

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Read This

Buy now and we can fill your wants

Cut Glass.

Hand-Painted China

China Dinner Sets

Japanese Baskets

Jardinières

Brass Goods

1847 Silverware

Silver Nickel Ware

Aluminum Ware

Genuine Thermos

Bottles

Come to our store and let us show you through

Read This

Your are looking for the best thing for the least money.

Ranges. Coal Oil Heaters
for Bath Room

Bath Room Fixtures

Air Rifles. Rifles

Pocket Knives

Velocipedes

Irish Mails

Roller Scates

Hunting Coats

Gun Cases

Electric Irons

Safety Razors, 25c

Dustless Mops

Percolators

Lamps, Boys' Wagons

Nailling - Keiser Hardware Co.

Phone 27

UNION CITY, TENN.

Phone 27

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Fitts-Burrus.

Dr. Wm. T. Fitts and Miss Carrie Louise Burrus were united in marriage at the residence of Mrs. O. A. Kennedy, mother of the bride, at Woodland Mills, on Monday afternoon, Dec. 7, at 2:30 o'clock.

The nuptials of these popular young people have been anticipated for some time, and preparations were made in advance for the event.

The home was prettily decorated with a color motif of green and white, with a beautifully designed wedding bell and Cupid in harmonious effects suspended, under which the twain were united.

The receiving line included Mrs. Crittendon Bondurant and Mrs. J. C. Moss, with Mrs. A. L. Burrus at the register. Punch was served by little Mary Alma Kennedy and Rachel Burrus.

The musical program was specially expressive of the occasion: Miss Katherine Burrus, sister of the bride, in white shadow lace over broadened satin, with Mr. Ownby as accompanist, rendered Traumeri as a violin number and then sang "Adorning." Then to the wedding strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March by Mr. E. C. Ownby and Miss Burrus, the processional, came the bride and groom.

Rev. Meeks, the officiating minister, in a very impressive ceremony, locked the golden bands which bound two hearts in one.

The bride was dressed in a green cloth suit with hat to match and carried a sheath bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The attendants were Miss Fannie Brasfield and Miss Mildred Killings, worth, both in green cloth dresses, carrying pink carnations and ferns.

After the ceremony an ice course was served.

Dr. Fitts is a popular resident young physician of Jackson, Tenn. The bride is socially popular and highly connected. She is a gifted musician, a former pupil of Mr. Ownby of this city, and is also lovable in person and character.

Dr. and Mrs. Fitts left for a bridal trip to Memphis and other points and will be at home at Jackson.

Whooping in the lungs indicates that phlegm is obstructing the air passages. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP loosens the phlegm so that it can be coughed up and ejected. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Oliver's Red Cross Drug Store.

Caldwell-Terry.

A. E. Caldwell, of Clayton, and Miss Clara May Terry, of Fulton, were united in marriage Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 7 a. m., at the Christian parsonage in Fulton by Rev. McCorkle.

Mr. Caldwell is a well known citizen of Number Three, a man of extensive affairs in his community. He was engaged in farming and merchandising at Clayton for some years, then in business with Mr. Elva Caldwell in this city. Returning to Clayton, he devoted his time exclusively to farming, and afterwards became a member of the Obion County Court, esteemed for worth, character and influence. The bride was a resident of Fulton and very charming in person and character. Obion friends tender the kindest congratulations.

The bride and groom will reside in the home of Mr. Caldwell at Clayton, and were accompanied after the wedding to Clayton by Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. John Terry, of Mayfield, Miss Pearl Terry, sister of the bride, and Miss Crow, where they were tendered a reception.

Hale-Isbell.

A. B. Hale and Miss Annie Irene Isbell were united in marriage Sunday evening at the Methodist parsonage in the city by Rev. W. W. Armstrong.

The bride is a daughter of that well known citizen and Democrat, J. C. Isbell, of Number Two, and a young woman of tender graces, lovable in character and person. The groom is a son of another good citizen, C. B. Hale, of the same community, and two of the best families are thus connected.

The warmest congratulations are extended.

Edmiston-Davis.

Herman Edmiston and Miss Clara Davis, of this city, were united in marriage last Sunday evening at the parsonage by Rev. H. A. Butts.

The groom is a son of W. A. Edmiston, this city, and is connected with N. A. Vaden & Son as salesman and deliveryman. The home of the bride was in Cayce, where they met. The young people are well known and esteemed by numbers of friends and congratulations are extended.

Sell your Christmas turkeys from Dec. 10 to 21, as this time will get the best prices. We will, however, buy at the market price all the year 'round.

Christmas Market.

The ladies of Pleasant Valley announce a Christmas market Wednesday, Dec. 23, at White's furniture store near the old post office, where will be offered for sale for the benefit of the new church dressed hens, chicken, eggs, milk, butter, and cake and other articles. The friends are invited to come and help in the work.

Sunday Services.

Rev. Wm. Thorne will preach next Sunday at the first Presbyterian Church, North First street, and the friends and public generally are cordially invited to attend.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Baltimore, Md. — "I am more than glad to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I suffered dreadful pains and was very irregular. I became alarmed and sent for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until I was without a cramp or pain and felt like another person, and it has now been six months since I took any medicine at all. I hope my little note will assist you in helping other women. I now feel perfectly well and in the best of health." — Mrs. AUGUST W. KONDNER, 1632 Hollins Street, Baltimore, Md.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Bradley-Fleming.

F. K. Bradley, of Woodland Mills, and Miss Fleming, of State Line, were married Sunday evening at the home of Esq. A. M. Shaw by the Kentucky magistrate.

Mr. Bradley is a woodworker and blacksmith at Woodland Mills and the young bride and groom are both esteemed in their respective localities. Congratulations are extended.

Neighborhood Band.

The band meets every Tuesday night with Miss Clara Wehman. Come and hear their delightful music. The members are Misses Clara Wehman, Rose Brown, Mary Wallace, Erma DeGraffenreid, Dixie Caldwell, Mrs. Ruth Whipple, Jas. Miller, Homer White, Sid Caldwell, Charlie Brown.

Shooting at Hickman.

A shooting affair occurred at Hickman in Rone's restaurant between Banty Hill and Louie Weatherly. Hill fired four times, two of the balls taking effect. One plowed a scalp wound across the top of Weatherly's head, another struck him in the right shoulder, inflicting a severe but not regarded as a fatal wound. The weapon used was a 32 caliber Smith & Wesson pistol. — Fulton Leader.

Curtain at 8:15 Sharp.

Al G. Field's Minstrels will start promptly at 8:15, on account of the length of the show. Will kindly ask everybody to be in their seats by 8:15.

A Nice Game.

What is domestic science, hey? That's just a little quirk To keep from scaring girls away Who don't like kitchen work.

To Have and to Hold.

"Hubby, you haven't held my hand for a month."

"How can I hold your hand," he demanded irritably, "when I gotta hold the baby."

Back in Form.

How is it that your wife is going to Florida so soon after her summer vacation?" "Oh she has recuperated from that all right."

Heartburn is a symptom of indigestion. Take a dose of HERBINE in such cases. The pain disappears instantly. The bowels operate speedily and you feel fine, vigorous and cheerful. Price 50c. Sold by Oliver's Red Cross Drug Store.

Letters to Santa Claus.

Dear Santa: I am a little boy five years old and have tried to be very good. Please bring me a little toy automobile, gun, fireworks and all kinds of good things to eat. Please remember my little sister, for she was not here last Christmas. Don't forget father, mother, brother and all the little children.

Your little friend,
HARRY ROYER.

Union City, Tenn.

Dear Old Santa: I am a little girl four years old. I want you to please bring me a big rag doll and a pretty black-haired doll, a doll bed, a rubber ball, a picture book. Please bring my little sister Evelyn a rubber doll and a rattle, and our stockings full. Don't forget the other little children and papa and mama. Your little friend,

MARY LILLIE NOLES.
Union City, Tenn., Dec. 9.

Dear Santa: I am a little boy six years old and go to school every day. I like my teacher very much. I want you to please bring me a train that runs around on a track, a story book, a pistol, a top and I want a nice pair of gloves to wear to school, plenty of fireworks and my stocking full. Please don't forget papa and mama. Your little friend,

MAX NOLES.
Union City, Tenn., Dec. 9.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy seven years old. I go to school every day and love my teacher. Dear Santa, I want you to bring me a little tool box, cap pistol, and all kinds of candies and nuts and everything good to eat. I will go to bed early. Don't forget brother and sister. Your little boy,

J. D. SLAYDEN.
Union City, Tenn., Route 8.

Among the Savages.

Why should a society man seek the depths of darkest Borneo? Is there any chance for his explorations to result in any discoveries worth while?"

"Decidedly worth while. He hopes to dig up a new dance."

About Due.

"I must go. I have an engagement to meet my wife at 4 o'clock."

"Why, it's 5:30 now."

"Yes, she'll be coming along soon."

W. G. Reynolds buys poultry twelve months in the year. Take your Christmas stock to him. Same old stand for twenty-five years.

Callus

NOW IS THE TIME to buy your winter

Bon Air

is the best that comes to Union City

At No. 150 and our wagon
will be "on the way."

Union City Ice & Coal Co.

A Careful Housewife.

"Did you peel the onions under water to avoid having your eyes smart?"

"Yes, and I have an idea."

"What is it?"

"Why not boil the water and serve it as onion soup?"

One Resolve.

Of brains I may have a light cargo,
But I

Will never allude to Chicago
As "Chi."

Beef 17 Cents a Pound.

It pays to take care of your cattle and to see that they grow rapidly and keep healthy. Don't let them run until the inspector comes along and condemns your herd. B. A. Thomas' Stock Remedy is guaranteed for Horses, Cattle and Sheep. Be sure you get B. A. Thomas'. Ask Frank C. Wehman.