ACCIDENT Union City, Tenn.

CRYSTAL.

Tuesday told the tale, didn't it, boys? Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott, of Gurley, Ala., visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss Anna Cunningham, who is teaching at Kedron, visited her sister, Miss Aly, here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Kirk, of Union City, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Williams Sunday.

Rev. Lamkin preached his last sermon at Antioch Sunday before conference, which meets at Paris this week. Bro. Lamkin has been here a year and has wrought well. The congregation are anxious for his return.

A play will be staged at Crystal next Saturday night for the benefit of the library. There is fine talent in this play, and if you do not hear it you will miss an event. In order that good order may be obtained a small admission will be charged.

The weather is fine, the farmers are busy, and a light vote in the rural districts was cast at the election Tuesday.

Mrs. Hardy Brown, of Clayton, was the guest of Miss Octavia Glover Monday.

Miss Irene Irvine, aged nineteen years, after a lingering illness of typhoid fever, died Nov. 1 and was buried at Antioch Monday, Rev. Lamkin conducting the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barksdale and Misses Jennie Fluty and Love Adams were out opossum hunting Saturday night. They reported a scarcity of vermine but all enjoyed the moonlight.

Messrs. Darrell Council and Ed Roberts, Jr., were appointed to go as messengers from Antioch Sunday school to the Sunday school convention at Campground, near Troy, next Saturday and Sunday.

ROUTE FIVE.

Miss Pauline Rives entertained a number of her friends with a Halloween party Saturday night. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served. On departing all declared Miss Pauline an ideal hostess.

Mrs. Charlie Grim, of Paducah, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Harpole, for a few days.

We are very glad to see Miss Allie Harpole up after a very bad spell of tonsillitis.

Misses Clara and Thelma Rives entertained a few of their friends Sunday with a dinner in honor of their brother, Oscar, who is home on a few week's vacation. Among those present were Misses Sara and Nannie Harrison, Allie and Ruby Harpole, Pauline Rives, Grace Sammons, Mary Wayne Naylor, Alma Rives; Messrs. Carlos Thacker, Alvin Shoupe, Coyal Wade, Ed Harrison, Robert Chambers, Oscar Rives, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rives. All spent a most enjoyable day.

Mr. Allen Austin is confined to his room with the fever, but we are glad to hear that he is resting better to day.

Mrs. Oscar Forrester is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones, this week.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of Bethlehem entertained the congregation with a short program Sunday night, after which the pastor, Rev. H. M. Blood, made a talk on missions which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Oscar Rives left Monday for Obion after a month's visit at home.

Mrs. Charlie Naylor and Mr. and Mrs. Smith Evans motored over to Paducah Sunday.

CIRUMS.

OBION.

J. H. Luker, a former resident of this county but who now resides at Cotton Plant, Ark., was here on a visit last week. He seems to be well pleased in his Arkansas location.

Attorneys E. J. Green and Ethel Morris were business visitors to Trimble Monday.

Prof. R. H. Bond, of Elbridge, was here last Friday night to attend the Garrett speaking.

Dr. J. J. Wells, of Glass, was here Saturday en route to Union City.

Misses Maggie Grisham and Lulee Jones were in Union City Saturday shopping.

T. T. Paschall, of Fulton, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Gordon Baird, the first of the week.

Rev. J. C. Cason preached his farewell sermon, unless sent back here by conference, to a good congregation at the Methodist Church last Sunday. Bro. Cason left Monday morning for Paris, to attend the conference.

Eld. T. M. Carney preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian Church Sunday, morning and evening.

Miss Gladys Maloney returned Monday morning from a visit to friends at La Grange, Ill.

Miss Johnny Lippard is the guest of relatives in Union City this week.

J. H. Clymer left Tuesday night for a visit to his father near Lewisburg, Tenn. Mr. Clymer's father has reached the age of 80 years, and he is as active and hearty as when he was 50. Mr. Clymer expects to spend about two weeks with his father.

L. G. Moffat has rented the old Farmers' Union warehouse near Ward's Mill and is now engaged in buying cotton. He will store the cotton until the market opens up.

W. L. Blackley and daughter, of Hornbeak, were here Tuesday shopping. Mr. Blackley is president of the Bank of Hornbeak.

Mrs. B. E. Lawrence and children, of McKenzie, were called here the first of the week on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Lawrence's brother, Whit Albright.

Cleave Albright, of Memphis, attended the funeral and burial of his brother, Whit, which occurred here Wednesday.

Billie Winsett and wife and son, Charlie, and Miss Edna Hastings, of Fulton, were the guests of Mrs. J. S. Winsett Sunday.

Miss Ethel Steele, of Newbern, is the guest of relatives here.

Miss Elizabeth Stanfield was the guest of her sister, Miss Floreta Stanfield, in Dyersburg this week.

E. W. Parks was a business visitor to Union City the first of the week.

F. J. Smith and wife, of Union City, spent the week-end with Paul Crockett and family.

Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Cravens spent the week-end with relatives in Martin.

J. H. Head and wife were Rives visitors the first of the week.

Mrs. Luther Hurt and children, of Okolona, Miss., who are on a visit to Mrs. Hurt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Ragsdale, are the guests of N. M. Farfar and family near Troy this week.

RIVES.

The election is on (Tuesday). What is the next exciting subject to fill our newspapers?

Mrs. Leslie Shore was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Woody, at Glass.

Master Marion Marlin is absent from school, on the sick list.

Miss Sadie Fry visited her parents at Fulton Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. E. H. White, very ill the past week, is convalescing.

Little Misses Louise and Lois Shropshire have been out of school, afflicted with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Dell Harper was a week-end guest of Mrs. Gentry Reynolds, Kenton.

Mrs. L. A. Hovis and Mrs. Sallie Hovis, of Union City, have been down with Mrs. Mat Hovis. Mrs. Hovis has been very ill but is reported much improved to-day.

Mrs. Jane Wade and daughter, Miss Martha, spent Monday in town, guests of Mrs. John Head.

Little Miss Ruth Harper had a day of her classmates for dinner Saturday. The festive spread was out on the lawn. The day being ideal, as so many of our autumn days are, a delightful joyous time is reported. Those present besides the dainty hostess were Gertrude Starus, Annie Mai McCowan, Louise Kitchell.

The Parent Teachers' Circle carried out a splendid program Friday afternoon. The hour proved all too short. The subject so ably discussed by Prof. Hays, "How can parents assist the school authorities in the prevention of contagious diseases," was interesting and instructive. So much can be said on this subject that it should again be further discussed at the next meeting. Then "How the teachers can assist the parents in preventable diseases" should have attention. The paper, "Do children need parties," was requested for the month-end meeting, as sickness prevented Mrs. Lee Wade from being present. The fourth grade geography class, conducted by Miss Fry, was creditably recited by the two long benches of little tots and proved of interest to numbers of parents.

Mr. Erskine Moffat, of Charlottesville, N. C., here for ten days past with relatives, has returned home.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Will Carter, of St. Louis, came through in their touring car and visited relatives over the county.

More sneak thieving is reported. Leo Bean was recently relieved of money and wearing apparel. Considering that a member of the family was keeping company with an accessed tooth and

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16. Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
