RIVES.

Are you attending the revival? If not you are missing some fine sermons. Master Arthur Elam was hurt Monday afternoon, necessitating the services of Dr. White. The little boy got too near the hay baler team and was knocked down by a single tree, getting his back hurt and a large gash above the eye.

Services in the tent twice daily—at 2:30 p. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Selmo Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Will Ragsdale, of the Pleasant Valley neighborhood, were here Sunday attending the revival.

Dr. T. P. Callicott was called to Number Seven Monday night to attend Mr. Worrel, who suffered a stroke of the hot weather while at work on the levee.

Mesdames Hubert and Leslie Shore were recent guests for the day of Mrs. T. P. Palmer.

The revival goes on with increased interest. Rev. Logan is gifted with a quiet, forceful, sympathetic way of presenting the plan of salvation that appeals to his audience. A large choir of both adults and children is also meeting with approval.

At Trenton the coming week the suit of O. H. Clemmons, of Meadow Brook Farm, against the I. C. Railroad comes to trial. Mr. Clemmons is suing for damages in the mangling of four head of fine horses in a high trestle, first south of town. Witnesses subpoenaed, locally, are Knox Harper, T. P. Palmer, J. W. Thorne, Dode Stevens, J. F. Holloway and Monroe McCowan.

At last our school bonds have escaped the "circumlocution office" and are negotiable. The plans for the school building have been accepted. It includes a two story pressed brick, four rooms of legal size on lower floor with auditorium, and two small rooms above. The building will have modern heating, light and ventilation.

A very deep well for this locality is reported in the Pleasant Hill neighborhood. This well is on the Chester Phebus farm and has just been completed at a depth of 100 feet.

Miss Erma Harris is here, guest of Mrs. J. C. Harris, on Caldwell Avenue.

Another deep party well is being put in. This well is in South Rives on the premises of Gus Callicott. Others interested are Mayer McNeill, Dr. E. H. White and Mrs. Ora Pyles.

Mrs. Laura Hay, of Newbern, was a guest the first of the week of Mrs. T. A. Cummings.

Out-of-town ministers attending the revival services in Rives are: Rev. Hamp McLeskey, Nashville; Rev. Jones, Arlington, Ky.; Rev. J. M. Bryson, Union City; Rev. Carl Laster, Troy; Rev. J. C. Cason, Obion; Rev. J. H. Thomas, Newbern. A number of visitors are also attending the meeting as follows: Mrs. Sallie McLeskey, Dickson; Mrs. Sue Garrett, Knoxville; Mrs. Geo. Byrd, Fulton.

School Directors.

The new law passed by the last Legislature makes it necessary for directors and teachers to sign a contract before the school begins. Failure to do so subjects the teacher or directors or both to a fine of twenty-five dollars.

No person can teach without a certificate issued by the State Superintendent.

This certificate must be dated not earlier than July 1, 1914. No payment can be allowed to a teacher who has no certificate. The directors can not issue the warrant nor can the trustee cash it without subjecting themselves to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars. Be sure to ask your teacher to present his certificate.

If you have not made the report of the scholastic population, please do so at once as no money can be placed to the credit of your district till that is done.

Yours very truly,
C. L. RIDINGS,
County Superintendent.

Killed By Doctor's Mistake.

Clinton, Ky., July 28.—As the result of a deplorable accident Judge R. L. Smith, of the First Judicial District, died here to-day.

Judge Smith, who was one of the most prominent men in this section of the State, came to town this afternoon on his way to Louisville, where he was going to hold a conference in regard to his candidacy for re-election to the office which he held. Feeling somewhat indisposed he stopped at the office of Dr. Fred Bealer, a close personal friend of his, and asked for some medicine. By mistake Dr. Bealer gave him a large drink of carbolic acid and death resulted almost instantly.

All Clinton was horrified when news of the terrible accident became public.

Judge Smith was 45 years of age. He was a Mason and an Elk and was very popular in fraternal, business and political circles. He was born and spent all of his life in Clinton. He was elected Commonwealth's Attorney for the First Judicial District and served in that position until last April, when, after the death of Judge R. J. Bugg, Gov. McCreary appointed him as Judge of the district.

Judge Smith was married and is survived by his wife and two children.

The burial will take place here.

Winter Cover Crops.

The Agricultural Division of the N. C. & St. L. Railway.

In pursuing the agricultural improvement work of this department, seeking to promote the better methods of farming along the company's lines, permit me to direct your attention to the importance of preparing promptly for your winter cover crops.

It is urgently suggested that every acre of your corn, cotton and small grain lands should be seeded at the proper time during the late summer to some form of winter catch crop, to serve the three-fold purpose of preventing the erosion or washing of your land, to store nitrogen and other needed fertilizing elements in your soil and to provide late fall and early spring grazing for your stock. It turned under in the spring, the cover crop will further add humus and nitrogen to the soil, will very greatly improve its mechanical condition, and will enable it to absorb and hold more moisture for the succeeding crop.

Immediately after harvesting your small grain crop, it is strongly recommended that the stubble be thoroughly disced and turned deep as soon as its condition will permit. It should be disced repeatedly to control grass and weed growth until the appearance of a good season after the first or middle of August, when the cover crop should be sown. In the meantime, if your soil has not been analyzed for lime content, you would be justified in applying and discing in two tons of ground or pulverized limestone per acre; if alfalfa is to be sown, apply four tons. Rye and crimson clover or hairy vetch are the most satisfactory clover crops for green manuring yet tried in Tennessee and this section of the South, and are advocated by both State and Federal Government agricultural authorities.

Frequent shallow and level cultivation of the corn and cotton crops is urged. Such cultivation may be given with a one-horse spring-tooth cultivator, such as may be found on the market selling for about $6.50. Cultivation should be continued as late in the season as possible to keep down grass and to conserve moisture, and the cover crop sown between the rows during the first favorable season after August first or fifteenth, and barrowed in with the spring-tooth or spike-tooth V-shaped harrow. If the rows are prepared and cultivated in ridges, more or less of the cover crop seed will roll away from the crest of the ridges toward the center of the furrow between leaving a considerable area unseeded, and the catch crop will appear in rows. If cultivated in the level, practically the entire surface of the corn and cotton fields may be uniformly seeded.

The suggestions are offered in the earnest hope that the approaching winter season will find the grain and cotton producing areas in the territory served by these lines well covered with green growing crops, rather than lying bare and exposed to the season's washing rains.

When the baby is suffering the double affliction of hot weather and bowel disorders, the remedy needed is McGEE'S BABY ELIXIR. It reduces the feverish condition, corrects the stomach and checks looseness of the bowels. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by Oliver's Red Cross Drug Store.

Obituary.

Death has again visited our community of Antioch and claimed for its victim Miss Dula May Grey. She was the daughter of George Grey. Miss Grey was born July 25, 1887, and departed this life July 24, 1914.

She professed faith in Christ at the age of 19 years and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of which she was a member until God called her home.

Miss Grey leaves a father, step-mother, three sisters and two brothers, and many friends to mourn her loss. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by her pastor, Rev. White, after which the body was laid to rest in Antioch cemetery, where a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives had met to pay the last sad tribute to a good woman.

She has gone to share the rest that waits a life well spent and a work well done. Farewell, devoted friend, until that glorious morning that heralds the eternal day of joy and fullness of love at God's right hand.

To the bereaved the writer offers his profoundest sympathy and pleads that you live as did she, and finally when the perils of this world shall have been ended with you, that you may clasp the hand of your dear one across the beautiful river of Jordan where all is sunshine and sorrow never comes.

NO REASON FOR IT

YOU ARE SHOWN A WAY OUT.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof:

A. J. Farris, Nichols Ave., near Poplar St., Dyersburg, Tenn., says: "A dull ache in the small of my back made me feel miserable and I was also bothered by dizzy spells. My sight blurred and often while working, I had to catch hold of something to keep from falling. Nothing helped me to any extent until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They lived up to representations in every way. The benefit they brought has been permanent. It gives me pleasure to confirm all I ever said about Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Farris had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Veterans.

The Leonidas Polk Chapter, U. D. C., met in the Park on Thursday afternoon of last week. Dr. McRee was present and offered some suggestions concerning the entertainment of the veterans during the reunion to be held here Oct. 8 and 9. The ladies of the Chapter are eager to make the reunion a notable one for the old heroes, and after meeting with other committees will determine fully what they will do to make it so. The president appointed a committee, composed of Mrs. Geo. A. Gibbs, Mrs. Jas. M. Brice and Miss Mary Byrd Pursley, to decide upon some young girl to whom a Training School scholarship will be given. There was also a discussion over what should be done with the money from the Lyceum Course this winter, and the conclusion arrived at was that the course would certainly be appreciated by the people of Union City for its intrinsic merits and the subscribers would trust the Chapter to spend the money in some way advantageous to the public.

The game was interesting from start to finish, the locals having bolstered up their squad from the Southeast Missouri Sunday League.

We Never Did.

A few days ago a know-it-all called our attention to the fact that we "never saw a bald-headed woman." Well, what of that? There are a good many things we never saw a woman do. We never saw a woman who would refuse to subscribe for the home paper because it advocates temperance and law enforcement. We never saw a woman sit on a dry goods box and "cuss" out the town because she couldn't buy a bottle of bootleg poison. We never saw a woman going fishing with a bottle of "bait" in her hip pocket, sit all day on the damp ground, go home drunk at night and abuse her husband and children because they didn't believe a lie she told about a "big fish" that broke the hook and got away after she had nearly landed it. We never saw a woman yank off her coat, give her pants a hitch, spit on her hands and swear she could whip the biggest man in town. Come to think of it, there are a good many things we never saw a woman do, and don't want to, either.—Exchange.

A HOG SAVER

CHEER UP! I WAS IN YOUR FIX LAST YEAR, AND LOOK AT ME NOW! WHAT CURED ME? WHY DR. BLACKMAN'S MEDICATED SALT BRICK, IT'S THE TRICK

WHAT OTHERS SAY

I can heartily recommend your stock medicine above all others that I ever used, and I believe I have tried all of the latest brands. Last spring cholera got among my hogs and one died before I really knew they were sick. Two others were very sick when I noticed them, and as I had bought two of your bricks for my hogs, I decided to give it a trial. I dissolved half a MEDICATED SALT BRICK in some swill, giving this to the two sick hogs and in a few hours I gave the other half to them. They seemed to improve so nicely I thought several of the brick and gave it to all my hogs and have not lost another one with any kind of disease. One of the sick hogs lost all of his hair, proving they had cholera.
