the age of thirteen, and lived a true christian the rest of her life. She leaves a mother, father, four sisters and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her death. This loved one will be missed in and around her home. She was the flower of her home. Made home a happy place for all. Within that home everything was done that loving hands and willing hearts could do, but God thought it best to take his precious one home—never more to strive with the trials and tribulations of this earth. God called her and she said she was ready to go every time, but hated to leave her dear unconverted ones behind. She was loved by everyone who knew her.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Carman, pastor at Shady Grove church, and the remains were laid to rest in the Shady Grove cemetery to sleep and rest until the resurrection morn when God shall call us home to our everlasting home where parting is no more.

A FRIEND.
Weep not, dear father, mother and sisters, for weeping is in vain, for death shall come and we will be the same. The Lord heard her voice and called her home to dwell in that mansion where death and parting is no more.

For Superintendent of Banks.

The State Bankers Association named five of its members last week who are recommended to the Governor as suitable material for State Bank Superintendent.

There were five men selected by vote, out of which number the Governor was to make the appointment. The only Republican in the list, a man from East Tennessee, was the Governor's choice. There was also only one regular Democrat named and that was Walter Howell, of the Old National Bank, this city, and we will wager a doughnut that not another one of these men was better suited to the place nor better qualified than Mr. Howell. The fact of the business is, no one ever thought of having a superintendent until they found that he was the man for it.

FREMONT.

Several from Fremont were in Union City Monday shopping.

Mr. Tom Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Albert Duty, left the first of the week for Cairo, their home. They have been spending the flood season with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osborn, of Rives, Mrs. Rachel Williams and mother, Mrs. Sallie Webb, of Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Williams, of Hickman, were here last Sunday to see Mrs. Francis Williams, who is dangerously sick at the home of her son, Bud Williams.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Douglass died at her home near here Saturday morning of consumption. She had suffered a great deal for the last few months and death came as a relief in the early morning of life. She was married four years ago to Mr. Sam Douglass, who, with one little daughter, are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother. A large crowd followed the remains to Antioch where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Burgess Cunningham. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the heart-broken husband, mother and sister.

The many friends and relatives of Mr. Luther Whiteside, of Fulton, were painfully shocked when the sad news of his sudden death flashed over the wires early Monday morning. His health had been gradually failing for some time, but no one thought the end was so near. The writer has known him from early infancy and can truly say that he was a noble man. When a mere boy his everyday life foretold the man. He was quiet and modest almost to timidity. He filled several worthy positions in life after graduating at Lebanon, Tenn. He was a splendid teacher. Many business men of this country will remember his untiring zeal he put forth while teaching at Obion College, at Troy. He also filled the position of postal clerk for quite a while on the Illinois Central railroad, besides other responsible positions. The efficiency of his work in different positions and his devotion to it at all times are in a sense the measure of the man. He leaves a wife and several children besides a host of relatives to mourn his loss. He was buried at Fulton last Tuesday under a wilderness of flowers amid a host of surviving friends and relatives.

CHEAP CONCRETE

Good material and a thorough knowledge of how to use it, are the main points to be considered if one expects a satisfactory concrete product.

It costs but little more to do good, substantial concrete work than it does to do an inferior job. Hence, the cheap man is nearly always the dear man.

We are prepared to do all kinds of concrete work, large and small, and our prices will not be found out of proportion with the quality of work we do. All work guaranteed, and remember we put the repairs on our work as completed.
