Teachers Elected.

The election of teachers for the City Schools took place last Friday night, the Board of Education being in regular session.

The teachers for the ensuing term, 1914-15, so far elected are J. M. DeBow, V. L. Reynolds, Miss Nannie Hamilton, Miss Cora Wingo, Miss Rosa Neil Morton, Miss Mabel Littleton, Miss Callie Howell, Miss Mattie Temple, Miss Mary Moore, Miss Cassie Hamilton, Miss Marie Allen. The departments of domestic science and English have not been supplied, but the board is in communication with teachers for these places.

Miss Wingo was not an applicant this year, and has not so far accepted the position heretofore held by her in the school. The other teachers elected were applicants and will be with the school.

The election of Mr. Nute as superintendent for a two-year term took place at a called meeting last week, the matter having been compromised between the one-year and three-year advocates on the board.

Teachers for the school elected are as follows: W. R. Jarrett, Mrs. H. M. McMakin, Mrs. A. S. Jarrett, Miss Vira Davenport, Miss Cynthia Foote.

Lankford Case Up.

Hickman, Ky., May 11.—This, the second week of Fulton County Circuit Court, will be held at the branch courthouse at Fulton and convened there this morning, this being a two-weeks' term, with R. L. Smith, of Clinton, presiding, and Harry Moorman, of Mayfield, prosecuting.

The case of Bub Lankford, charged with the killing of A. M. Tyler, which was given change of venue, the case to be carried to Ballard County, has been set for August 26, and will be tried at the county seat, Wickliffe. Also the case of the Commonwealth against Bub Lankford and J. R. Wright will be tried at that time in Wickliffe.

Good Music.

The Cheney Concert Company, here last Thursday night at Reynolds Opera House, appeared to a very small audience but never to a more delighted one. The ladies and the male section of the orchestra were all seasoned and capable musicians. They were all soloists as well as ensemble players, and they were exceptionally good, too. It was a misfortune that more musicians and music lovers were not present. The concert included some popular music as well as some of the standard selections, and the audience was enraptured to the end of program.

Death of Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. Laura Gray Thompson, wife of Mr. Allen Thompson, died last Sunday morning, May 10, 1914, at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Thompson had been an invalid from cancer for over two years, death coming in the form of relief.
Mrs. Thompson's age was 50 years, 7 months and 28 days. She was married twenty-eight years ago in Hickman County, and from there she and Mr. Thompson came to Union City about ten years ago. She was the daughter of Jas. Briggs and a sister of W. J. and A. H. Briggs, this city, and leaves a sister at Hohenwald, Tenn., Mrs. David Warren, also a brother, Jas. T., in Texas. She leaves also a daughter, Miss Elizabeth, aged 12, bereft of a mother's tender care and affection.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Methodist Church, the qualities of mind and heart converging into the highest elements of character. She was very kindly attached to her friends and tenderly devoted to her loved ones at home consecrated to her church, and esteemed in the greatest measure by those who knew her.

Death leaves an aching void, the home is bereft, but memory lingers sweetly in its sacred precincts.

A tribute of service was conducted at the residence Monday morning by Rev. W. C. Waters, and the remains were interred at East View.

Class Recital.

The Commercial made several very serious mistakes last week, and one of these was overlooking a notice of Miss Beulah Allen's class recital on Friday night. A notice of this recital appeared the previous week, but was unintentionally omitted last week.

The recital, however, was the best, it is said, of Miss Allen's entire experience as teacher of music in Union City. She has a large class and everyone appeared at the piano without music and without a prompter, displaying not only the evidences of excellent training in execution but in memory practice. Miss Allen is not merely a musician. She is performer of more than ordinary ability, and in the realm of teacher she has acquired the cult which only renowned teachers attain of imparting to their pupils the secret of real music—the interpretation and expression of the composers. From the beginner to the oldest pupil everyone acquitted themselves to the pleasure and delight of the audience.

The class is as follows: Flavella Woosley, Lydia B. Roberts, Edna and Louise Wilbanks, Pauline Mount, Zelma Bell, Kathryn Bryan, Emily Woosley, James Massey, Mary Butler, Mabel Luten, Brownie Massey, Juna Reynolds, Kathleen Arnold, Chas. Reynolds, R. C. Reynolds, Jr., Louise Harris, Cantie May Luten, Louise Luten, Carrie Beckham, Vivian Woodrow, Mildred Waters, Margaret Porter, Jeanie Garth.

Wedding in Savannah.

At the Hull Memorial Presbyterian Church in Savannah, Ga., last Monday night at 8 o'clock the marriage of Miss Lela Nisbet and Mr. George Alister Gibbs, Jr., of Union City, Tenn., was beautifully solemnized before a large circle of friends and relatives.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, the Rev. William A. Nisbet, with whom she entered.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion with abundance of field daisies and palms. In the chancel, where large palms were placed, was seated at the organ, Miss Alma Sterly, who played the wedding music. The bride's sister, Miss Ruth Nisbet, was maid of honor, and Mr. Gibbs' best man was Mr. William H. Nisbet.

The bride was one of Savannah's most charming young ladies and for a number of years was connected with the Savannah Morning News as the assistant woman's editor.

Mr. Gibbs is prominent in political and club circles in Obion County, and for some time has popularly served as Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs on their honeymoon will spend several days in Nashville.—Nashville Tennessean.

The groom has scores of friends in Union City who tender the warmest congratulations. He is one of our foremost citizens and a young man of fine personality and attainments, deserving of his bonny bride, and a cordial welcome is ready for them in Union City.

Wedding Invitations.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin Nailling have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Genevieve, to Mr. George Russell McVay on the evening of Wednesday, May 20, 1914, at 8 o'clock.

Taylor-Garrison.

Mr. Altner Watson Taylor, of Humboldt, Tenn., and Miss Vera Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Garrison, were united in marriage yesterday evening at the home of the bride near Protemus.

The bride is popularly esteemed and the family one of the best known of that locality. Congratulations are extended.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

THE OPPORTUNITY IS HERE, BACKED BY UNION CITY TESTIMONY.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Union City endorsement.

Read the statements of Union City citizens.

And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it.

J. M. Cole, 631 S. Fifth street, Union City, Tenn., says: "My back was extremely lame and often I had pains in through my kidneys, the kidney secretions passed irregularly and looked unnatural. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them and in a short time they brought relief. It is a pleasure to confirm all I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I endorsed them before."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cole had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
