The Kind and Style of Clothes a Man Likes to Wear

To be dressed in perfect taste is no longer a slur upon the man wearing the clothes. On the contrary, the man is subject to criticism unless he wears clothes that have the right style.

These Fall and Winter FITFORM suits are of particular interest to every young man who buys clothing because of their new style appearance.

The cloth and colors are modest or with more life in them if you want it. The prevailing shades of grey predominate and Tartan plaids are always good for most men. We have plain cloth in serges, worsteds, chevots and cassimeres. We have a choice to select from in new plaids and checks. Everything here that is in demand.

No better values than these ever offered at $16.50, $17.50, $18.00 and $20.00

Editors Commercial—Dear Sirs: Recently we lost one of our daughters, Mrs. Will Washam.

Our neighbors and friends were as good and kind to her and us as it is possible for people to be. It is impossible to see and thank each personally, so we want to thank them sincerely through your paper. Some of our neighbors and town friends stood nobly by us. We cannot forget Mesdames Ed Watson and Sterling Stone, Henry Moss and W. C. Farris for their kindness to the five orphan children left by Mrs. Washam.

Sincerely yours,

MR. AND MRS. JENT PALMER AND FAMILY.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all our friends who were so kind to us in our sorrow, and to especially thank the physician, Dr. J. Brian Adkerson, for his attention. We will hold him long in memory, together with all those who were attentive during the illness and death of our little darling, Charles. May God's blessing be yours.

MR. AND MRS. G. C. TOWNES.

The Discontented Woman.

(By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.)

The discontented girl or woman is tiresome and unpleasant as a companion, but the morbidly discontented woman is far worse. Perhaps you have met her, with her eternal complaint of the injustice of Fate toward her.

She feels that she is born for better things than have befallen her; her family does not understand her; her friends misjudge her; the public slights her.

If she is married she finds herself superior to her husband and to her associates. She is eternally longing for what she has not, and when she gets it is dissatisfied.

The sorrowful side of life alone appeals to her.

This she believes is due to her "artistic nature." The injustice of fortune and the unkindness of society are topics dear to her heart. She finds her only rapture in misery.

If she is religiously inclined she looks toward Heaven with more grim satisfaction in the thought that it will strip fame, favors and fortune from the unworthy than because it will give her the benefits she feels she deserves.

LOSING HEAVEN RIGHT HERE.

She does not dream that she is losing years of Heaven here upon earth by her own mental attitude.

We build our heavens though by thought.

If you are dwelling upon the dark phases of your destiny and upon the ungracious acts of Fate you are shaping more of the same experience for yourself here and in realms beyond.

You are making happiness impossible for yourself upon any plane.

In your own self lies Destiny.

I have known a woman to keep her entire family despondent for years by her continual assertions that she was out of her sphere, misunderstood and unappreciated. The minds of sensitive children accepted these statements and grieved over "Poor Mother's" sad life until their own youth was embittered. The morbid mother seized upon the sympathies of her children like a leech and sapped their young lives of joy.

The husband grew discouraged and indifferent under the continual strain, and what might have been a happy home was a desolate one, and its memory is a nightmare to the children to-day.

UNDERSTAND YOURSELF.

Understand yourself and your Divine possibilities and you will cease to think you are misunderstood.

It is not possible to misunderstand a beautiful, sunny day. All nature rejoices in its loveliness.

Give love, cheerfulness, kindness and good-will to all humanity, and you need not worry about being misunderstood.

Give the best you have to each object, purpose and individual, and you will eventually receive the best from humanity.
