President Wilson and Mrs. Galt.

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt will be married on Saturday, December 18, at Mrs. Galt's home here, according to a formal announcement made to-day at the White House.

It was also announced that the only guests will be Mrs. Galt's mother, her brothers and sisters, the President's brother and sister, his daughters, and the members of his immediate household. No invitations will be issued. No announcement was made regarding plans for a honeymoon, but it was expected that the President and his bride will leave Washington soon after the ceremony for somewhere in the South.

Although no announcement was made of the hour of the ceremony it was understood it will be late in the afternoon. The Rev. Sylvester Beach, the President's pastor in Princeton, and the Rev. Herbert Stodd Smith, rector of Mrs. Galt's church, are expected to officiate.

The formal announcement of the wedding plans was written out by the President himself this morning. Immediately afterward he left the White House to visit Mrs. Galt. Both have agreed that all the details shall be as simple as possible. It has been intimated to the diplomats who have made inquiries at the State department that no display in connection with the wedding is desired. Despite that, it is expected that many officials and admirers of the President will send gifts.

Joseph R. Wilson, of Baltimore, the President's brother, Mrs. Anne Howe, his sister, and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, the President's daughter, will be guests at the White House when they come to attend the wedding. Miss Margaret Wilson and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, the other two daughters of the President, are already here. Mrs. Galt's home, where the ceremony will be performed, is in the fashionable section of Washington, but is too small to contain a large party. Nevertheless both Mrs. Galt and the President decided not to have the wedding in the White House.

The brothers and sisters of Mrs. Galt, who will be present, are Rolfe E. Bolling, of Panama; Mrs. M. H. Maury, Anniston, Ala., and Mrs. Alexander H. Galt, John Randolph Bolling, Miss Bertha Bolling, Richard W. Bolling, and Julian B. Bolling, all of Washington.

Dr. W. A. Bolling, of Louisville, another brother of Mrs. Galt's, will be unable to attend the wedding because of the serious illness of his wife.

Members of Mrs. Galt's family said to-day that the ceremony would be performed after 6 p. m., and that the couple would leave immediately for a honeymoon journey. Their destination has been kept secret even from members of the family. Mrs. Galt's mother is in personal charge of most of the arrangements.

The duty of securing a marriage license will fall to I. H. Hoover, chief usher at the White House, who performed similar services for the weddings of Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Sayre.
