MOTHER SUPERIOR
Says Vinol Creates Strength
Rosary Hill Home, Hawthorne, N. Y.—"I have used Vinol for many run-down, weak or emaciated patients with benefit. One young woman was so weak and ill she could hardly creep to my door for aid. I supplied Vinol to her liberally and in a month I hardly recognized her. She was strong, her color charming and her cheeks rounded out."—MOTHER M. ALPHONSA LATHEOP, O. S. D.
We guarantee Vinol to sharpen the appetite, aid digestion, enrich the blood and create strength.

All Tired Out.
At the moving pictures we many thrilling pictures see; I am worn out and excited from the strain.
Every day some fresh galoot draws a gun and starts to shoot, And the perils of the hero tire my brain.
I have tried to stand the test, but I really need a rest
And a transfer to a less exciting realm.
I may be an awful mutt, but I rather wish they'd put
"How to Know Our Native Wild Flowers" on a film.

Church Notice.

Generous Gives People.
In response to the call for a Christmas box to be sent to the Confederate Soldiers' Home, Mrs. W. J. Caldwell has just forwarded a contribution from the people of Rives, one of the most liberal ever received from any locality, so unusually generous and extensive that the ladies of the chapter here have been moved to return a vote of thanks to Mrs. Caldwell and her friends. The box was sent to R. T. Curllin's to be forwarded to Nashville by the chapter.

Accidently Shot.
Max Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Harris, this city, while out hunting with his friend, Leonard Phebus, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Phebus, Jr., last Saturday, a short distance from town, was accidently shot. Leonard's gun was accidently discharged while pointing towards Max, and the shot, about forty altogether, entered the latter's thigh, and made a considerably wounded leg. Max was taken home and is a shut-in where he will probably be for some days until healed. Fortunately that the shot did not penetrate a vital spot.

HOPE FOR SHIP BILL.
James P. Clarke's Support Adds Influence to Those Who Favor.
Washington, Dec. 4.—Prospects for passage of the administration ship bill at the coming session of Congress were brightened to-night when it became known that Senator James P. Clarke of Arkansas, who led the Democratic revolt against the ship bill in the last session, looked with favor on the new bill proposed by government heads.

Senator Clarke, who was renominated for president pro tem by the majority of the Senate caucus, after a spirited fight against him based on his opposition to the bill, let it be known that he would not oppose the new measure.
The Arkansas Senator, during the debate in caucus Friday, was asked for his opinion of the new bill. He said he saw no objection to it and could give it his support. His opposition to the bill last spring, he said, was because of its government ownership feature. The new bill contemplates a naval auxiliary merchant marine, which he could favor, and provides for government ownership of stock only in case private capital is lacking.
