In Memory.

On June 29, 1914, near the midnight hour, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Caudle and claimed for His own their only beloved son, Denis, who was also our dear schoolmate. He was about 14 years of age. His home was near Pleasant Hill church. He was a member of the Rives school, and loved by all his schoolmates. He has been a patient sufferer for many months. When the schoolboys visited him he would greet them with a smile and a pleasant word; would immediately sit up and entertain as best he could. He has been quite feeble for a long, long time. He professed faith in Christ last summer and joined Pleasant Hill church, living a true Christian until death; thus leaving a consolation to those near and dear to him.

Funeral services were conducted in a beautiful manner by Rev. Cunningham and the remains laid to rest in the presence of a host of friends in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

To the bereaved, mother and father friends offer deepest sympathy, but only a Higher Power can heal the broken heart. FRIEND AND SCHOOLMATE.

Her Only Chance.

"Then you think my daughter's contract will not get her into grand opera?"

"Never, madam. If she could lower it a notch she might make a freak female basso for a vaudeville turn."

Case of Thrift.

"A reception to-day, my dear, when you gave a party only last night?"

"Yes; I had a bowl of fruit punch left over, and I didn't see the use of wasting it."

Women Everywhere

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Stephenson, on the Pacific Coast.

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.—"I was sick with what four doctors called Nervous Prostration, was treated by them for several years, would be better for a while then back in the old way again. I had palpitation of the heart very bad, fainting spells, and was so nervous that a spoon dropping to the floor would nearly kill me, could not lift the lightest weight without making me sick; in fact was about as sick and miserable as a person could be. I saw your medicines advertised and thought I would try them, and am so thankful I did for they helped me at once. I took about a dozen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and also used the Sanative Wash. Since then I have used them whenever I felt sick. Your remedies are the only doctor I employ. You are at liberty to publish this letter."—Mrs. W. STEPHENSON, Independence, Oregon.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HODGDON, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
