

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Berryhill, Editor.

Telephone 140. Kindly report as early as convenient.

In Honor of Her Sister.

Mrs. Guy Miles was the hostess Tuesday afternoon of a five hundred party given in honor of her sister, Miss Eula Dale, of St. Louis, who is her guest. The game was played at three tables. Miss Ruby Mayes won the high score prize and Mrs. Paul Mathes, of Jonesboro, Ark., cut the consolation. The former gift was a hand embroidered towel and the latter a guest towel with a crocheted border. Refreshments were attractively served, being cantaloupe, grapes and ices.

Boost the Ball Club.

Brother DeGraffenreid, the secretary and treasurer of the Union City Ball Club, is putting forth a plea that would draw tears from a stone for heartier financial support of the local club. Whether it will draw funds from the closer of the town fans remains to be seen. Most of the citizens have contributed without much begging on the committee's part, Mr. Henderson and Mr. Oliver, the druggists, being among those ready contributors. Quite a few of the business firms have contributed twice. The gate receipts were very good on the three days that Humboldt played here. Their expenses were $66, and it took the three days to make the money for them. Good players cost money, and fans who are willing to leave their business to enjoy a good game are surely willing to contribute toward the support of the club.

Shoot at Fulton.

Harry Edwards, Clarence Johnson, Sam Parkman and Harry Gibbs went to the Fulton shoot last week and brought back most of the honors in their automobile. Mr. Gibbs was classed as high professional at the meet, breaking every target but six. He is high with the Memphis Club also and brings in many prizes from shoots all over the Southern States. Harry Edwards was high amateur at the Fulton shoot.

Harrison-Hudgins Marriage.

At 9 o'clock Thursday evening, August 6, in the parlor of the Memphis Conference Female Institute, Mr. Julian L. Harrison, of Union City, Tenn., and Miss Jessie L. Hudgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hudgins, of Jackson, Tenn., were united in marriage, Rev. H. G. Hawkins, president of the M. C. F. I., performing the ceremony. The attendants were Mr. Cliff Armstrong and Misses Mary and Lily Warren. The couple left last night for Union City.—Jackson Sun.

There was an informal dance at the Elks Club rooms Tuesday evening after the first picture shows, about a dozen couples taking part in it. The music was furnished by the Stanley Jug Band.

Miss Craig Hostess.

Miss Lorine Craig was the hostess of a party given last Saturday night. Many were present who enjoyed Miss Craig's hospitality.

Mrs. Will Herring honored the young set with a dance last Friday night. The front lawn was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Several out-of-town visitors were present. Delightful refreshments were served at a late hour.

The amazing spectacle of a young lady seated in the ancient manner of sideways on a horse has excited some wonder in the town. The young lady was dressed in a baggy voluminous concern known as a riding habit, faintly suggesting the aroma of moth balls and the possibility of her legs getting tangled up in the several yards of material. She was more concerned with the management of her steed than she was at the excitement of the multitude whose admiration was possibly confined to those members or fossils of an extinct era of manners and deportment, determined that any way but riding sideways on a horse is a breach of etiquette in a lady. All these old fogies and fossils have to die soon, and some of them not ever knowing that the style of riding sideways for a lady was instituted by a queen with hip trouble who couldn't ride any other way. No matter what Confederate veterans may have as opinion on the subject and doctors of physical training may have against these critics, it remains an impressive fact that the lady who was seen riding sideways looked funny. The healthy, graceful young damsels of New York, who can be seen by the hundreds in Central Park, New York City, in the morning, clad in their boyish breeches of kabki, riding spirited mounts, would have caught the sideways lady and put her in a museum of antiques. It inspired something like the following:

Ella thinks it perfect fruit is
To gallop on the gascuties. (Classical name for horse.)
Some brazen females ride astride
But Ella takes hers on the side.

Miss Ruby Mayes has returned from Morganfield, Ky., where she was a popular guest at the home of Miss Lillie Anderson. This hostess will be pleasantly remembered here as a visitor last spring with Miss Mayes. While away from home Miss Mayes was also a visitor in Evansville, Ind., being the guest of Miss Marguerite Klaus, who was the handsome first bridesmaid at the Swiggart-Mayes nuptials in June.

Miss Willie Belle Mayes was the hostess Saturday afternoon of the Musical Mathiee Club. An interesting Gounod program was given. A welcomed addition to the club ranks was the name of Mrs. Ed Long who has been identified with the encouragement of musical study in local circles for quite a while. A program to fit in with the study of the afternoon was given, finishing the study of the works of the great French master of melody. An ice course was served after the lesson which had been led by the president, Mrs. Jim Cunningham. The next meeting of the club will be held at the attractive home of Mrs. Bob White on the 29th. The program at this meeting will consist of a study of the works of the French woman, Chaminade, and of our own song writer, Mrs. Carrie Bond, of Chicago. The following is an outlined program of the meeting:
Vocal solo—Mrs. Carlton.
Instrumental solo—Mrs. Long.
Instrumental solo—Mrs. Whipple.
Vocal duet—Mesdames Lee and Carlton.
Instrumental solo—Mrs. Dahnke.
Instrumental solo—Mrs. Reynolds.
Reading—Miss Rippey.
Vocal solo—Mrs. White.
Instrumental solo—Miss Dahnke.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Cunningham.
Instrumental solo—Miss Mayes.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Lee.

Alumni Picnic.

Invitations have been received from the Alumni Association of the Training School to the annual picnic which will be given at Carter's Pond on the Mobile & Ohio Railroad. Miss Margaret Porter, President of the Alumni Association, and other officers in the same, have been instrumental in getting together many graduates of the Training School and funds to defray the expenses of the outing. Every member of the Alumni is allowed one guest, which will swell the picnic crowd to a great extent. About sixty invitations were issued. Professor Aydelott is exceedingly desirous to bring as many of his own one-time pupils together as is possible. The picnic is arranged for the 24th.

An enjoyable party of last week was that given by Misses Willie Bell and Ruby Mayes in honor of their sister, Mrs. W. H. Swiggart, Jr., who is stopping at her former home after her return from her trip to Denver with her husband. Tables were arranged in the reception rooms for thirty-six card players, Five Hundred being the game of the afternoon. The three prizes for high scoring by club member and guest and the consolation cut, were handsome bridge table covers. They were awarded respectively to Miss Helen Verhine, Mrs. Henry Hassler and Miss Lila Littleton. As a guest favor a case of dainty crepe de chine handkerchiefs was presented Mrs. Swiggart. Among the visitors outside the club were Mrs. Henry Hassler and her guest of that week, Miss Marianna Sears, of Griffin, Ga., Mrs. Bob Bell, of Nashville, and Miss Eula Dale, of St. Louis.

Lake Party.

Mrs. Ruth Whipple, who has been entertaining Miss Bertha Adair, of Louisville, chaperoned a party to Reelfoot Lake this week in honor of her visitor, as follows: Miss Lila Caldwell, Miss Stella Monrotes, Miss Carrie Catron, Miss Dixie Caldwell, Miss Clara Wehman, Mr. Sid Caldwell and Mr. Caesar Palmer. They were in camp for a few days.

Union City Pictures.

Mr. Morris asks us to announce that the moving pictures of Union City and local affairs, shown here at the Gem last summer, will be shown again Saturday—to-morrow night—for the benefit of those who couldn't attend on account of the heat and other causes. They will be seen at the Francis Airdome.

RIVES.

The W. C. T. U. meets Thursday afternoon of next week at three o'clock in the M. E. Church, Mrs. Ernest Shropshire leading. There will be an election of officers for the ensuing year. Delegates for the State convention will also be elected.

Rev. Hamp McLesky, of Nashville, begins revival services at Pleasant Hill Sabbath morning.

The revival came to a close Wednesday evening with twenty-six or more conversions. This is conceded to have been one of the best revivals held here for numbers of years. The attendance was fine and the rapt attention was very noticeable. The song service in both the choruses, assisted by the congregation, was a source of spiritual uplift.

The G. F. Botts bungalow is rapidly nearing completion, and in its artistic beauty and appointments will add much to the town.

Mr. George Gardner, of Hulbert, Oklahoma, is visiting relatives and friends here.

The protracted meeting commences at the Christian Church the fourth Sunday of this month by Rev. Lipscomb. Misses Mabel Warren and Ruth Moody have returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Obion.

Mrs. Charlie Payne died Tuesday morning after a long illness. We sympathize with the bereaved family.

Mr. Felan Kilgore left this week for Knoxville, where he will enter school.

Miss Mildred Clemmons has returned after an extended visit to relatives in Missouri.

Miss Ellen Turner, of Obion, is the house guest of Misses Hattie Mai and Minnie Starnes.

Mrs. Maggie Barker entertained Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Ellen Turner. Many amusing games were played and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served. All report Mrs. Barker an excellent hostess.

RIDGELY ITEMS.

The cotton crop is being benefited by the daily showers. Adjacent to town cotton is luxuriant and promises a fine yield.

There has been an ease up in the scarcity of eatables. Wagon loads of watermelons and cantaloupes are coming in. Saturday there was a wagon load of butter beans brought in and sold for two bits for two gallons. Three nice watermelons can be purchased for a quarter with the possibility of an extra one as a gift—if you are popular.

Mesdames John McCutcheon, E. M. Harrington and R. E. Hellen spent the week-end in Memphis shopping. The party motored through and were the guests of J. T. Foster.

A party of young people spent Saturday evening at Shaw's Park on the lake. They report a good time for themselves and also that a crowd from Rives were not by any means having a dull time.

The baseball nine from Ricks Mill were over Saturday and gave the local team a close game.

A professional team from Dyersburg came over Monday for a three days' engagement with the Ridgely-Tiptonville team. At this time we can only report the Monday game, which was very close, being 5 to 5 in favor of Dyersburg. The teams are well rounded and put over some excellent ball. Lawyea Harvey Teague was umpire.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haskins, of Union City, are here for a two week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Homer Hale, of Union City, guest of her sister, Mrs. O. H. Taylor, has returned home.
